Issue 857
Date: March 23, 2017
Time: 8 pm

This day again I welcome everyone to the Omega Communications Portal and I help you to identify your body of light - a special energy self of you and the energy self is the most important aspect of you for this part of the journey tonight. So, as we begin, you will have the sense that your light self is very eager to leave the body and to proceed and so we will gather together in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

Here, as always, there are different areas to this one space and it is to do with different layers of the dimension in this receiving area of the space and the dimensions will draw you into the one that you most resonate with and even though you may feel you have moved into a different area, the Beings who come will be able to communicate with you and observe you in whatever level in the dimensional field here that you are attracted to. There are no limits. There are no boundaries. It is all the way that you resonate with different facets of the energy field in this space. Just for a moment, feel that you are in balance.

Feel that you can steady yourself in this space, because even in your light body state of consciousness, you may feel overwhelmed by the shift in energy - slightly out of balance. Just take a moment and realise that you indeed are coming into alignment and your awareness is increased.

"We have facilitated this extraordinary introduction to this session, Beloved, Orem addressing you and we would emphasise to you that it is all about providing the appropriate energy for you to proceed and the energy brings to you all that you can identify with, and nothing more. It is all available to you, perhaps delivered in a different way, and it is all information and energy that you are able to understand, accept, integrate and work with. The working with the energy draws you into alignment with other groups or other spaces, but all of this is within the embrace of those of us who are working with you in this Station of Light.

We do maintain a presence around you to keep you together. At times you do feel that you do not hear the spoken word but your presence in your light body is still aware of what is being received and the action and interaction that is occurring in the energy field around you. In this moment, there is the adjustment around each of you in an energy adjustment way,

We talked about layers around you, energetically responding to the beams of energy upon the Earth Station currently. This is continuing and in this space, we are again making adjustments, making the dimensional field adjustments around you. The dimensional field adjustments also will be helping the integration of the crystalline light energy within your systems, so you may feel that you need to be prepared because the energy is causing an acceleration in your evolutionary processes and systems and is also increasing a pathway in your journey.

You have your known journey where you have grown up, you have established different work spaces and living spaces and the relationships with people around you have been established or altered. What we are speaking about now, with the continuation of the evolution of your pathway, is a different sense to that material pathway that you have developed and accepted. You have indeed accepted the greater energy pathway and in this session we are helping you to be more aware of the procedure - the next phase - the next step on that pathway. Of course, it does incorporate you being within the presence of the cities of light, and elsewhere, and there are some people who are receiving these sessions who are very aware they are assisting elsewhere than on planet Earth, or even within this Station here. That is in different phases for them, because when the physical body is stationed in one manifested location, then it must be sustained continuously by the presence of the light energy systems and so while there may be a sense that you are operating on a different plane and operating elsewhere, you do, of necessity, come back to keep renewing the lifestyle that you chose where you could bring the energy in, within the Earth Station and your current Earth life. There are aspects of that which can be modified and perhaps related to you in more detail, but in the overall sense, this is what is required for you to accept.

There are groups of you in this session who are developing a sense of civilisation which will support the higher energy bodies of you in the phases continuing on your life journey. This of course incorporates moving in those higher light stations of existence. There is a distribution of the pattern of the groups of Beings working in such locations around this planet system and have a sense, even in this session now as we are delivering this to you, that you are aware of visions before you of some different locations around the planet where you could be. Allow the vision to form, anywhere around planet Earth, or within it, or above it, and allow the sense of your light being self there to emit an energy that fills that space, that particular area. We are doing this as you are associated in this space with us and drawing upon the known field of manifestation and this then allows a greater flow of energy into all of the spaces which are being adjusted to the higher crystalline light city structure.

This is in your awareness and your consciousness. You know it and so you are assisting in the manifestation of those areas. This is necessary because of the adjustment occurring in what is known as your timeline but it is in relationship to the acceleration in your involvement and in your involvement of this energy system. There is a whole large adjustment occurring around you, within you, around the planet and even though we are stationed, as it were, above the planet, we are still much involved in the energy field and the distribution of the energy and this is why we have been telling you in this way, having you experience it, where you experience being there in your consciousness state of your light energy self.

Also, in this state you bring all that you knew and all of your potential and ability from your place of origin. You really have been called forth to work in this way. Every moment that you are aware of this, you are increasing the energy field and the manifestation of the higher energy systems for life, for livelihood to continue. Every recollection you have of that origination station where you came from, is strengthening that in you and around you. You would feel this working within you and how this is, in particular, maintaining the energy field structure of your physicality.

In this space your light body consciousness can also make adjustments for you in your extended energy field of your physicality, if this is what you would choose to be, if it is appropriate within this existence. You are always helped with that, because those of us in this Station are aware of the potential for the human form and we are willing to help manifest that.

It is all the great cooperative mission to accomplish certain manifested principles on the Earth plane and the principles, like concepts, have the fulfilment, they have the full pattern of creation. You may be experiencing expansion around you as you realise this sense of your consciousness.

We are perceiving that with you extending your consciousness into different areas around the planet, that there has been enhancement and balance achieved in some of the energy constructions that are this light city construction. You may question whether this would have an effect on the physical structures of the Earth planet at this time and there is an overlaying enhancement and balancing and interweaving of the energy field into the denser construction of the Earth planet as you know it to be, but the emphasis is on the higher way - the higher level always, for that is the next step and this is part of what you chose to do when you came into manifestation in this particular life body. We are only addressing this particular body of life in this present moment and present circumstances that you have. Even in that present existence, you draw to you the energy of stabilisation and upliftment and this will indeed go out to other realities you have had. We are keeping your focus in the present reality.

As we are able to have you experience all of this, we also will be now bringing your attention into this space and into a particular chamber of assembly where you are completely surrounded by a flow of energy. This brings all of those aspects of you back into the fullness of your light body here and we have been happy to have worked with you in this way. We appreciate the extension that you allowed to happen of your consciousness field. We appreciate that you accepted the condition that it took you into. You may have had different visions in those areas you went into. The main vision you need to have is one of equilibrium and the Essence of Creation - and again, this is for you, in your light body structure here.

Now I am bringing you back to be aware of your presence in the receiving area of the Station. You are bringing the energy that we surrounded you in also into this space. Have a sense of that, as if you are in a great, protective column or sphere of radiant light and in this moment, within that sphere, you exist out of time - out of all manifested reality. You are just replenishing this aspect of you and experiencing Oneness in Consciousness. That Oneness also does not only relate to planet Earth, it is more encompassing than one planet.

Bring your awareness now back into this receiving space and that energy sphere drops away from you and this is where I withdraw from you, Beloved

Orem out “

Lani speaking with you again. Thank you, Orem, for this different experience in this session. There are many fragments of this that we are still bringing back into this energy system that you are.

Also bring back the sense of an extended vision, the sense that you understand more of the created universe and more of why you are here, and perhaps you understand why you lose sense of time sometimes.

Now become aware that it is time to return to your physical body. This time as you come back you are filling it with a stronger energy, a different sense of yourself, and as I close the Omega Portal at the conclusion of this transmission, I thank you all and I ask you to be fully aware of your surroundings and the day and the time again.
