Issue 840

Date: October 13, 2016

Time: 5.30 pm

Hello again. Are you ready for the new transmission of energy and information? I am ready. It has been a beautiful day - a high energy day - just perfect for us to settle your body and allow it to be at rest. Allow your mind to open and allow your attention to move into your body of light consciousness. A state of being. Perhaps you might sense your body of light as a body of light emerging from your physicality, and just feel the difference. Feel the beautiful energy that has and now feel yourself being drawn together with me and we move into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

The vibration is different here to what is normally around you on Earth so it is easy to identify this as a separate space, a gathering space, one where you can feel the energy of the Earth station moving away from you, giving you space and the sense of being free to return to a state of consciousness very familiar to many of you. This is how we begin this day and you would feel yourself relaxed and at ease in this space. You may also sense the energy building and then a portal appears and Orem presents himself into this space with us.

“Greetings Beloved and indeed I observe you all and I am calling in other ones to be with you here. The calling goes out to everyone who is prepared to recognise the energy frequency and to allow that aspect of themselves to be here in this space. Even if they were in the state of sleep, they can be aware of this energy calling and would be here with you, with us, in this space.

You will be identifying many areas around you in your living space and in the Earth space that have pockets of increased energy. You are becoming more aware of this and wanting to identify them or perhaps visit those spaces. Also you would need to identify the connecting points in a corresponding network, or grid system, in the energy matrix that overlays the Earth station, and this is what you in particular resonate with.

At times you are drawn into different levels and the different levels might be associated with different thought patterns and different activities and different stations, such as this station of light that you are within here. It is all part of the dimensional energy frequencies and these do move in accordance with attention that is drawn into them and the number of light beings who are drawn into those spaces for particular purposes.

The purposes change in accordance with what is needed deeper into the manifested world of Earth and also appropriately what is needed to be drawn in from a different dimensional frequency to balance or uplift, or restore, repairing in some way. It is not easy to define it into the languages that you would want to know, and if you were to study the different layers, that may indeed distract you from the energy flowing through all of creation and it is the energy that you would be needing to identify and allow yourself to connect with.

In this space you are connecting with an energy frequency beyond this particular receiving area of the Station and so you can see that there is uplifting occurring around you and through you and for you.

Allow yourself the freedom to be drawn into the threads, or the channels, of energy presented here. You are observed always. You are guided in this space, so that you are maintaining a network within the group and you would also be able to sufficiently identify the particular words and actions needed for you.

You have been finding that the more information you read or hear or see, you feel you can shift perspectives and perhaps it draws you in one positioning, or it could have the opposite effect of excluding yourself from all. This is why the attention should be on the energy flowing throughout whatever you are observing and receiving.

If the energy resonates with you, then you would find you can proceed easily and safely, just as in this time you have resonated with a particular energy coming forth and you are moving through another portal which allows you to meet again within the crystalline city of light structure.

We have not drawn you into this space over recent messages. The focus has been on other issues, but in this transmission you are directly positioned again within the energy frequency of the crystalline city of light. You may feel yourself responding to this. In particular, many of the receiving energy circuits you have existing in your energy body of light here are identifying certain aspects of this civilisation and there is a drawing into some of those centres within you of some of those aspects for you to recognise and to understand the changes which are occurring in the dimension around you on the Earth station.

The changes are occurring as a result of you absorbing higher light energy frequencies. So, the continual practice that you have of raising yourself above the limits of the Earth station, going through to the edge of your consciousness field, allows you to draw into you altered frequency patterns.

In this instance you are being enhanced by the energy of this crystalline energy through you. It contains specific elements needed both for your energy form here and for the structured organic energy system of your human form. You exist in multi layers and multi dimensions, so whatever it is you are needing individually, you are drawing upon in this presentation to you in this area in the crystalline frequency. There will be continuing visions you may experience, overlaying what you may be seeing with physical eyesight and what will be appearing is part of the civilisation of the crystalline frequency and also some of the Beings who exist in that level of energy. These are coming forward to express their greeting and welcome to you in this space. “

“I am known as Su Yan Ra and I am of this energy frequency and I am welcoming you into this space at this time. You will recall that I presented you with an aspect of this energy, a sphere, at the conclusion of a recent visitation you had to the Station. This is ongoing and is being assessed within you presently here so that we may observe how you are interacting with the energy of this.

It will be having many different effects on you. For some it may be correcting some fragmentation or distortion in your physical cellular network, which of course is your physical humanoid form, and for others it may be reminding you of existences you had previously and also it will be helping to clear some of the implanted ideas that are manifested into the human life, right from your moment of birth, because you are presented with an ongoing level of constraint or domination or levels of fear or anxiety. What we are presenting you with during these sessions along with Commander Orem and others, is to help you identify the distorted senses and layers so that you access more freely the higher energy frequency you receive in this crystalline energy space. This is what I have come to communicate to you in this space. I acknowledge the activity and how you respond to it. “ “Orem again with you in this space. You appear to be suffused with that essence that that Being brought to you in this space and I want you to retain the memory of that, so I am drawing you back from the crystalline energy, back through the portal into the receiving area of the Station.

Here you will know also that adjustments are taking place. You are surrounded by us - many of us who work with you in this space and this is for the purpose of checking you and visually helping you to adapt to the change, because even as you release some of the very deeply implanted thought patterns and emotional responses, you feel the difference and in this space we want you to be accepting of the difference, so that you feel the strength and the clarity in your body of light here and that will help you complete the integration of it into your physical aspect, and complete the process of you allowing yourself to adopt the stronger sense of presence within the energy field and the stronger sense of what you bring in to the energy field around you, and to all of life around you, and to all of the people you come into contact with.

We also give you the suggestion that you will be very strong as the result of this infused energy.

I leave all of this with you Beloved as you continue the adaptation and integration

Orem out “

Lani speaking again. I am filled with joy and gratitude for these Beings who help us in these sessions.

Do you feel the difference and do you feel each time you listen to the messages you go to a deeper state of consciousness and you understand more and you change? That is the purpose of me bringing these transmissions to you and I do accept that it is hard to remember the words, but the energy should be easily remembered and absorbed within you.

The sense in this gathering space here of you all is one of joy and with that I ask you to be aware that you are returning to your physical body, really moving into this body, energising it, remembering that many of the faults have been cleared and also many of the controlling thought patterns and emotional reactions have been cleared from you.

My question now to you is how do you feel and how are you going to act in response to circumstances around you? How will you be?

Enjoy the process of change and observing yourself change.

I close the portal now that this transmission is complete.

Thank you and I look forward to the next time we gather together.

Lani
