Issue 844

Date: November 17, 2016

Time: 8 pm

Welcome and greetings again to the new transmission. A time to relax your mind, relax your body and be open to the flow of energy and information, and as you focus inwardly and identify with your body of light, you will feel the shift of energy. As you do feel that shift, become aware that there is a greater group of Beings around you. It is almost as if you lift up out of your body, above the Earth space, connecting with a very large number of people, and each of us is drawn into the assembly area - the receiving area of the Station of Light. So, here we begin this session at this time.

Everything that you have been achieving in this current phase of experience is with you - the sense of satisfaction or fulfilment, or perhaps the sense that you wish to do more - all of that is with you, even in this space as your light body consciousness state. All of those aspects also need to be released, so that you exist completely open in the present, and in the present you will feel the flow of energy coming around you, pulling you forward into a state where you can identify an increasing sense of rhythm, of timing, of order, and perhaps of a greater perspective of the events and experiences which have been occurring around the Earth planet recently. There are many theories and facts involved in everything which occurs. Here in this space, we come to receive greater clarification from a different point of consciousness and this is where we need to be attentive - expanding our awareness - heightening our perceptions in every way.

“Entering into this space with you Beloved, Orem addressing you and I am enjoying being able to communicate with you all and to assess what you bring in with you.

We are able to read your energy body and the level of everything that you have understood and also your light energy body itself we clearly identify the rhythm and the pattern and the geometric energy field that it is, and in that assessment we can identify the places which need strengthening for you and the places which you can readily draw upon a different type of energy frequency for your entire modality as a humanoid form. Everything you receive here and the experience we bring you into will be useful for you in your current phase of experience in the human unit form.

You will be aware already that you have taken on a different sense in your light body here because you have a different purpose and in coming here in your light body, your light body is able to reconnect and reassume the aspect that it is in its trueness, where it becomes separated from the physicality and everything associated with the Earth plane and it becomes more clearly identified with the dimensional frequencies here in this Station of Light. All of this is significant for you to realise that you can function very easily as this light being self and if necessary, the light being self can draw to it more of the physicality to be present in this Station, if that need ever occurred in your timeline.

So, specifically here, your body of light is reconnecting with all of the issuance to do with the commissioning of you here in this Command Station and with the universal group of Beings stationed here. This also becomes an area from which you can be drawn into other elements of existence, although we oversee this so that you do not extend yourself too far away from this Station.

This is where you are needed at this time. The level of existence of the cities of light is always open to you here. In saying that, you will be aware that you have indeed become immersed within that energy central positioning of this light city structure associated with planet Earth and associated with this Station. What you are perceiving here is a very highly energised area of that light existence of that civilisation. This is to help you draw into you that pattern of energy which aligns you into that crystalline light civilisation. Some of you already are feeling you are drawn forward into that, and then more of the civilisation manifests around you and if you are perceiving flowing streams of light that you might identify as streams of water, then this is indicative that you are perceiving the flow of energy in that structure. You may also be aware that it is held in a particular sphere of energy which you may see is separated from the atmosphere of Earth. It is held in a certain dimensional space, so it has its area, it has its boundary and just as we have taken you at times to experience the edge of your consciousness field, in a sense this crystalline energy environment also has its edge to it, far out beyond your present conception of what that would be like. It is just to help you understand that it is an environment that is protected. It has its own sphere of the elements necessary for the lifeforms within it and it is already well established. We are just showing you part of it to again help you to resonate with this. Of course your light body resonates very well to it, is adapted to it, and what will be needed is the adjustment in your physical organism to the energy frequency of it. This is occurring in sequence and every time you experience this with us, you are receiving more of that energy frequency deeply within the pattern of the physicality unit of you.

The area of this vast city of light can encompass much of the planet as you know it to be now and you would understand that the energy of the biosphere of the planet is needing balance, it is needing energy adjustment and of course the energy adjustments are in turn creating change throughout the surface and internally.

The energy frequencies measured as particular wavelengths and magnetic fields occurring around the planet are also changing and you will be perceiving this in your body units. Frequent alignment and adjustment is needed to maintain your sense of balance and to enable the adjustment to the flows of energy coming in to you.

Also within this city of light where you are assembled in a specific area in a structured formation, you are receiving the higher spectrum of energy frequency. You may perceive this as colour or sound. As you attune yourself to it, you will feel adjustments happening right through the connection of your light body through to other layers associated with your physicality unit. So just allow that to help you and later in the process you will integrate it layer by layer.

We withdraw you from this space to assemble you in the central communication chamber. Here there are different segments and elements associated with the overseeing of life on your planet as also it is working in another dimension with another planetoid being and there is a balancing between these areas. It could be perceived as a dual Earth, a dual dimension and existence flowing and working parallel with what you currently experience but necessarily being identified as a separate space. The purpose of helping you to understand this, is to give you the knowledge that many of you often perceive a different reality that you are working in and while aspects of it are familiar, other aspects are not, and so you have the experience perceptually and deep within layers of your consciousness field of this different reality. This is not a reality that you would refer to as other lifetimes that you have lived. This is the - perhaps we might liken it to a mirror image, but the events are different and they change. There is a continuation of work in that other dimension to assist the process that you are going through currently on Earth, so it does help you on Earth and the Beings who are working with that and with your current reality understand the process. This is to say that you are in the care of an advanced layer of conscious Beings.

Now the reality that you are experiencing is the one that is important for you to exist in and to bring the energy in to help the Beings around you and to help yourself adjust to the changes. Some of you are needing structural or particular energy chord adjustments, so in this space it is possible for you to receive the adjustments necessary, so if you feel you are physically present during this phase, that indeed is what you allow yourself to receive. It is simply a matter of acknowledging that you have a need so that you continue to be actively serving and being present for everyone around you. This little treatment will work in an ongoing way for you.

There have been disturbances experienced with many of you to do with balance, to do with visual disturbance and all throughout different pathways within your physical unit. We understand the stresses that you are experiencing as a result of the different frequencies you are receiving and we would wish you to receive all of this to help balance and strengthen your energy matrix and incorporated in that is of course the intricate coding necessary for you in every way. So you will feel your physicality recede and we address again your light body energy self here. What you have received is very strongly evident in you now and we are communicating in many ways to you here beyond the words.

Bring all of this back with you now as I am bringing you into the receiving area of the Station. This transition space is very necessary for you to continue to use in these transmissions and any time you wish to come into this Station.

You have adapted to a great deal of the flows of energy and we leave you here Beloved

Orem out

Thank you, Orem. Lani speaking to you again and I have the joy of bringing you back around me in this transition area of the Station and there are many with me here as well, many different light Beings. You may perceive some of the smaller silver light Beings who come around us and they are the ones who are watchful of the physical form. They could come around you at any time if you would be open and would be asking for help. They help bring in the perfect healthy matrix throughout you and they are supervised by other Beings of Light - Star Beings. They are very busy around you at present, helping you adapt to the energy.

Now I thank all of those Beings and I am asking you to now come back to your physical body so that you will be integrating everything from your light body into all layers to do with your physical body, all of the energy circuits, all of the emotional aspects, all of the mental processes - the mental field, the thought field that affects the body - and deeply into all of the energy centres running through you from your core energy channel. Now you will feel stronger and clearer for the light energy body is filling all of those aspects of you with the clearer energy received in this transmission.

I am closing the Omega Portal now at the conclusion of this transmission and you will be coming aware of your surroundings and the day and the time and of course being here present at this time on this planet that is still filled with the richness of the elements needed for the physical form and for all of the energy that is coming through from the groups working through Oceania and through groups working from different vessels of light, helping. There is a great number of Beings involved in our process of evolvement. Thank you for being part of this transmission. Be fully aware again.

Lani
