Issue 855

Date: March 09, 2017

Time: 4.30 pm

I open the Omega Portal today and welcome you all in. I link with you wherever you are tuning in to the energy at this time, all of you who have been called and the many others who will be sensing the energy. So, put aside your physical activities and your thoughts and allow quietness at this time, so that you can identify with your point of origin and through your point of origin is the link with your light body consciousness. This light body consciousness has great potential for you at this time. Therefore, really connect and identify as a Light Being yourself and this is the aspect that I am linking with now from my aspect of my light body and together, as we move away from the physical body, you might have the sense that we are gathering up many other Beings from different parts of the planet. You will feel them being drawn up together. You will feel them being drawn out of underground places, perhaps from beneath the oceans, beneath the large lakes, you will feel people in their light bodies being drawn together and being connected into the receiving area of the Station of Light. Thus, we have begun this session of receiving energy and information at this time.

You have become settled into this routine of allowing yourself to drift away from the physical body and so in this state of awareness in the receiving area of the Station you are already sensing you are being repositioned to stand with different groups of Beings here, and you are always welcomed and received with great love and respect.

“Now it is, Beloved, that I am with you, Orem addressing you. We have moved beyond the boundaries of time and space and physicality, indeed, and we have identified each of you specifically at this time with the quality of the energy that you have integrated within you that you have allowed to establish a firm commitment within you and to bring into alignment other aspects of your physical body.

Some of you are still relating to other life realities and we have spent much time with you in clearing alternate life patterns that relate to this current life and other existences from beyond this current life pattern. In this present and in the presence of the Beings of Light in this Station we are solely focusing on you and the purpose that you have as defining yourself as a Light Being present on Earth and also defining yourself as a Being who is activated to resonate with the incoming flows of energy. The activation is that of the higher spectrum both in colour and sound and quality of the energy you bring through around you now. Momentarily you will feel the shift as any aspects contained here in the Light Body which may not be fully integrating the pattern of the higher spectrum yet, but in this case it is being drawn around you and your light body is fully adapting to what is presented here in this space.

There is the unfoldment and moving aside of many of the restrictions that come about you even in this receiving area of the Station and they are there simply as support for you, and in a sense, protection, because the level of the connections inter dimensionally, if you are exposed to them all at once before you are ready, may hinder your progress. So it is done sequentially and gently, but here it is, many of you will be feeling the moving aside as if you have more portals open to you and mostly in the group together here we are going through a particular portal as one mass group and consciousness. We are moving directly into another level of existence and although the light city civilisation is incorporated in it, this particular dimensional field and existence we are moving you into, is on another planetary station and is one that you have all been present upon and this is why we can reconnect you with it at this time. Allow the sensation of movement and energy flowing around you to be registered in your awareness here.

Also, you will be aware of the different vibration and colours presented in this level of existence. You will be drawing upon this in ways that you already know how to, for this is a continuation of your evolvment and to help you remember. Therefore, many of the circumstances you are involved in, in your current life phase will be made easier, because you will view them in a different way and you will be able to feel the appropriate action to be taken always. This will be much clearer for you and this has not been able to be presented to you until you could comprehend the movement from this civilisation and this origination station and planet that you could make it real and accept it and also be able to draw the aspects of it back into you into the plane of existence on planet Earth which is needing this. It goes beyond needing to find a solution to dramas that are enacted on the planet. It is entirely focusing on a level of energy which, when you are functioning in that level of energy, there is just pureness and the helpfulness and that in turn is a solution.

It is THE moment of the upliftment and activation of many Beings on Earth. So, no matter what they are involved in physically, there is a moment - you may call it a flash point - when full realisation comes to many people and this may include you all here in attendance, and in that moment there is an orientation of the entire Earth plane consciousness into the next state - the next level.

Were you ready to realise that and to know it and to leave behind all of the actions you may have been doing to fix something or perhaps to be drowning in one corner with all of the dramas that are continued? They may still continue, but when you are in this higher level of realisation, they have no effect upon you. We needed you to know this so we brought you into this existence in this origination planetary existence for you to experience and understand.

Of course, you will come back into your life and will continue to improve your personal surroundings. Improving them brings about greater order and sense of order within you, for you will want to see in your surroundings the reflection of the inner order that you have.

We bring you back now to be present in the communication chamber that you are most familiar with. It is an opportunity to present yourself into the presence of some of the Beings here who wish to communicate with you personally and individually, so you may be experiencing a light touch upon you, or you may be sensing some supporting words that are being impressed into your awareness to help you understand and help you facilitate the phase that you are being prepared for next to unfold. There is always unfolding. You do not exist in one stationary moment.

We also many times draw you completely out of time and all sense of existence around you, even the Station, and in this point you are held in the powerful creative existence. As we describe this to you, this is what you are experiencing. Your Light Body consciousness responds to this in such a way that change occurs.

We bring you out of that moment of connection into this communication chamber. Life here continues to be evaluating and impressing those who are working with the appropriateness of what is to happen and to define some of the more intricate processes that occur within your physical units, as a result of the integration of the energy field, change. Throughout your energy field there are aspects which respond to the influences of the beams of energy and information surrounding the planet in this moment and these do influence activities of the physical body. You could have been experiencing different sensations occurring in parts of your body and this is the increase in flow of the cells of the matter which is being infused into you through the element of water. We call it matter to make it stronger in your reality. Again, this is layer by layer, piece by piece until you are able to absorb more, consciously, yourself. This is the way that we are helping you come back to the potential for the human form and consciousness. Your consciousness can limit how the body reacts and the consciousness always is in the process of seeking, of evolvment and unfoldment. Again this is moving through you and around you.”

“We speak to you of many things at this time, we who are addressing you now, collectively known as Star Beings, and it is our approach to you which signifies the deeper connection within you. We are functioning in such a way closely within you in this Station so that you may feel you are one of us and this is our way of drawing you forward into this different spectrum of energy that is often described to you as the ultra spectrum for you. We are doing this as part of the presentation to you here in the Station, but in such a way that we draw you forward and there are various connecting parts in your energy systems here that we are able to work with. You may feel you are being infused with a pattern of light all around you. Realise that you are this Light Being here. We also acknowledge, as does Commander Orem, that you may need more specific information about what is occurring with different groups of people and different aspects of the planet and satellites and what is occurring around you. It is a very complex interconnection and movement of groups of Beings and you will have realised in our sessions that we focus on keeping you clear of what has been limiting you so that you can maintain a connection to the greater universal fields and Beings coming around to support you, whereas many other groups are still involved in sectors around the planet of control and separation and many of those do not work on expanding consciousness. We withdraw now.”

“This is Orem again, acknowledging that extra information and energy you have been receiving from the Star Beings, some of whom have come through from vastly different dimensions to what you exist in now. Already who will be feeling you are being pulled back to the receiving area of the Station. It is appropriate for me now to disengage from you, withdrawing and allowing you to realise more of what you have been receiving.

Orem out “

Thank you Orem and Star Beings. I am grateful for everything that you bring through to us. Now everybody, feel that you are being gathered again into a very close group and you will be aware that many are departing from this space and it is up to you now to bring everything you received in your Light Body consciousness back into your physicality. There has been explanation about what is occurring in your body, there has been energy and information to help you absorb the higher frequency and you have been shown a different planet that we have been existing on before we came here to Earth. It has been very interesting today with this experience, so make the sense of your light body very strong. Your light body is always taller than you and does not have the same shape and form because it is more pure consciousness and energy of that. You may sense movement amongst the planets around us and this signifies the alteration in the pathways and the shift in dimensions to allow greater perception. It is like there has been a layer shielding us from understanding, and now you are ready for it.

Bring yourself back to your body now, aware of the beautiful energy within you now. I close this transmission through the Omega Portal. Be fully conscious in the present, thank you.

Lani
