Issue 839

Date: October 06, 2016

Time: 5 pm

I am happy to greet you today and speak to you from my body of light and I ask you to identify with your body of light and to make sure you are comfortable as you listen to this message so that your body light will become much stronger for you, and you can put your awareness into that body of light. Then you can allow yourself to come with me and meet in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

You are always welcomed into this space and it is especially good at this time to continue with the raising of energy - your energy - the planetary energy; all of the systems around you. This is part of the purpose of the Beings who communicate with you in this space.

I step back and allow the greater energy and information to come to you.

"Beloved, we greet you. Orem addressing you initially and as always, there are many Beings here in support and who can come to you directly. Those of you who perceive images very easily already will have seen or sensed the different Beings who are with you here. They are here for the purpose to assist you and support you.

We are here with that intention. You are here also with that intention of receiving everything that you can receive at this point of intersection in your life journey. Already you have travelled beyond your initial entry point into the Station at this time.

There is movement around you as you become familiar with the energy and you become aligned with the particular energy and flows appropriate for you to receive in this time. You will understand that there is more to unfold to you, continuous. It is a process, you see - progression - and even though you may anticipate a certain thread of information coming to you, you would realise that in this group session there is the generalisation presented to you and through the overall enveloping of you in the energy, you are enabled to receive particular words and impressions individually.

There is no limit as to what can be presented to you in this Station. The limit comes from your state of awareness and consciousness and your willingness to allow yourself to receive, perhaps to travel and experience in many ways in the various dimensional layers that exist here, what is necessary for you to understand more of yourself and the location that you are in and the appropriate mechanisms operating around you and the planet for experience and for opening and awakening and upliftment. This is why we call these messages for you and your visitations here to be multi-dimensional experiences.

The Beings here with you are drawing you in particular into the central communication area.

At this time your focus will be on the gathering of many of the commissioned personnel who are responsible for operating the portals that enable you to travel and enable you to receive information from other areas and planetary systems, and there are Beings here who are calculating in their own way, the amount of energy that you are able to absorb within your light body here and calculating also what is required for your physical unit. There are others who are assembling groups and perhaps you may experience yourself moving into a group to travel into other spaces beyond this Station of Light, and that would be for many purposes. To gather information or to report or to assist Beings in those other areas.

What we would present to you here is the pattern in the overall unfolding of creation around you. Part of that requires you to reconnect to your origination point so that you can reassemble and experience again the depth of your energy systems in that state and space. You may consider this to be reporting back to that state and origination station from the Earth station and then you can assemble what is required for you now, for the next phase on the Earth Station. Already you are feeling that you are gathering in much to you. You are also adapting to an energy process that is being given to you to sustain you in a stronger field of energy frequency as you will be moving back to the Earth processes.

Already you see in this early part of the transmission you have taken into you most of what is required for you in the continuation of your experience and sharing energy and information on the Earth station.

Before you fully integrate that, you are brought back to the communication chamber. You will be experiencing that you are sharing some of your time shift in a group communicating with other Beings here and some of the Beings you are connecting with, you haven't visibly connected with recently in your measurement of time, but they are indeed drawn into this space with you.

The calling goes out during the transmission of this session to every one of you who links in with the messages and who relates to the messages and all of you who draw upon the deeper, inner sensing of the messages for you and for Earth. It could give you the impression that you are holding an important position on the Earth station and you are, because you chose to be in that station, with all of your awareness and actively contributing to the overall evolutionary process.

This is done gently and over time and in the ways that you are able to communicate the information to other people without creating resistance. You will have observed during your many sessions with us, what we bring to you is in such a way that it is your choice and therefore that does not create resistance in your overall field of understanding. Resistance would distort the frequency that is given to you.

In this positioning here with us, your light body is completely in tune with the frequency it draws upon. In your physicality you are also able to create resistance to what your light body presents, so you are asked to allow the light body state of consciousness to enfold you with everything that you receive. This empowers you. You will understand that, and it also will help you identify some of the limitations that could still be apparent within you and within the mechanisms of your energy systems which impact upon some of the actual physical systems of your body unit. When you withdraw to a higher awareness of all of that and you remember that the body is a living organic unit, then you can move through the layers of the energy systems and can perceive the changes and perhaps you may indeed be able to reconnect some of the missing links and mis-attunements, mis-alignments, for yourself.

As we present this to you, we are assisting you in every way and when you complete this particular transmission you will experience feeling quite different.

You might experience feeling a greater depth of fulfilment and an increase in your personal vibration. This would give rise to a sense of feeling very clear. Was that your intention when you joined in with this transmission? Have you allowed that to occur throughout you? The process continues in many different ways for you.

Here I am bringing you back to the receiving area of the Station. This ensures that you bring this wider field of energy and information received around you, closer, stronger and more consciously within your light body, as if you could see the configuration changing and adapting to the frequency fields around you here. This was my function for this transmission, Beloved

Orem out “

“This is Ulea speaking with you in this receiving part of the Station. I am visiting with you again and have been enabled to communicate with you verbally, across the intersections of time. I have moved through to be with you through the portal from an entirely different system. Some of you have experienced life in a system where there is a different tone and frequency and a different vibration which creates the impression of different colours, and so I am presented to you as a different coloured Being to what you may be familiar with in humanity form around you.

The level of energy that I bring around you could be familiar to many of you and it is because I surround you in support, as we all do, but in my own way, supporting you through the transition and through the times when you are releasing many of the intense emotional reactions that you would think as normal for the human form. We consider that to be adapted and created and manifested in such a way that the outbursts of some of the emotions you feel can actually go forth and affect the environment around you individually and around your space.

So, it is always that I bring you love and help you experience joy and gratitude and that leaves no space in you for the opposite of those expressions and as you realise that, then you are able to move forward into unity with the higher energetic fields coming through to you. This allows you to communicate more clearly with the higher dimensional Beings and you become in accordance, in tune, with the vibrations of those different Beings. You may actually feel that I am assisting you in a process of clearing an aspect around you.

And that is done and now I am also permitted to restore you, to help you come back to reconnect with your physical element body unit in all of its ways, so you will be already feeling the energy coming around your body form here. Let it merge completely with you and I withdraw at this time

Ulea out “

Lani speaking to you, now that we are all back, grounded, aware of the locality where you are listening to this, but do enjoy the sensation of that loving support and clearance.

Take all of this into you, to express a higher evolved aspect of Self. Thank you for being with me on this particular journey and I close the Omega Portal at the conclusion of this transmission, until we gather again and receive the new and next unfoldment.

Thank you

Lani
