I open the Omega Portal for another session today to receive the energy, to move beyond the physical daily life for a time and reconnect with your pure essence and with the Beings who support you and who are already drawing you forward in your body of light. You will be aware of the shift in energy and your focus moves within your energy form - the body of light - being drawn directly into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

This portal into other dimensions is enhanced every time you come within it, because your energy changes and you are being enhanced and every time you return to this space in your body of light, you draw forward a deeper pattern of energy to surround you. Therefore, this receiving area changes as a result of the energy that you have already absorbed, and are ready to absorb more. You will feel the difference. You may feel you are being rebalanced in some way in this present moment, just sufficient to stabilise your senses in this different energy reality and to prepare you to receive on all the levels of your Beingness, your Consciousness, the energy which comes forward through the Beings through this Station of Light.

Momentarily, expand your awareness to connect in with all the other people on Earth who are aware that they are part of a connected network and grid, upholding Light, or positive intention, for the planet.

"Into this space we come forward Beloved. Orem addressing you and you have prepared yourselves very well with this introduction. We also remind you that as you do connect into the various communication grid networks around the planet, you are metaphysically connected into every light station. A light station can be a gathering of people, it can also be a single person who has opened their energy system connecting into this same energy grid. This is just to bring your awareness into the greater possibility that this understanding will bring to you.

As you realise the extent of your connections, you will also realise it is a very supporting network, but if you are very strongly disturbed and you connect into the network, you may momentarily lower the energy field of that network. So, your constant realignment to your energy source, your origination, uplifts you immediately back into the level where you access the positive energy flow and this is happening for you in the present, surrounding you in a particular sphere of light again which we have mentioned in previous transmissions to you. You may feel you are cocooned in that sphere of light and indeed this is serving to relieve some of the pressures which you may have been experiencing, impacting upon your personal energy field and the many layers of your personal reality. Then it is drawn away from you, leaving you present here as your own body of light consciousness being.

We are ready now to progress and we bring you deeper in the Station again. We bring you into an area where you may perceive areas that you can view relative to particular centres established on planet Earth and whether those are connected into a deeper aspect of creation in a different gravitational sense, in a different galaxy perhaps and there are linkages between many of the centres established on planet Earth at this time.

You would also be aware that in front of you in your perceptions there are underground areas and underwater areas existing presently in the reality around you on planet Earth station. We are calling forth your attention to embrace these other areas, acknowledging the vast number of people involved in the linkages in support of the transformation of much of the Earth planet and in particular we are talking about people, because it is the people who bring forth the energy to transform areas.

In presenting this to you in this way, you may be identifying certain places around the planet, certain Beings of light who are linking with you also, communicating with you beyond words, although many of you may have the sense you have been taken out of this area and you are having a direct communication with some of these Beings.

Much of what is being presented to you is altering some of the patterns throughout you. We wish again to bring you into the crystalline civilisation areas, so when you are ready you will feel you are moving into crystalline light structures. Again, this may be enfolding you individually, or it could be within a group. We are just presenting the opportunity to you in this appropriate linkage in the dimensional network for you to receive and renew the pattern within you which is this crystalline flowing network and energy. It will move very deeply through your light energy body present here and further on we will continue to present it into the cellular network within you, but for now you are receiving communication very deeply in this crystalline energy.

It is receiving impulses from other star systems. The result of this is increasing adjustment in the positioning of planet Earth. You may have already been perceiving some of this change and may have been trying to identify the shift which has taken place within you.

Also, there will be times when you feel you are emptying out some of the information or matter or ideas that you have held very strongly around you and this emptying out will manifest in different ways around you. It is a process and your higher states of consciousness are well aware of the process and are influencing you - the conscious mind - the physical actions that you participate in and it is all allowing space for the greater energy flow to work through you.

As we have you assembled in this crystalline area, we are also able to keep you together as a group because you may have been sensing much activity around you in other areas. In this state you are more able to perceive different realities and the stronger energy fields which are being assessed within this Station, but holding you in a group, and specifically in the crystalline energy, keeps you separate from the influences that are moving around the planet. Some of those influences will divert your attention away from some of the higher purpose that you have initiated over time within you, with your commitment, the commitment to fulfil the original intention that you came to Earth to undertake. Again, there is a process here of stripping away from you the surpluses that are no longer needed and the result is that you are more clearly aligned with that original intention of you.

Within and behind and around every action that is taken on the planet, there is still the underlying base intention of upliftment and of creating an environment on this planet that would be more suitable for higher evolved Beings to make habitation here. That was part of the original intention for the planet but as events unfolded it was disturbed and changed. Now there is a greater number of Beings bringing the intention back into perspective and into knowledge of people.

Energy is being beamed into different areas of the planet, into some of those Stations, some of the light areas that you would have perceived earlier in this presentation, on the land, within the land, within the waters and the beams of energy do contain additional information to create and to construct and reconstruct in some cases, the entire energy grid network. You will be aware of this around you and within you and through you, so you have entered within a stronger sense of the energy, and a stronger time of energy, and this will strengthen your intention.

Now be aware that we are bringing you back out of this area that we have been showing you and I am bringing you back to the receiving area of the Station. In this space you are able to open yourself, as if you are presenting information that you hold to other Beings in this receiving area. It is because you are able to open deeply enough to trust yourself and the other ones assembled here in this Station. You are representing a great number of people in your current life pattern here. Many of those would have no comprehension of this, but they will be incorporated in the energy flow that you are receiving and presenting here. It is because you have moved into the Earth Station and created who is around you and what is around you. It does not mean every single being, but it does mean the ones that you feel a connection with in some way. We are happy to bring the energy through for you to release that into all the ones around you - all of the many that you link with.

I leave you here at this point Beloved, as the one known as Ulea wishes to come forward to be with you

Orem out “

“This is Ulea with you and I am happy to come forward to share this brief experience with you. I am filled with that great light response that Commander Orem has shown you and I am happy to share my response to each of you. In many ways you each are aware at times of needing greater support, perhaps clarity or perhaps energy to help you maintain the sense of your higher self.

I touch you each upon your heart energy centre and that deeper aspect of that which has been activated which receives firstly the crystalline energy flow. You may feel that part of you being enlivened with the energy and from then it flows through all of the energy flowing lines throughout you - the energy grid that flows around you and within you and through you, through the fluids and just the energy and very deeply into the cellular matrix within every cell. This is important. It is another energy system required to maintain you here in the Earth existence.

This is my purpose in speaking to you at this time

Ulea out “

As Lani again, I give my thanks to those two Beings and all of the supporting ones that we were in touch with in this session. You may have perceived particular Beings for you to identify. Now be aware of the crystalline energy through your light body and that you are bringing this back to your physical form right now. In bringing your awareness perhaps back into your mind or feeling it within your body, this is bringing your light body back in around you, right down to the soles of your feet and to the energy centres beneath your feet passing into the Earth. You have acknowledged many connections in this session and travelled beyond physical reality, so do make sure that you bring yourself firmly back now into your body, into the location here, and with this I close the portal for this particular transmission.

Thank you

Lani
