Issue 854

Date: March 02, 2017

Time: 6 pm

I open the Omega Portal for this inner journey of energy and information and as I do that I remember the various states of consciousness we move into when we gather together, and I remember the aspects of ourselves that we are reminded of and I remember that the Station of Light is present there always, and I remember that you and I have a purpose for connecting into this area, at this time.

Are you ready now to come with me in your light body consciousness and gather into the receiving area of the Station of Light?

It is with great joy that I have this opportunity to bring you into this area and into this state and you may perhaps find this easier when you are aware that there are many other people here, just like you - ordinary people, perhaps you feel you are living an ordinary life, and yet this inner life is extra-ordinary. Be here in this level of consciousness allowing everything of the world that you have created to drop away from you, until there is just You fully present, aware, in this state.

“We greet you here, Beloved and acknowledge your presence, Orem with you. We acknowledge how you are ready to leave behind you every thought that you have, every action that you have carried out to get to this point and to fully attend to the message and the energy contained in the message this day.

We have brought you forward into this space many times, but specifically for you to realise that there is the opportunity given to you always to go beyond what you have believed to be true and to enter that state of absolute knowing and realisation that the aspect of you that is present here at this time can fully materialise into this Station at some active point when it is necessary and if it is necessary for you to materialise into this Station in a more physical life pattern than just being here in your light body structure at present.

This gets you used to moving into this space, presenting yourself here, receiving what we are able to deliver unto you. Also, this period when you are with us in this state, surrounds you in an energy field that isolates you from everything that is around you, and for some of you it is very necessary for you to experience this. In that way, your entire energy field is cleared of some of the atmosphere and some of the energy patterns that you draw around you, or that is attracted to you as you experience life generally, especially if you are amongst many people. There is always, in such circumstances, the necessity to enliven your energy field and to remember the various layers that have been placed around you that you would refer to as protection. Also, you will remember that you have been given a very strong energy structure that draws away from you some of the more mechanical aspects of life that get attracted into you as if you are a magnet. In relieving yourself of all of these aspects, as you do in this state, gives you the clearness for you to be attracted to the higher fields that you resonate with.

This draws you into a deeper aspect here in this Station at this time and we are speaking to you here about some areas in the dimensions that are being altered so that you are able to feel you are almost in a state where you predict what is to happen.

You may also be aware that you are receiving what we are presenting to you before the words are spoken to you in this state. That is your level of connectedness into our energy systems here.

You are indeed Beings of a great bio-energy field, bio-mechanical in structure, organically structured and energetically structured, so all of these aspects of you respond to different layers of energy that you are receiving currently, in your current time upon the Earth plane and within all of the systems, so now we are presenting to you the energy field flows that are coming into you and you are receiving them on multi layers. Allow all of these to penetrate deeply within your visionary circuits that you are aware of and within the processes of your body.

Also, your light energy body system here is drawn into an area that is filled with the elemental structure of water. As I bring this to you, be aware of all of the water that you are aware of in your daily surroundings in your environment and in the entire environment of Earth planet. There is the restructuring of it. There is the infusion of it into it and into your physical body of a different deepened aspect of the element of water. This is part of the enhancement to do with the higher spectrum energy for you and this is also part of the crystalline energy frequency - liquid crystalline energy frequency. Feel that you are immersed in this momentarily in the presentation.

There has been a noticeable change in the water flows within your physical body and some of you are well aware of this in terms of holding onto water and then there is the time of releasing the water from your bodies. We want you to be aware of this. We want you to be aware of the natural flow and of the frequency now that is using water to implement a more rapid change in your cellular structure as part of the modifications so that you are able to integrate the higher energy flows coming through around you in this phase and ongoing now.

It is time to really allow the change to occur for you and to realise more of the energy system that you are, without focusing on the physical anomalies and the physical pattern, growths, etc. of the body. When you relate it all back to energy systems, you know how easily it can be changed. You put more energy into this, and you are used to doing this, even with applying thoughts, thinking about a person or a pattern puts energy into it. You are impressing the energy into a different system around you, just as we are impressing you with the energy of what we bring to you.

At the end of each session you will be very aware of the shift that you have gone through during the experience of the session, and we are making you aware of this now in this part of the session, enlightening you, and thus we are now drawing you further and deeper into an aspect of this Station which does not focus intently upon the Earth Station but is receiving the energy from another area of creation in the universe - you might say it is another galactic location. When you focus upon your point of origin you also are drawn out of the Earth energy system, restoring yourself into that origination station and we are helping you to be there now in this moment so that the repatterning of you is impressed very well and in the correct order for you to bring back into your current daily life pattern.

This can be also accessed at the time just prior to your birth and in the next few years as you developed when you were still very close to the energy of your point of origin - that place of home. We understand that many of you for many years have carried a sense of looking for home and the sense of being misplaced, or the sense of being lost in some way. This is because of the separation from your point of origin, so if we are addressing you who are experiencing this or have in your life time, renew your reconnection to your point of origin. This also brings around you the connection to those of you have familiar links to the Beings from that Station of life. This over-rides many of the accumulated chords or attachments that you seem to accumulate over many of your different life journeys.

These are not necessary in this part of your life as you progress into the higher states of consciousness in the cities of light, so there is this other aspect that you are realising happens when you come to your origination station. It is part of us helping you to be clear and to be fully present now, in everything that you do. It is important, you see.

We bring you out of this state and connection into an area that you may perceive is likened to a large control centre within this Station and there are observation areas and much of the continued analysing and connection that relates to you individually and different aspects of your life and to the holistic connected consciousness of various organised civilisations and different planetary systems. This is all able to be viewed in this particular area of the Station. We want you to be aware of this so that you will have the sense that you are not alone in this phase you are going through, in a sense of reconstructing who you are. As you remember and as you allow other old belief systems to drop away from you, you realise how you have existed in many ways in an overall singular purpose from your point of origin. There is very much an organised structure of unfoldment in creation, in the manifestation.

As you do overview many of these situations that are shown to you here, there is the aspect of you that is absorbing everything you need to know that you are capable of putting into practice in your own present location and the way you react and respond to what is around you. You are taking in a great deal. Feel that you have and this you bring back into you, into the receiving area of the Station and we see you have gathered in much information and contact with particular Beings who will be assisting you in an ongoing way.

I leave this with you now, Beloved

Orem out“

This is Lani again and I am here to acknowledge what you have been receiving and to acknowledge you. I see you different here. I do not see you as a person - I see you as a Light Being and the Light Being of course radiates joy and has certain patterns around it and the patterns resonate with different areas, some of which you have experienced in this session, some of which are still coming to you. When you experience your times of reconnection to your point of origin, you receive more in an individual way. It may just simply be a shift from you and a sense of receiving energy that clears your mind and clears your body.

As an individual Light Being you will draw into you specifically what you need, always.

Take this into you now and come back to connect with your physical body. The physical body of course is not just physical - it is living energy and you are going to infuse it with your Light Body Being Self. Some of you may feel a pressure has lifted from different parts of your body. Enjoy that sense and as I close this transmission through the Omega Portal I ask you to be fully grounded back here on Earth Station. You may already be perceiving different aspects of the light city structures around you, especially when you are outdoors in the natural environment.

Thank you again for being with me at this time

Lani
