Hello again. Are you ready for another message? Another interesting journey into levels of your consciousness and into other dimensions? To do that means that you need to receive it in an altered state of consciousness so that you will perceive yourself in other dimensions and be able to receive the energy that is presented in those other dimensions. You do this by consciously transferring your awareness into your body of light. This is how we begin.

From my body of light, I greet you and I call you to be with me and to receive the knowledge that you are assembling in the receiving area of the Station of Light. Here we begin the releasing of the concepts that we hold very closely to us in the earth plane. The concept of materiality, the concept of physicality, the concept of what we consider life to be about on the earth plane, and these are many and varied in our own thoughts. To allow the higher information to come through, we have to let go of everything we know, and everything we think we know, everything we have learned - so it is letting go of the conscious analytical part of the mind to allow the information and energy to be received.

So we begin in this state by opening to receive.

"In this higher state of consciousness, I come forward and greet Beloved, Orem addressing you.

We always have the knowledge and the presence around you of the informational network. This means that there are many Beings connected in consciousness, in different spheres, around you and we perceive you in a particular sphere of energy and we see relationships connected to you. We see different timelines that you are present within and we see what is appropriate for you to receive in this presentation to you. Even if you are receiving this presentation in some other timeframe when you receive it, the information present around you now will be current and you will receive it. It will be flowing to you in the moment that you open to allow it to come to you.

We continue in the evolvment of you, in giving you energy which will change your frequency. To do this we firstly are assessing you and adjusting you here because many of you still have attachments which are obvious in your energy field here as we are communicating with you. We give you the energy to help you release that and to be fully present here, so you would assume that your physical body is relaxed and at peace and your energy body here - that light body we refer to it as - can move and be adjusted to the informational energy grid presented to you.

Now you are able to come with us deeper into a communication chamber within the Station of Light here. Even though it is within the Station, you may be aware that you are perceiving beneath you in your vision, or separate in your vision, planet Earth. You may even perceive the area that you have left to be here with us. You may even perceive where your physical body is. Your perception is not limited by any physical reality. You are able to perceive your energy positioning from here. This gives you an expanded viewpoint of your life pattern.

This is not what we are concerned with here.

We are presenting you here with an ongoing level of activation to suit your positioning in the present field of activity you are engaged in, in the Earth body and in increasing your energy here, you are positioned so that you are able to perceive different portals and different Beings present with you who are assisting this whole process. There is the engagement in the correctional energy grid which overlays everything around you at the moment, which is also enabled through the presence of Beings who are aware of what is needed to be adjusted. They are aware of your circumstances. They are aware of the programme in which you are engaged. They are aware of your potential. All of this is visible in your energy presence here.

We have many times given you opportunities to accept an altered state and to accept many adjustments, and in some cases some people have been allowed to visit other stations from here. We are with you as one group in this state and we are also looking deeply into your energy structure here and as we do so, the limitations and the pathways which need adjustment are obvious to us.

The adjustments are always to allow free flow of information of what your light body receives here into certain aspects of your field of memory and your field of thought and action. realisations and also the accumulations that are held in the emotional field around your physicality and all of that is engaged in the field of activity present on planet Earth.

In your Origination Station before you chose to enter within a life pattern on Earth, and also on many other planetoid areas, you selected the concept of what you would be able to bring into the landing area that you would be engaged in. As you realise this, open your perception to draw upon that same level of information again for you, and energy. Also you would be engaging the Beings who are actively helping you in your activities on planet Earth at this time.

Refreshing you with this enables you to see the productions and the manifestations appearing on the Earth planet which are in line with this originating energy field of consciousness. Many of you continue to carry burdens of responsibility. The responsibilities do not relate to the energy of the Origination Station. The burdens of responsibilities were accumulated from your visitations and experiences into other manifestations on other planetoids. Therefore, the work that many of you are engaged in currently to clear all of those aspects is very valuable, because then you are more capable of resonating to a higher energy field frequency which manifests a higher state of existence and livingness and that incorporates what many of you have come to talk about as the alternate Earth.

So we have encompassed you in all of this information and energy at this time. You are accumulating layers of energy in each of your visitations to these spaces and we ensure that you collect the information that is appropriate for you in particular. Because there is a vast array of you present here, you are all accumulating different aspects for your particular functions, but they are kept separately around your unique energy field structure. You are drawing in individually many different aspects from the Origination Station for you each.

Even in your light body here you may be experiencing shifts in energy which you will also experience in your physical body form. The shifts in energy of course are helping you integrate and acknowledge the increased energy frequency for you.

You will be acknowledging a sense of change around you in your life pattern and if this is not apparent to you yet, then your timeline and you perhaps, are not synchronised correctly with your Origination Point within the Station. We leave this to your individual choice, and when you feel it is appropriate to accept and realign yourself to that energy information space.

Many of you have fully reconnected to that and you still retain knowledge and blockages and disturbances around you. Our focus has been a continuation to assist you to release all of those levels of interference and limitation.

Now as we gather you back into awareness of the communication chamber, then we also are giving you the sense of acknowledgement. The acknowledgement is because you have reconnected and you have now taken on again the pure level of information. This comes through in your daily activities. This will come to enhance you in many ways. Therefore, allow all of the disturbances to be released from you. The higher energy frequency helps you in this, so you have been attuned again into the pure elements for you.

You may also have the sense of gathering information in this chamber of activities which are occurring around you, which we will not detail to you, it is for your perception and your observation to be active and to carry this in your memory as we now bring you back to the receiving area of the Station.

We invite you to be here many times to continue this upliftment of energy for you. Much more is revealed to yourself by yourself as you integrate it all.

I am leaving you now with all of this around you Beloved

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. This is Lani speaking and we have many Beings around us here, as usual, and I am just here observing all of this occurring for you.

On some levels [or your awareness] you may feel nothing is being achieved. On other levels you may feel empty. On other levels you may feel filled with a quality, an essence, within the energy you have been experiencing. It again is what you allow yourself to receive that will come to you and which you then will adapt to and use in your life. Now we must return to the physical body form.

I am also aware that each one of us guided. At the moment we are guided by the Being called Su Yan Ra and while words have not come through, the presence is very strong with the sense of a guiding hand and love. I know this surprises many of you who feel that the Beings from other dimensions do not experience love. Well, there are dimensions where love is experienced, because it is an awareness and a state of consciousness that exists present, that is all dependent on what you have read and received. Su Yan Ra indeed surrounds you in a loving presence - supportive, indeed enfolding you and is present with you helping you integrate your light body back into your physical body. You may feel there is a sphere of light in the area of your heart centre - a blue-ish sphere of light filled with exquisite energy for you.

Su Yan Ra withdraws - and I thank you indeed.

Now become fully aware of your surroundings again, where you are receiving this message. Take the information and energy to help you in every way. I close this session through the Omega Portal

Thank you

Lani
