Issue 846

Date: December 1, 2016

Time: 8 pm

I open the Omega Portal. Welcome. I identify with my light body and as I put my attention into that, I also call on you to put your attention and awareness into your body of light, your energy body, so that your senses will be enhanced and so that we can travel together and meet together in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

As you do that, you will feel that much of the life around you is dropping away and you will understand that there is a shift in the process, in the momentum of the energy as we come forward and we stand individually within this receiving area and yet very much aware that we are part of a group, an expanding group, and perhaps you feel yourself sending out a call for other Beings to come in around you and join you.

It seems to be a very powerful time that we are beginning to move into and experience in many ways, to experience in our dreams and visions, to experience as we are talking to people, and we feel the energy exchange, so here we are prepared to receive the information and energy which the Beings who come through the Station here will bring to each and every one of us.

"I identify you here Beloved, as energy Beings. Orem addressing you and we are working through this vessel to also identify the disturbances, especially for this one, and also for each one of you as you attempt to work through your life patterns. Perhaps your intention is to create something of great order. Perhaps your intention is to care for other people. Whatever it is that you came to Earth to do, you will be aware that you are doing that very mission - that purpose that you chose - and as we draw around you and draw energy around you, we are also offering you increased energy to help you maintain the connections you have and the remembrance you have of being driven - of being really activated to be consciously present on the Earth plane at this time.

We understand that many of you are helping and working in different ways and you individually identify with different aspects of Creation in the different dimensional frequency fields which are identified as planets or dimensions or just areas where there would be groups of conscious Beings working and presenting a pattern for you on Earth, and for all on Earth. The overall purpose and intention of everyone is used. In the concept of and in your point of origin, even though you are individually experiencing creation, there was a greater plan presented as an overall aspect and there was a need for different realities and different energies to manifest on Earth, and this is how you came to be drawn into the Earth-space for this current time period.

At this stage we will not separate you into different time realities, but it is sufficient for you to realise that this current time life reality is the important one for you and it is in this current time reality experience that you consciously leave behind and drop away and disengage from you anything else that might be attaching to you from some different reality experience.

You have all you need in this present and so there is no need to recall what you may consider to be a past life experience, because you will have gained everything that you need to be here now and what we referred to previously was to leave behind and disengage yourself from any deep commitments and attitudes and vows you may have made. This is part of clearing you in the present.

We have your attention here and you will be aware of movement around you in the deeper field of energy and layers of Beings observing you and participating with you. It is now the opportunity to draw you away from that again and re-visit the crystalline energy manifested creation, the energy for you, as part of the evolution, so in presenting you into that energy and perhaps you felt you moved forward into changing flows, changing colours. Perhaps you felt you moved through a pressure field. This helps you identify in your senses, the change, and being clearly in this higher frequency, now you will feel you are drawing a great deal of energy into your light body, deeply into many aspects of it and we are speaking about the energy circuitry, the energy centres, which actually of course relate to many of your organs and processes in your physicality.

So, be aware that your light energy body is taking all of this in and so you will feel you are receiving a pattern and many of you will understand this to be messages, so the messages will be informing you, bringing you into step, into alignment with another channel of energy coming through to you.

There is an intersection which is clearly defined in the pattern and this is coming through, touching you in this crystalline energy space. So, we need you to be aware of this, and so you may feel that you have an open line of communication to elsewhere, away from the environment of planet Earth.

It is just so that you will be bathed in the energy which is flowing through that channel into you now.

There is a certain pattern even registered within your body of light which is being altered with this frequency so that you will be able to adapt more easily to the energy changes around Earth and that is as a consequence of the Beings working to improve and to uplift many of the processes and the atmosphere within this entire biosphere around the planet. With the activation and the alteration within some of the energy mechanisms and your light body is taking those in, you in turn will benefit in your physicality.

As we continue to hold you in this state, you are also being uplifted in the energy, and you will feel this. You may feel you are again losing the sense of self, losing the sense of your light energy system and you are just existing as consciousness. Your consciousness knows the pattern, understands the entire change which is happening. Your consciousness also embraces many of the deeper patterns of creation. Those include the Beings who are overseeing this process for you. So, feel that you are supported in all of that.

Now we bring you back away from that crystalline energy and come back into an area within the Station, and there are many layers in here to do with the re-ordering of some of the patterns that have been created on Earth and we are speaking about the patterns created through individuals and groups. The patterns are watched and observed and we also have advised that we cannot interfere with the free will of people, but what we can do is provide a greater vision of the outcome of some of which is occurring.

Many levels involved, of course. Many observations, perhaps many judgements, but holding an overall energy of light, of clearness, of evolvment, gives the opportunity to help people awaken and realise and that allows change. We wanted you to be aware of that.

Now, I am bringing you back to the receiving area. You have received a great amount of energy in this short transmission and we want you all to integrate that. We do acknowledge your Energy Light Being Self here.

I withdraw

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. This is Lani again.

You may already be feeling the continuation of the energy working throughout you. Perhaps you feel it in waves, perhaps you feel it in lines of energy flowing through you, through the energy chords, the pathways, perhaps you just feel your mind is filled with light. All of that is an aspect of what you have been receiving.

Now I will bring you back to reconnect with your physical body, but as you do that, be aware of the Beings of Light who have come back with you and who are standing with you, encircling you, perhaps showing you that you are in a great circle of Beings, and more than just a circle, it is a geometric pattern created all over and around the planet, working also deeply into areas within the planet and working into the areas where some of us are working in areas like the Station, or individual spaces separate to that. There are many spheres of civilisation around the planet, hidden from general sight, but for the Beings who have raised their consciousness and linked with some of those guardians of the planet are aware of these higher frequency areas. At some point they will be more common knowledge to us.

Now bring your attention back into your body, clearly flowing through your body, feeling your feet on the ground, feeling strengthened, feeling aligned, and allow the process to continue of receiving the information through your light body.

I thank you and I close this transmission through the Omega Portal
