Issue 866

Date: May 25, 2017

Time: 6 pm

I open the Omega Portal and welcome you again into this space. Have you identified yourself already as a Being of Light - a Body of Light? Allow yourself to move away from your physical body as you completely relax your physical body and make sure you are not disturbed during this time that we share this inner journey together.

Your Light Body is a great aspect of your consciousness and it is this aspect that I draw together with me and we are drawn into the openness - into that space that is the receiving area of the Station. In this space today it appears that we are in a huge circle within this space, completely as a circle, with lots of people here with us today, and directly into the centre of the circle comes Orem and he is appearing to come to summon us and perhaps to issue us with some new information. So, just be prepared again to open your awareness and your perceptions, sense what is around you as I describe it and even before I describe what is happening. This means that you are fully attuned to the energy here.

“Thank you. This is Orem addressing you and I would ask you all to let go of all the concepts that you have come to know as yourself and everything that you are working out as it relates to what you see happening around you in your daily surroundings.

We do this because what you focus on, you are manifesting and continuing to manifest. Therefore, in this space where you are away from the Earth manifestation, you are more able to manifest on a higher level of existence and in that way, you are bringing in the light city structure. Every thought you have manifests and it manifests as structure. The structure may be an energetic structure and what you would call as being in the metaphysical realms and energy frequency, but whatever is manifested in that level of frequency will also be visible and come into being visible physically. You are still moving between the two aspects and will continue to do so as you evolve and journey and you learn how to manifest more of what is needed and required.

You could be questioning - what if this could happen, what if we could manifest a very hospitable situation for everybody that would allow the habitation for everyone to be comfortable and for all of the food and nourishment to be manifested, and what if everyone could tap into Source Energy creation and be aligned with the original intention? These are the aspects of creation we are asking you to realise in the world around you, so this introduction leads you directly into the space where the portals open and allow you to move into the crystalline light city structure.

Perceive what is around you in this space. It is a civilisation. There are people existing and living here. There are movements between different stations upon the Earth area and different stations elsewhere, away from the Earthean structure. You may be permitted to travel to some of those stations when it is required of you and appropriate for you to be there.

You are becoming harmonised into this state of existence as you continue to be here consciously. This will appear in different aspects for you, depending on what you would be working on, what you would be needing to provide in this state. Some of you will be working with others to share the responsibility of children and some of you may be continuing to weave and create in a light fashion, working in a different way to the perhaps cumbersome creations on Earth, but nevertheless you are still creating what is required, through the thought pattern, through the resonating frequency field with others who have already created such objects or means of achieving a certain goal. It is within you to experience living in such an ordered civilisation. It is not ordered as in controlled, but it is ordered because everyone is working in the intention of creating the field of consciousness, giving the impulses into you from Source Creation.

Breathe in the vitality and the information presented here to you. We are starting this session directly into this space to quickly elevate the level of your energy signature here and you were drawn into it using the energy pattern and frequency given to you recently. It allows you to enter within many of these different states of existence. We are working with you all and each and we will continue to be with you until such time as you have gone beyond what is required here in the Earth Station.

Many of you are being transported now easily and smoothly over the surface of the planet, touching briefly into some aspects that you would create in your mind in the sense of a denser population, just as you have your big cities on Earth. The energy signatures of these at the moment, while they are embracing what is on the physical Earth plane, they are still working on a higher vibration and it is not to be integrated yet. It may not need to be integrated to change. That would be a very strong experience with the overlaying of the higher energy pattern on what is present in some areas, so it is gradually adjusting and all of you who have been brought into this space presently, are experiencing gradual adjustment and enhancement.

During your recent days, you may have been experiencing discomforts in different ways in your body form and aspects and some of this would be giving rise to emotional sensations, so we are assuring you here that as you are receiving this, you are continuing to receive adjustment for you. You just have to open and relax back into allowing the energy field to work in you and through you and then you will experience the smoothing, settling, realignment, clearing - whatever the situation may be for your need at the present time.

You are also given the opportunity to bring into this space those ones you know around you who would benefit from this energy and those who would be receptive to this energy. You would be aware that many people do not wish to change how they are and deliberately block any offers of assistance and help. We are focusing on those ones who are ready and willing to absorb the higher energy frequency and to recognise the existence of such places as this crystalline light city structure and the Station of Light. As you continue to move amongst people and converse freely, and easily and warmly, you are giving forth your experiences in these higher states of consciousness. The influence you have on people is noticed, perhaps not always spoken about.

The energy is continuing to flow around you here in this space, also into the pattern in the energy grid within the Earth construct, within the spaces within the Earth and you will feel the energy descending beneath you and through you and you may observe many of the civilisations presently active within Earth. We are guiding you of course, in this observation, to allow you to observe those who are working in accordance with this intention that we are all working with - opening gateways, presenting information, continuing to work with the elements of the Earth, with the water, with the air that you breathe, with the rays of energy coming through which may have been disturbing you visually. Experiencing it in this way gives you relief from what you may have been experiencing physically and during that time of course here in this consciousness field in your light energy body, you are adapting completely to what is offered and then you will assist the easy adjustment in the physical situation.

We are able to give you the information that there are many large vessels around the Station of Light, drawn here into this space around Earth. Some are directly around Earth and some are further out around from the different encircling planets and there is a stabilisation and a sorting out of some of the energy which flows into the patterns of the different planets and this is emitted from the sun area and the vibration and what is being manifested in that area for Earth - being brought forward to assist. It is a collective effort, or project perhaps you might see it as, and as this continues then of course your energy frequency changes. You are already beginning to reflect those changes around you physically. The changes are enhancing you.

Now we bring your awareness back out of the city of light and we bring your awareness back into the receiving area of the Station and this is where I withdraw again, Beloved

“I am known as Ulea and I am here again with you dear ones. I do observe you. I observe the wellness of your motivation and your full intention and your full attention here in this session.

At times, you will have been experiencing the stripping away of layers of what you thought you were experiencing or you thought would be there for a continuing time. That is not necessary. There is a time for much of the distortions or disturbances to be released, when you are ready to acknowledge that you do not need such disturbances to evolve and you are ready to move forward eagerly in the evolutionary process and to establish the energy frequency that is your light body deeply and actively in all of your physicality.

This is what it is about in the present - so that you adapt to the higher frequency and so that you bring in change through you and around you.

You are reminded to keep up your immersion in the higher energy field light spectrum and thinking of that as it is also incorporated in what you eat and drink. Everything is being exposed to the higher energy frequency, and as you acknowledge that, you will gain the benefit from it all. It is about being conscious of who you are and what is happening and that is all I am here to give you at this time.

Come back into your physicality, immediately be connected into your physical form layers and sacred geometry of the form and all of the energy matrix which is the blueprint for the human form. During the interval of this session that has been enhanced. Acknowledge the change, feel it, and so as you become fully aware of your surroundings and your day, your time, being in the present, I withdraw

Ulea out “

As Lani again, I thank you Ulea and Orem and as the Omega Portal is closed for this transmission, I talk you back down into your body, firmly anchored and feeling that you are fully alert if you are listening to this in the daytime, or perhaps in the evening as you go to sleep you will be fully relaxed for a good sleep and will wake up feeling great, feeling wonderful and aligned and clear.

Thank you
Lani
