Inspiring and helping you !

The Omega Communications Personal Message

A Personal Message gives energy and information for you at this time.

I like to call them energy journeys, because the Light Beings who will come to you will surely uplift you and wrap you up in their loving support, and they have been waiting for the opportunity to connect with you in this way. The Light Beings - who come can be in the form of spirit guides, Angelic messengers, or from other planetary dimensions - whatever is needed for you right now - help to clear your energy field so that you make the appropriate choices now to create your next step on your journey.

I look forward to walking with you on this inner journey for your Personal Message.

Lani
