Issue 848

Date: January 19, 2017

Time: 6 pm

I open the Omega Portal as we begin and I call you forth. I acknowledge you in all the aspects of your Beingness and I call upon you as your Light Body consciousness to link with me and to come with me into the receiving area of the Station of Light assigned to this planet.

We have already begun the transmission by just simply connecting in and opening awareness to receive, but as you do receive this. make sure that your physical body is comfortable and you are in a place you will not be disturbed, just for the little while that we do this, and then it leaves you free to expand back into that higher level of energy that you truly are. So, are you ready to proceed?

Bring your focus into this space of light. You will know that you are always safe and protected in this space. You are always safe and protected and when you know that, it gives you strength and clarity.

We wait now to receive the Beings of Light who communicate through me in this way to you, in this space.

“It is upon us to so do - to greet you this way Beloved. This is Orem addressing you and indeed this is the Station that I come forth to speak to you from and within. There are many spaces in here that I draw you into and we can travel on many inner journeys in this great Station. There are particular areas within this Station that are appropriate for you to know about and there many other layers and atmospheres and dimensions within this Station that are not necessary for you to experience at this time. So, just lay aside all considerations and allow your attention to receive what is appropriate here for us to bring you into and for us to deliver to you.

We observe you initially here to assess the condition of your energy form and we also assess the situations and concerns you may bring with you into this space. They do appear as some residual items - some stronger and some weaker - in your energy field here as you are assembled and so the vibration alone in the receiving area already begins the process of smoothing and clearing many of the layers that you have brought with you. Then you are able to proceed further with us and we do bring you into a deeper connection into the Station.

The levels in the connections do relate to items of communication which are necessary for you to receive at this time.

Progress is being achieved by many of you and there are many lines of learning that you are receiving and you are also opening up to deep layers within you, and this is a continuation of our previous message to you, where you were drawn deeply within yourself, past the layers of protection that you have initialised around you. to allow you to merge with the deeper aspect of self, where you lose perception of the boundaries of Earth, the construct and the energy construct and the dimensional force fields that are Earth and you move within the energy system that is you.

This energy system is entirely identified as your Source Energy and in particular, it allows you to recharge your sense of yourself and the purpose for your presence, both within this Station of Light with us and within the Earth structured station.

You are able to identify more clearly with the pulses of light you receive here. The pulses of light are the concepts which bring to you the forward motion, as if you were being drawn forward along a particular pathway. It is all presented to you in perhaps a linear fashion so that you can clearly be satisfied that you are moving forward along a pathway. As you expand your awareness and as you dwell more within the central core essence of yourself, you realise it is not a lineal pathway. It is an expansion through experience and through dimensions and these change and shift according to your realisations and according to your energy frequency that you are at the time which allows you to perceive different aspects of Creation.

There is no judgment on levels of perception. Everything that is offered to you is to help you raise your energy - your frequency - your awareness.

Now, as we draw you out of that central core positioning of self, we bring you into the portal which allows you to connect deeper within the crystalline civilisation dimension.

Feel your level, your presence, raising here. You may experience this in different fashions. Perhaps you feel you are drifting upward. Perhaps you are feeling you are helped to experience a different sensation that you register and perceive within the energy. Sound - colour - light - and we lift you into such a state where you readily interact with spaces within this crystalline dimension.

This is for the purpose of again strengthening the crystalline energy state of your light body present here and now you are able to fully integrate that into your light body, drawing it into you in every way that you perceive.

With that being established within you, you may now perceive many of the other Beings around you in this existence - calling you forth deeper within the understanding. You will be responding to this in different patterns which will evolve in your life as you experience it in physicality. Many of you are involved in projects, or have dedicated yourself toward expansion and upliftment, so this is the opportunity for you to acknowledge the assistance given to support you. It does not even require training, because in this state you align yourself again to your point of existence where you have everything around you that you were bringing forth into the Earth plane existence, so you will feel yourself being brought into alignment again.

Bring this around you, for already we are bringing you back into the receiving area of the Station.

There are many portals - time portals - being adjusted and synchronised in you and through you, and you may have been experiencing a time when you felt a lack or where you realised you were out of connection with the powerful flow of inspiration and energy. For those of you who were experiencing this, having reconnected in this transmission, you will experience the major change, otherwise it is just improving your energy experience and allowing you to have more energy to continue to practice that which you have already set into action.

There is much to be unfolded within your energy systems during this current phase of your experience and also as part of the experience here in the receiving area, we bring over you the energy to greatly increase the action of purification of your energy systems and the activation of some of those patterns which are ready for the crystalline energy to flow into you.

You may liken this to as being as necessary to your physical element as water and air is necessary to your physical element. It is another element for your entire unit.

What we have delivered you into in this space is to begin the next successive transmissions for you - a preparation time.

You may observe around you the planetoid existence and you may increase your level of appreciation of the land and the energy systems and you may also perceive many of the Beings who are enveloping it in that higher energy field construction which precipitates the movement and engagement of the planet into the higher level of consciousness.

What we have presented to you in this transmission will assist you in many ways when you draw upon it, and this is what we surround you with at this time, Beloved

Orem out “

I thank you Orem and this is Lani speaking again to everyone.

Come around me here in this space so that you begin the transition back into merging with your physicality.

It is as if the portals into the Station itself close and so there is only the way to proceed to come back to your body - and that is important - important to be focused and grounded in the Earth construct and you are part of that construction of the reality that you are in, although you do hold the connection to this incoming flow.

Now as you come back to your body, be aware of the light surrounding you, from above you, all around you and flowing through you. Perhaps you see the flow of energy, the energy chords, the meridians, perhaps you see it as a geometric shape that you are, perhaps you see it pulsing in unison with the rays of energy coming through. Then really feel your physical form, filled with this energy.

Breathe consciously and deeply and be fully aware of your surroundings and as this transmission concludes, I close the Omega Portal upon it, until we gather again.

Thank you, everyone

Lani
