Issue 841

Date: October 20, 2016

Time: 7.00 pm

Welcome to the new transmission this day, as I open my awareness to engage my light body, to move into that better state of consciousness than my normal daily routine and thoughts. As I put my awareness into my light body, I call you to do the same, to put aside your daily tasks and thoughts and to focus your attention into your body of light. So, it is with this intention that I gather you all together and we move into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

We have come into this area many times, so it is familiar, and if you are new to this communication through the Omega Portal, we assemble in this receiving area of the Station of Light as a transition space between the human physical conscious mind, and the higher light body mind and consciousness and therefore it is easier to link into greater depths of creation, to the energy that surrounds you and to the energy that brings information through to you.

The purpose of this gathering today is to connect together and to be open to receive the new deliverance of energy and information from the Command Station of Light.

“Indeed Beloved, Orem addressing you and I have come forward to be with you at this time and to witness the change that you are experiencing. There are some members of you present here who are already interpreting and receiving the altered frequency that is coming around many of you. So, as we gather you into this space during this transmission, the opportunity is presented to you to also receive this different spectrum - this different frequency - of energy for your systems.

It is part of the upgrade of the human energy form and system, to enable you to communicate more clearly and satisfactorily and deeply with the Beings, many of whom you associated with before you chose to come into the Earth plane and of course when you did enter into the Earth plane level of awareness, it was a separation that was presented that prevented you from completely remembering all of the higher information you had gained. At the time of your birth much of the energy systems that you were used to resonating with and working with were not appropriate to be used in the present condition on the Earth plane. Over the evolution of your lifetime significant changes have occurred both in the evolution of planet Earth and in your individual energy systems so that you now can become consciously reconnected to this energy space that you came from - your origination point and existence. Now you are able to bring that energy in and begin to use it all around you.

Many of you are sensitive to what is occurring in your atmosphere and in your water and food at the present time and so we are coming forward to assist the processes of you to enable you to release the disturbances and to draw in the higher pattern which enables you to move above the effects of much of what you are experiencing.

In this initial area here we are surrounding you in a level of energy frequency - a wavelength - a pulse - which is already helping the clearance from you of your reactions. So not just this vessel with whom we work and deliver the words to you, but many of you who are receiving this message are requiring this assistance.

Being surrounded in this energy now, we call you forth deeper again into other states of consciousness. Initially we pass you through areas within this Station of Light which again have significant relevance for your purpose and for the times that you present yourself into this Station and in those times you are very much present with a stronger aspect and appearance of your physical form. Therefore, you need for the stability of your energetic systems, to feel the energy of some of the elements that your body unit needs and these are present in this Station of Light and we are passing you through these. Perhaps some of you will sense you are passing through rich growth of trees and plant life and as you pass through that you will also be aware of a very high oxygen content and also a level of energy which you may perceive in your current vision as a mist, although it is not actual liquid, but it is an element you would be needing. Draw upon all of this as you transit through these areas and then you transit through another area which radiates you with light frequency.

You will be aware even in your body light and the aspect of your physicality here, that you are accepting this light and you are very keen to absorb it into you, in all of the multi levels that you need it within. It is pure, you see, it is not contaminated with anything that is occurring around your planet.

Now we move you further through an open portal and this portal again leads you into the crystalline city environment and civilisation surrounding and overlaying the planet Earth system. You may experience being drawn into different localities here and so whatever you are present with is appropriate for you to be stationed at in this moment. Some of these areas could be in mountainous areas, some of these areas could be in ice, frozen areas, some of these areas could be in desert and some of these areas could be in quiet places within a city or suburban environment.

All of these are appropriate to what you would respond to and where you feel you are more capable of bringing your higher energy in. You are not alone in the presentation of this energy and drawing it in. There are many groups of you present and you are also accompanied by Star Beings, some of whom are physically stationed on the Earth planet but only present themselves to certain people and they present themselves to you in this transmission. So, you can verify that you do have assistance. You will recognise that many of these Star Beings are similar to you, but do have differences and this is how you identify them.

We surround you each with love in these positions and now we would draw your attention away from that so you may gather again into a central area within the crystalline city of light and here some of the Star Beings are around you, and I withdraw to allow their presence to work with you.”

“Again at this stage dear one, Su Yan Ra I am coming to you and I touch you each on your heart energy centre and deep within that there resides a further element of energy receptivity that you may not have yet discovered and it is very appropriate to bring this to your attention now, because this is the centre that helps integrate and draws into you the frequency that you resonate with in this space.

There is always time to deliver the energy to you, but frequently in these sessions the time does not allow a full description and if we try to define exactly what this is to you, you may misinterpret it because of your level of understanding and you may miss out on some of the fullness of the explanation, and so all we do is deliver the energy to you, and you are able to envelop yourself in energy and you draw it into your light body here so that your light body becomes infused with a different radiant light. You will be able to sense and see this and know it.

The inference is that because you have been needing this, then what was indicated was a shortfall of the actual energy that you needed to help you vibrate into this crystalline energy environment and as you realise that, and you fill yourself with it, then what will appear to you are visions of different activities and states of living in this environment. You may also be aware that it is in a sense very protected from outside influences and those come from many other Stations and many other Beings present on Earth at the present time, but they are indeed excluded from this space. You can feel secure in this space. You can safely be enlivened with the energy. Enlivening yourself with the energy means you must allow the older structures to fall away from you. You may also sense you will gain the ability to have more control over what you see as the physical environment around you. That is just a suggestion for some of you to hold in your awareness.

Now we bring you away from this, back through the portal to re-join with Commander Orem.”

“Acknowledged. Orem here with you again. As I bring you together as a group - because you were separated in that state of consciousness - I want you to understand that the support continues to flow around you and as you also understand, what we expose you to here in this Station is a very different vibration to your actual physical life and physical vibration, so whatever takes place in this state does need to be integrated from your light body into your physicality and this is the aspect that you are required to focus on and to practice. As you continue to do that, the sense of your light body with you will become stronger and more frequent.

Now I am also bringing you back to assemble in the receiving area of the Station. You will be very conscious in this transmission of what you have been given and we have kept this to a very light experience so that you will consciously remember the information contained within the words and between the words, as energy.

I leave this with you here Beloved

Orem out “

This is Lani here again and I am aware that we still have a Being of light with us and this is a very tall, golden shaped being, human form, looking very kindly at you with strikingly blue faceted eyes that seem to see you and through you and around you, into the dimension around you on Earth, right through from where we are on the Station through to your environment. This is an assessment and this Being can report on what is observed through you and around you and that is very helpful in the way that the Beings gather information to help us as we evolve.

“We have the requirement to know this, to fully understand your responses and your reactions. As we do this, we can evaluate the changes and your shifts in consciousness and this is why we are present at this stage observing you and through you. We acknowledge your presence and we also acknowledge that aspect of you that was operating in a vastly different area and functioning very well with many talents and abilities and you used those in the overall service of creation. This is what we acknowledge and see in you now in your present existence, and we thank you for that.”

I thank that beautiful Star Being. Now everyone, you must return back to your physical body. Bring your attention to your physical body, the attention that is within your light body and feel yourself merge with the physical body. Perhaps even now you are giving the physical body more energy, aligning it and uplifting it.

As I close the portal as this transmission is complete today become fully aware of your surroundings and the time and day. Thank you everyone. Thank you all of those lovely Beings who were present with us.
