Issue 834
Date: September 1, 2016
Time: 8 pm

I begin this session tonight welcoming us all together again and opening myself to my awareness of my light body - the energy essence of that aspect, of all that I know as me. I link with you as your light body essence aspect - a part that has a greater access to different levels of consciousness and so it seems it can separate and we can gather in that state, in that experience, as being bodies of light. It makes it easier for us to draw together into an area of light, that which we are drawn into being the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Already you will feel you are adjusting to the energy in this space as if it has a rhythm and a separate atmosphere from what you are familiar with in your earthly surroundings in life. You may be experiencing it as more ethereal and perhaps you sense different colours around you. Use your senses to observe and understand what you observe in this space. In this visitation you come forward singly into a particular area of the receiving area and you are greeted individually - this aspect of you that is present here in the receiving area, greeted and welcomed.

"Indeed Beloved, Orem welcoming you into this area again of communication, an area of assessment and an area where we do indeed introduce you to different aspects of creation, different lifestyles and different Beings present here.

While there are many different Beings who come forward into this area, it is separate from what could be present within the manifested universes of creation, simply because what comes through here is individualised as either groups or separate entities focused within this Command Station, and in particular we all have the intention to manifest energy and information to assist you, to help you to remember your infinite original aspect of self and the purpose for which you entered into a life on this present planet situation. We will focus on this indeed, rather than other areas you would have gone to and proceeded in a different manner to assist.

On Earth here, the main focus is to clear the elements that you have as a human energy entity and in clearing you, you are able to receive more of the energy and information which elevates you in an energy aspect. It increases your vibration and as your vibration increases you resonate with higher levels of consciousness and this brings in new information and opens you up to different possibilities and the potential that exists always. The potential you often can understand exists within your known universal consciousness. Every time we assist you to expand to the limit of your consciousness field, you are receiving more energy to help you understand those existing concepts that are within you, as a universal Being of Light.

This will be drawing you into a new focus here within this Station with us, and you will remember being here many times, perhaps in a different way to how you have entered into the receiving area and within the Station this day. You can be drawn into this area to help facilitate greeting of other Beings, or you may be drawn into this space because your particular energy is needed as part of an activation sequence as part of the alignment and connection of some of the portals which indeed help the integration of the pattern of energy for all of you and for Earth Station itself.

What we have brought to you in this opening address will be working within you, within your understanding and comprehension which comes forward from levels of consciousness within your physical aspect, and those levels of consciousness are present with your body of light. Your body of light holds all of this energy information, yet is still receiving more of the patterns that you will be receiving throughout you. All aspects of you.

We will now bring you into a different area within the Station and here you will be very clearly discerning that there are changes occurring in the energy patterns of your light body - adjustments of some of the energy chords and the patterns which will be relating to different energy spaces of the physical form. We referred previously to the information given that new areas are coming into the knowledge of your scientific investigators. The more that they are able to access deeper levels and to evaluate different frequencies, then they realise that there is more to the human body element than has first been recorded and expanded upon.

What you are receiving here is some of that energy activation. If you feel you are being expanded and you feel different areas being enlivened, this is what is happening as part of this process. There are connecting channels being cleared or realigned as part of this session here. This will help you assimilate and remember the energies experienced within the cities of light. This will also help you become clear in your mind about these cities of light and how you are present within them from time to time and how you, in your presence within some of the central areas of that crystalline light existence and civilisation, are able to receive informing beams and channels and you are able to assess those and integrate those and then you are able to transform them and pass them out. You will feel this around you in this moment.

The details you will be receiving yourself, for the details you will need to interpret each in your own way, and you each have different visualisations and interpretations. We bring you the energy and the concept and then the different aspects of you interpret and integrate and activate and act upon what is received.

You may acknowledge, and you may need to acknowledge, the particular purpose you have in this and that it is unique, but it is also possible for you to work harmoniously with similar Beings, whether they are in that state known as Light Beings, or whether they manifest physically alongside you, it is the same. You will recognise those that you work harmoniously with.

Present here are those known as Star Beings and as they come forward, they are very much speaking to you within your heart and your mind. Therefore, there is the thought pattern and understanding and there is resonating deeply with an emotional response to their presence, and you will feel you are absorbing what they are offering to you.”

“In speaking to you in this way, we offer you this energy presentation to you, to surround you all, and you will maintain this in your sensing and you will be able to envelop other people in this energy field. It is part of the upliftment and support aspect that we bring to you through this way and indeed we are speaking to you as you are positioned here within the greater central area and the central concentration of energy within this crystalline energy system. Therefore, you may be perceiving us as crystalline beings in our energy and this is just the finer resonating energy field that we have around us that we express to you. You may not see us in perfection as a form, because we are of an energy essence, but we are able to accomplish with you a certain set of codes which you have already agreed to, and this is why we are able to come forward because your agreement created the resonating field that drew us to you and we are able then to express the information given to you.

Generally speaking, we have come to you from that manifested field to do with your origination place of creation of existence. As we speak this to you, you will feel you have come into that returning state of feeling part of that existence which we envelop you in.

It was a process to manifest a human body form which would in time, as you have discovered, be able to accept this energy. You will remember the energy.

We withdraw from this and from your presence here. We speak to you with joy, as we behold your Light Body.”

“Orem now back with you here Beloved. Draw your sensing back into your light body and now be prepared to come back into awareness of being in the Station of Light.

We draw you out into deeper areas of your consciousness field and you automatically adjust to those energies. Now I am bringing you back to be much more aware of the group assembled again and in this respect we also return you back to the receiving area of the Station.

Slowly and gently coming back in the Station here now, the receiving aspect.

You will sense more of the physical unit you are embodying in this current life phase you have.

I leave this with you for this transmission Beloved

Orem out “

This is Lani with you again and I must bring you back to Earth.

Perhaps you feel this time you are being beamed back to re-join all of the Light Beings manifested on Earth. You will have a different understanding of yourself. You were not shown that other aspect of life and the dimensional existence to create any great separation. It was to restore the sense of oneness within the overall creation and to also activate in you the areas that you will recognise as part of your existence in the overlaying crystalline city of light.

Already this is present both within our conscious thoughts and within the dimensional existence around us. There are many opportunities in our daily life to realise the existence of all of this.

Now become aware of your physical body. Become aware of bringing energy into it, in all areas and even though we are restoring everything to the physical body, you may still be aware of different Beings very closely around you. You may have the sense that you communicate with them more clearly and observe them and have an awareness of them as you move through your days and nights.

As I close the portal now at the conclusion of this transmission, become aware of your surroundings and the day and time.

Enjoy the clearness and the strength of this session. Thank you and I thank all of the Beings involved in this session.

Lani
