Issue 845

Date: November 24, 2016

Time: 4 pm

I open this Omega Portal again and ask you to be settled - allow your body to be settled and comfortable and allow yourself to have no disturbances around you during this short time that we enter within inner space / inner dimensions / greater dimensions, together. You have already started because you have picked up the transcript or you have turned on the player to listen and already your light body and greater perceptions are receiving the inflow of energy. Very often it can just be energy needed at this time, to rebalance and uplift everything. So, for you this time, you will receive just what you need to receive in this session.

Come with me and we journey into being within the receiving area of the Station of Light. I have gathered you into this space because you have been willing to receive the information necessary, and information is energy. Be aware that you are putting your attention into your light energy body here and that you have perhaps already started communication with other Beings here. There is always a lot goes on here in a multi-layer construct.

“We are here with you Beloved, Orem addressing you and all of those within this Station of Light. We are always aware of when you gather into space and we gather you particularly into this receiving area state so that we can help you adjust to the energy frequency here and it also helps you to be free of the changing energy around you in the Earth-plane, affecting you emotionally, mentally or physically, at this time. You are subjected to the pressures that the Earth system is receiving. The change in the magnetic energy frequency, the change in the atmosphere and the disturbances in the air that you breathe and perhaps even in the water you take in. We acknowledge also your attempts to purify the water and to purify the food that you take into you.

We are concerned here with your energy system. Your light body here will be strengthened and refreshed in the energy you receive here in this transmission. In turn you will be receiving that on all layers of your energy system.

In the present moment here your focus is within your light energy body. Be aware that you have strengthened, because your light energy body here is more in tune with the greater Source Energy of Creation - that aspect of you that was in a greater state of energy than you are at present in the Earth body you have, and returning to that greater energy state uplifts everything about your physical self, when you allow that to occur, when you remember that your light energy system is receiving a constant flow of energy and information and you are required to link with that and receive it, consciously.

This is because you have the choice, known as your free will. You can choose when to receive the energy. You can choose whether you will receive the energy, or adopt a different attitude and look for different source material to help you. Initially, because you are here, you are receiving directly through this system that your light energy body responds to and resonates to in this way.

When you are ready you will find yourself drawn closer around my energy sphere here and the Beings who assist you. Together we will travel into a different state of consciousness, where you are more receptive to the higher frequency. So, you have gone through the steps necessary to prepare you for this. The initial steps in the receiving area help to filter from your light body system the elements of the Earth construct and this then allows you the freedom to come in closer.

We move you directly into a communication chamber where the portal is open for those we refer to as the Star Beings to come forward around you.”

“As we observe you and we greet you here as individual Beings of Source Light Energy, we are tapping into the upper energy centre located within the upper part of your chest in your physicality. There are adjustments coming to you so you will adapt to the different energy in the atmosphere that surrounds you. Some of this has been polluted, as you are aware, and there are many sensitivities within your physical energy systems. As we observe this, we come forward to make energy adjustments. These will be incorporated into your physicality systems perhaps recognised as filtration systems, but also to align some of the energy chords to allow a greater filtration for yourself individually throughout your body systems.

You will be aware of the vibration in different places around you and different food energies you take into you. Also, be aware that with the increase in the energy systems of you here, you will be able to maintain a clearer energy connection. So, as well as this energy within the upper part of your body, there is the associated adjustment occurring in the processing areas located throughout different places in your body structure. We are able to facilitate this upgrade to many places within you. This is because you are needed to be present on the Earth plane.

You are all awakening, or have already reconnected to your Source Energy and your origination state where you understood what was needed to be brought into the Earth plane and this is being activated because of the intense energy shift occurring in the planetary Being. There may also be detected an alteration in the gravitational field. Be watchful for this. Be aware that you have the potential to draw in the energy direct from Source so that you can maintain a field of stability in you and around you into many of the areas that may be limited in the reception of the energy. You will see when more people are becoming out of balance with the energy. When you, yourself have received the energy to completely balance you as you receive the upgrades, then this is when you are able to reach out with your intention to increase the energy of balance and upliftment around you, and perhaps just the intention of holding clear energy in you and around you is sufficient.

We have drawn this to your attention and we have provided the energy increase in your light body systems here. It will sit well within you.”

“Orem addressing you again and I acknowledge that assistance from those Beings. You will perceive that the energy shifts as they withdraw and that particular portal closes, leaving you here with me in a communication chamber and in an event that is occurring for you, where you may perceive you are properly acting and receiving this energy. We simply refer to it all as either energy or frequency, without clearly defining any differences within the levels of what is being presented to you. We do this because your greater consciousness interprets and receives what is necessary for you. We also do this because you are present here in varying degrees of information and receptivity and we do wish to embrace you all in the energy and you will take the opportunity as you recognise the particular items that are applicable to you in this flow of energy.

We are able to give you the information that there are types of different Beings coming forward into this system where Earth is present. There are some who are diverted away because it is not necessary for them to participate in the changes and the energy of some such Beings would disturb the systems presently in place to serve the re-alignment and re-positioning of Earth and the transition phases occurring.

Every one of you has the same opportunity to advance and to express yourself in such a way that you can identify your placement and how you are able to bring specific lines of energy into your sphere of activity and environment. You may be more aware of that sphere of energy that extends out from you where you are located. Also be aware that you do connect in with the greater civilisation beginning to manifest - that crystalline light city existence. More energy is being incorporated into that in such a way that you present on Earth will be drawn into it and can use it and can acknowledge the presence of those existences. It is not for everyone to move directly into that existence. You are working appropriately with the level that is available to you and which will help you move through the changes.

We also observe there are many pockets of trauma around the Earth planet. There is an overall surrounding of it all with the sense of support and so you will hear that many people are aware of this in their own way and those who are ready will be strengthened and will be made aware of this support, and there are other Beings who are presently situated or going through experiences which separates them from being actively taking part in the process of change. There can always be many such of these Beings and as they go through their experience they can either be gently and slowly aligned to the higher frequency, or they may choose to leave the Earth existence. We just give you this information to inform you of what can occur.

Through you each there is a great linkage around the planet and the energy flows throughout and between you all in a great communication linkup. Frequently we come to those of you who are aware of our presence to give you the energy which in turn touches others to realign them if that is necessary, or to enliven them in some way.

Now Beloved, we have delivered to you the energy at this time that you have been needing and we withdraw you again to return you to the receiving area. Pause in this area to refocus your attention into the surroundings. It can be a very joyous and supportive state. We gently withdraw our energy to allow you to adjust again

Orem out “

This is Lani speaking again and I give thanks to you Orem and the Star Elders who were present, so I bring my awareness here around you. Also, you will be feeling the change, so allow this to flow in you and through you. Perhaps you will feel growing excitement and energy because you have been uplifted into a purer level of light and reminded that you must bathe yourself in that light, frequently, and when you do that, you are helping many others around you, through the energy communication link up.

Be aware now that you are being drawn back to reconnect fully with your physical body and the time and the location where you are receiving this. We quickly go into those deeper states in the other dimensions and so it is very necessary to make sure you are fully reconnected into the current timeline again, drawing in all those threads of energy that you already are adapting to and integrating. Enjoy the process, as I enjoy bringing the energy to you and to us all.

I close the Omega Communications Portal for this transmission is complete, until we again are gathered into this other state of consciousness.

Thank you all. Lani
