Issue 837

Date: September 22, 2016

Time: 4 pm

Another new experience. Another time to journey together in the inner planes of consciousness. Another time to settle your body - let it be comfortable in a place where you are not disturbed - so that your consciousness can move completely into your body of light and travel with us into a different time and space.

As this comes through the Omega Portal this day, I draw you with me into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

The interesting thing about these transmissions I find is that we are not given much technical information or told what is to happen around Earth, but we are given energy and we are taken to spaces to work with energy, because we are accepted already as being part of this group of Beings, consciously aware that we are here on the planet to assist in a great process. In that respect, you are accepted and honoured and greeted, so feel very strong and confident and aligned in this space, with your attention present here in this receiving area.

"I greet you here Beloved, Orem addressing you.

As I move into this space and you receive the energy that I bring forward, you will find a sense of relocation happening within you and around you in your sensing.

The relocation is related to the alteration in your energy frequency and thus you will find that there is a change in the circumstances around you. There might be a change in your physical element in different places. It will manifest in various ways for you, but you will recognise change is happening and you will realise that your thought patterns - your realisations - are changing in accordance with the energy frequency. We are helping to adjust this in you and to bring you forward into the space where you can work with the increased information, which is increased energy through you, and different styles that you will be working with in your life pattern.

This is indeed a time to accept the change and as you accept it, you again are given the impression that you are moving forward. We observe this and we assist this in you. Your higher states of consciousness already are experiencing this and because there are different aspects of you, the higher evolved state of consciousness is coming to draw you forward, to connect with you, with that increased and altered energy frequency.

You may be aware at times you have resistance to change and this is part of the thought processes that you need to be aware of, and thus as you change the thought, you become more engaged in the flow of energy which is drawing you through it, or drawing you forward into a greater pattern of understanding and you are able to work in that greater pattern.

You are experiencing communication with many areas further out from you in your energy field.

When you began this conscious pathway of awakening, your energy field would have been quite close to you, but through the constant acceptance of the energy, you would find that your energy field extends far beyond where you are physically located at this present time. Your energy field from this state of existence where you are communicating with us, includes your physical aspect. You may be aware of course you are in a different locality in a dimensional sense, but your energy field incorporates the physical unit.

Now bringing your attention here with us, you will find there is an allocated space for you to be in here and we are working individually with you at this present time. Feel now that you are journeying and travelling through different areas within the Station - areas that have plant life, areas that have accommodation suites, areas that have a sense of moving into different vehicles and preparing those. There is a whole existence within this Station as it relates to your individuality and the level of consciousness on Earth at this stage of existence.

You are being drawn into another meeting space where you will receive more information to assist you, in whatever way you present the energy of the higher consciousness into activities around you, and as you share that with people, you will be aware that it is from a different source than the ordinary over-laid conditioned level of awareness of people.

You are helping to maintain a layer of energy consciousness which has become strengthened around the planet and it is now being incorporated into a number of activities such as written words, creations, manifested types of living. It is an overlaying of the civilisation drawn in which many of you are now recognising as the cities of light and it all contains a pattern - a frequency. From our perspective we are referring to it as an energy sequencing grid. From your perspective, as working within that within a human form, you will find that it manifests as groups of people talking to you outlining new proposals and patterns of living and ways of planting food crops and ways of treating other creatures. That includes not treating them with created elements that harm and destroy and disturb the natural organic body form. You will recognise yourself the energy you feel when you eat pure food, when you take into you the pure elements of creation that are designed in this sphere of life to support the humanoid form.

Again you are being presented with the energy of the elements needed for you and you are offered this opportunity to absorb it completely through your energy light form here. The process then will continue of absorption when you merge back into the physicality. At this present it is held within your light body energy form here.

We address you at different sessions in regard to the portals that open to present Beings from other civilisations who come forward to help you as indeed at this time. “

“We enter through a particular portal to you this day and we bring you the recognition of Star Elder Beings amongst you. We have come to observe the energy aspects of you in your form here as they are being moved and integrated into the human physical element. You need to be aware of the increase in frequency, the increase in the modulation of the pattern of waves throughout you, and this is having an impact on the overall existence in which you are involved and it is necessary to bring that all up into a higher modulation - a higher energy frequency. Our presence with you here now exposes you to the next segment of this energy sequence.

Feel that you are observing this. Feel that your vision is experiencing many different lights and configurations shown to you, different styles, and this will be helping you in many ways, because what you are receiving and seeing is also received throughout the entire energy form for the entire physical form.

It is all part of the structure of the codes now necessary and to help introduce and strengthen in the energy pattern of existence on Earth, a higher grade of energy.

This is what we have brought forward through the Portal to you this day and you stand within the energy as if you are in your individual sphere of energy containing the appropriate pattern for you.

We withdraw now. “

“Acknowledged. Orem back with you and I am facilitating this sphere to give you the time to recognise it around you. Perhaps you will observe it in texture or colour and this is what you now must bring back with you into the receiving area.

We had drawn you particularly out of measurement of time and space and during that you received many activations, many levels throughout you. It is not necessary to expose you for a duration that you would measure and define. It happens in this sphere of energy because you have received it fully.

As I am communicating this to you in the receiving area, you may also feel the change that is occurring here around you. Many of the elements shift that compose a different sense of structure around you and you would feel that the structure is very flexible, as indeed it is and it responds to your presence and it responds to the mass presence of Beings here.

We will continue to address you in many sessions as part of the process of helping you raise your energy and reconnecting you to your Source of all energy and information necessary for you.

Beloved I acknowledge you in this space as One with that energy field that you chose to bring into manifestation here on Earth

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. This is Lani again and I am aware that I must embrace you in the Earth vibration again.

Feel this has been an energy treatment for you, although you may have received personal messages and confirmation in different ways.

Now you are beginning to come back to integrate all of this in your physical body. Remember that your energy field extends very wide. You must be conscious of keeping your energy field strong and be careful of your thoughts and be careful of what you focus on and expose yourself to.

You have a strong sensing and knowing of what disturbs you and that is what you must follow.

I am now closing the Omega Portal for this transmission and ask you to be fully grounded and connected into the current time and day, fully present and thus able to share your love and gratitude and joy in your world.

Thank you

Lani
