Time: 5 pm

I open the Omega Portal for this particular energy transmission and even though I sit here alone, physically, I link with every one of you as if we are together physically. Time and distance do not matter. What matters is intention and the link in consciousness, and so as I shift my awareness into my light body, I ask you to do the same, allowing your physical body to be relaxed, allow your mind to relax. We hold onto many thoughts and activities, so relaxing the mind and body allows you to put your attention into your light energy Beingness and to come together as a large group into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

We are always welcomed here. There are always Beings present here and Orem has indicated that he is here, already linking with you and assessing your energy. So, we will begin.

“Greetings to you. Orem addressing you and I am addressing you as a single unit. I am addressing you present here and focusing entirely upon you as we envelop you in the energy appropriate for you at this time.

As a group we are aware of the individual experiences you are undergoing and you are also allowing change to happen and perhaps many of you are feeling antagonised or disturbed by experiences or people around you, so in this respect with the intention focused on you, you are able to draw in yourself through the energy presented here, just what you need to hear or receive in your multi-dimensional aspect here.

Remember that there is no time when you are assembled in spaces such as this and experiences can change rapidly. There can be information given to you in large packets in the concepts you are surrounded with, and in symbolism and you can also be changed in the interval that you are here with us out of space and out of time dimension. Any physical restriction is not apparent here with you.

We are wanting to have you receive on a greater level of your consciousness. Therefore, be aware of the higher energy self that you are here present and come forward into a deeper working within the Station of Light. This Station of Light is indeed a manifestation of what is needed around planet Earth at this time. There are multi layers to it and you may also feel you are being drawn into an aspect where you are physically working here. There is a similarity between you being drawn into this space and you connecting to yourself who is already present here - actively working and cooperating and constructing many of the energy systems which are needed within the city of light manifesting around you.

Submerge yourself in the sense of this and you will be able to identify some of the aspects of creation that are here and much of what you would wish to put into practice physically in your own current lifetime.

Many of these aspects are known to you in your thought patterns and we are drawing you away from some of the issues that have manifested in levels of consciousness which evoke powerful emotions in many of the Earth Beings, because the emotions are relevant to the existence on planet Earth, although many of them were most apparent and needed in the earlier civilisation where you needed to protect yourself from predators in the greater kingdom established on Earth. There is meant to be unification and understanding of the presence of other beings and no harm given to the evolving population on Earth. The humans present were designed to create magnificent energy structures and civilisations where you would be, in a sense, a gateway, the Earth Portal Gateway, to allow other dimensional Beings to come forth to planet Earth and to sustain themselves and then to create existence elsewhere, or to move beyond where planet Earth is stationed and it was felt to be an important Station.

In evolving your consciousness now, you are moving back into creating that Station as was originally proposed, as planet Earth Station.

Focusing on your individuality, you are moving into an aspect of sustaining the upper level of your consciousness into the current physical form you have now, enabling it to be present as evolutionary changes happen around the planet and civilisation, so there is a merging of much change taking place.

You are evaluated as we affirm to you during the transmissions, to see what you are able to absorb and change in yourself and what you are able to release as previous patterns not needed now. In delivering this to you in this particular part of the transmission, you will feel you are being strengthened and aligned again and you are going beyond what you had felt you were capable of understanding. It is not a matter of learning about it. It is a matter of encompassing the energy systems within your consciousness and allowing higher aspects of Self Consciousness to be harmonised and integrated into all of the many layers of you present here.

There is information needed by some of you because you are wanting to establish something in your life relating to the higher systems of light and energy. Many of you are aware that you can use higher levels of consciousness to change situations using a method involving light as an energy frequency. Feel this working throughout you in this moment, and you will also perceive that it will enable you to move more freely in your current situation. Perhaps that will refer to your extended environment or perhaps you need it for your physical unit. The light system works in resonance with the particular aspect known as the energy blueprint for creation and upholding the overall system of consciousness. In turn, this manifests in certain ways. We uphold you in the state of consciousness of support and oneness and that is sufficient in that experience for you to adapt to and to fill your current life pattern with.”

“In the presence of Commander Orem here, we are coming forward to address you. Su Yan Rah I am identifying my consciousness to you as, and we are moving into manifesting a greater presence around you, in the form that in the outer dimensional areas of planet Earth, there is existing many stations. Many are invisible and are unknown, but in other cases there are established planetoid stations and some on moving vessels of light such as your Station of Light you are drawn into in this session.

There has been a change in what was regarded as a field of creation which could be manipulated to enable human beings to be used in a greater level of construction - mechanical construction - and to be used to understand the human faculties. We are helping you to understand that this situation is changing. It was referred to in your previous message. There have been those of us who are regarded as overseers and guardians who are very strongly now stationed in the constructed consciousness of layers around planet Earth. This means that in the consciousness state, people who are aware of being guided, will be changing how they wish to assist the process on Earth. We are all being drawn into the greater Council of Light and they are overseeing and over-ruling observing all of life patterns on Earth and you will understand that in the process of this, there is a correction state, there is a higher order and there are controls within the universe and there is also the assembly of Beings who have come forward to assist those of you on Earth to be separate should you so choose, from influences that are disturbing the maintenance of balance within the whole entire system.

In the process of helping you expand your consciousness, you are within the overall plan of support. We remind you of this. We remind you that you can call on the assistance of the Council of Light and in so doing, you are calling forth a stream of energy of assistance.

We withdraw now. “

“Orem again speaking to you and we would help you integrate what was given to you in that message. If you understand it, you will understand that there is a pattern that is being set right, just being restored, and a pattern which is being undone and people being released [not necessarily on Earth].

Now we bring your attention back again to the greater communication area here and even amongst those of you present here there are aspects which are being undone which you may have been involved in, in certain practices. This is all done in accordance with the higher aspect of yourself so that you will feel you are brought back into order and into the correct placement. There have been disturbances which alter your positioning within the dimensional framework, and so there are times when individually you are being reset and reconnected. In this space in this time you will feel this is occurring for you again.

Your energy systems resonate with the greater universal consciousness and the energy of course then is coming in from beyond planet Earth Station. It is coming from existences such as your origination point. This is also helping an overall purification of you, allowing the flow of higher energy frequency into you in every way.

I gently bring you back now into the receiving area of the Station and the Beings around you here are coming forward to support you, to ease you. Over many of the manifested lives you have had, there can be the overlaying of many situations and this is what we are helping you to be clear of in these sessions.

I leave this with you at this time, Beloved

Orem out “

Lani here again and I thank Orem and Su Yan Rah and all of the other Beings around us present in this session. It seemed to be very deep, very important. Perhaps many of you are not aware of what was referred to, and others are. The overall impression is that you are being freed of many of the layers that have been affecting you energetically and therefore physically and the Earth itself and layers around the Earth is being freed. Perhaps it is a greater layer of protection around us all.

You may have experienced feeling being presented to some very powerful Beings in the Council of Light - higher evolved - higher understanding of the purpose of the presence of life on planet Earth and this you have been given also. Now it is time to bring your awareness out of the Station back to your physical life pattern, bringing in a greater level of understanding and energy patterns in you, through your mind, body and emotions. It has been a pleasure bringing this to you today and as I close the Portal on this transmission, please make sure you are fully present again in your life pattern - fully grounded. Thank you

Lani
