Issue 867

Date: June 1, 2017

Time: 5 pm

Today I open the Omega Portal with the invitation for you to remember everything else that you have experienced in the preceding sessions, when you have come willingly setting aside the time to remove yourself from the activities of the day and to align with your body of light and the higher levels of consciousness. It is this higher state of your consciousness that I am calling to be with me to come into the existence of the receiving area of the Station of Light and it is here that we are all more receptive to the patterns which are around us and to the information which is given to us.

Even though you may be receiving information yourself, directly through your inner voice and inner visions, what you receive in the transmissions will confirm that or will direct you into some other realisation. When you are connected to Source Energy, it is all the same information, it is the basic energy system of creation, so allow your body to be relaxed and allow your awareness to expand in this session.

“We put around us a sphere of light and we introduce to you, at this time, the information contained in this sphere of light that you have been drawn into.

Orem addressing you and I am referring to the Station here that you have come into and that may appear to you at times as a great sphere, almost like a planetary sphere perhaps, because at times it will appear very large indeed to you, depending on your need and what you realise is required for the Earth Station at this time.

What is apparent to you here is that you are undergoing a change in your perception and a change in your outer reality from the perceptual shift. This means that some of you will be undergoing relocation and some of you will be building on what you have already established. For the purpose of this journey at this time, we are speaking to you about the level of activity which you engage yourself into and the level of reality that you accept and your willingness to accept it and proceed determines the shift in the reality that you will be perceiving.

Continuing with this as we have taken you into many different situations and sites during these sessions, we are enveloping you in a level of energy here which helps you to materialise directly into the state of existence of the cities of light.

Linked with this, we are indicating to you the presence of the outer layer of Beings surrounding the planetary station at this time. This is enabling a very clear space to evolve around you as an individual and around the planet being itself because in this moment it is all being shielded from some of the information coming through into you and around the Station, as was described in our previous session to you. For this moment, this is on pause - you would understand that term - so you are able to reorient yourself with the infusion that has been coming into you over the last few days.

You may have been responding to this in a way that you felt you had more energy to engage in some activities in you. You may also felt the energy was shifting disturbances out of your body system and thus you were then receiving some of the higher information and energy needed for you. The purpose of revealing this to you in such a way is to allow you to adapt to the energy to wholly feel it in this level of your conscious awareness, and then you will realise this will change the circumstances in the physical reality as you experience it in current times. As you progress, you will feel you can shift that reality and appear in a different order in it.

However, this presentation is to remind you that being fully aware in the present is the most important state of your existence, for this allows you to perceive what is going on around you in the reality created and also allows you to receive the information from the higher levels and this will become part of your strength and the connection you have into the level of creation required of you.

For you to be on Earth in the current phase of evolution, indicates that you are ready to participate in the change. What you are receiving in this situation here in the Station is giving you some more understanding of what that is and how it is appropriate, because you see, you already are understanding and knowing that people are responding to the energy that you are.

In the human form you have a wide range of emotions and there are times when the emotions are activated as a response to what is presented around you. As you have progressed you find that there are less emotions triggered that create annoyance or disturbance in you and the reaction to those. Further, as you willingly accept the upgrades in your energy system, any responses relating to perhaps anger or fear or judgement will lessen and become not noticeable in your energy field, and so it is now in this state within the crystalline energy system of the civilisation here, you are brought to participate in an open meeting - a gathering in this state.

Present here are a number of Beings from other Stations making themselves known to you and some of them are already known to you, for Ulea is here and the Elders of Light who have communicated with you. There is a blending of all of the energy here from the higher states of consciousness into you and this is another way of increasing you, because you will be resonating with the higher energy and you are being drawn up into that energy system yourself. We are able to support you in very many different ways to facilitate this increase in energy for you.

Now we withdraw from this level and bring you back into the meeting chamber in the Station. There is an exchange occurring here, some of which is to do with your individual way of helping people - every one of you here, and it is that you are exchanging this and receiving information from other Beings present here. This is creating a network around the planet, partly you have created it already in your communications network. This is shown to you in a different way, that it will have a deeper meaning and connection, so as you allow all this to be absorbed within you, it will surface in your mind, the needs or the recognition as you connect with other people around the Station or around the Earth-Being itself.

There is an increasing circle of information and clarification to do with the Beings within Oceania and there is the opportunity for some of you at certain times when dimensional portals are open to feel that you are present within that civilisation. That will be for the purpose for you to assist, if it is required, or to receive some understanding about the process that is happening.

All of this is clarification for you, but also information that some of you have been wanting to hear. There are those of you listening to this who have already come in contact with some of these Beings whom you have identified as being different to your human anatomy, but the communication level is familiar to you. It is that sense of familiarity and ease that helps you recognise the purpose of the Beings whom you connect with.

Likewise, with other human Beings, it is the intention that you recognise as being familiar and working with the same intention that you have.

Also at this time in the communication chamber, your energy systems are being clearly viewed and you will be sensing some interchange within your body of light. We are working in particular on some of those emotional responses that had been learned from an early age in some of you and therefore the energy you are receiving will change those responses. This happens because you realise they are not part of what you have become, as you have evolved to this point in the present.

Gathering in information is important and you must discern where you gather the information from. Everything that is informing you has an energy and you must discern if that is the appropriate energy for you.

These inner journeys that you come here regularly to be involved in are preparing you to receive even more and preparing you also to see the complexity of the Station here and the incorporation through it into the Earth Station of the energy systems needed. There are still great areas in the Station that we have not taken you into, some of them are not important to you to know about at this time and others you will become presented into in future transmissions and journeys.

Now we begin the process of restoring your awareness back into the receiving area of the Station and thus I leave you here, Beloved

Orem out “

“Ulea with you now. Did you enjoy the process of moving from place to place, of experiencing the energy as it was given to you? Do you feel the purpose of it - to infill you with the ongoing sense of the change and the ongoing sense of being supported and observed and assisted?

And also you will remember that in your connections world-wide and on the inner planes that many of you have, you are sharing a great deal more information and receiving and building up a very strong connected network. You are part of a greater plan, indeed, and with this I now call you back to be present and connected again in your physical body.

Also I ask you to be aware that the information given to you is multi layered and your impressions are important. In this way, each of you is able to receive a realisation that is on a level that you can absorb and we do not present you with information that is not required for you to use at the present and that would be outside of the level of your consciousness field. Anything outside that, you would not be able to interpret and have it enter into your system.

Now, do you feel that you are fully connected again into the Earth construct, yet you have been attuned in another way, in another sense, in another space? And - it is enjoyable for me to work with you in this way.

I leave this with you now

Ulea out “

Thank you Ulea and Orem and all the Beings we connected with in this session. By now you will be coming back to again be fully aware of your surroundings, fully aware, filled with Light. The Light also will help you sleep, if you listen to this as you go to sleep. The Light is a term we use and I am sure it encompasses more than what we realise at this present time. This is the time when I end the transmission through the Omega Portal for this week and I thank you for being present and receiving the Light Energy Information.
