Issue 869

Date: June 15, 2017

Time: 4.30 pm

I open the Omega Portal to begin this session. As always, I ask you to make sure that you are comfortable as you listen to this message and that you are relaxed and able to alter your sense of identification into the different aspect of yourself which travels easily into other dimensions. Perhaps at some point we will physically take the body as well, but for these sessions we are working in states of consciousness, states of consciousness which can be identified particularly as you - the Being present here on Earth. Gather your awareness, all of your perception, into your light body consciousness aspect and we move together, meeting and greeting each other and many other fellow journeyers and settle into the receiving area of the Station of Light. It is sometimes strange, because it is not like going into a meeting room and taking a chair. It is moving into this space and standing attentively as your energy body adjusts to the energy in this space. Many of you feel the adjustment happening, as if it were a physical adjustment throughout your body, especially beginning through the central core of your energy form here. Sometimes it appears that you become connected into the Source Energy available in this space. In many ways, you are prepared for the forthcoming transmission.

“We enter into this space, Beloved. Orem addressing you and coming forward to initiate the deeper connection which continues through the deeper cleansing you are enjoying, that you are receiving - and indeed there is a mixture of descriptive words here, because as you become clear, it becomes an enjoyable state of Beingness. It is all one. As we use the words available to us, we know those words are available to you to identify with and realise the intention of the words conveying the energy.

Now, we are assembling many of you into specific order. The order of which is indicated by the adjustments you have allowed to happen and by the groups that you connect with, both in the Station and in the greater network around the planet. Those of you who are focusing in this space at the present time, to allow more energy to come forth for you, you will feel the presence of many others around you. You may perceive a pattern or a colour, all indicating the harmony between you each.

As you progress, we also are undoing from you more patterns that you have identified as disturbing you in your present reality and those disturbances are generally related to other people and the events that they create. Allow yourself to be free and fully present here.

In this moment, we present you into the city of light structure. The entire energy system of this becomes more apparent to you as you continue to speak about it, to think about it, to use your perception and inner questioning to allow it to be stronger around you. There are people who understand the presence of higher existing planes of being which incorporate the city of light which we refer to.

Moving into areas within this, you will be perceiving stronger elements of energy which are being emitted as a source of light. The light is perceived by many circles and groups of people who tune into the light, as the main purpose for bringing the attention into an altered state of consciousness.

Sometimes the intention is to undertake certain tasks. Sometimes the intention is to receive upgrades to the human model body, or sometimes it is also to call on help to adjust the pattern which is observed throughout many different cities around the planet now.

Being present within this centre of light allows you to identify the areas which will be changed by the infusion of more aware people and people who are willing to adopt a superior aspect of living. This is known to many of you as the possibility which could be and in focusing on that, you are drawing that pattern in you and around you. When you do this, we observe the change and assist you in that process, because it is you who are creating the greater depth and presence of this light civilisation.

As you move through different areas in this space, you are receiving patterns which contain memories of how to work certain areas of existence in this area, so you participate as you take on more of that energy patterning and coding and you remember it and it becomes part of your consciousness again. Perhaps there are many actions you do in your daily life which you feel could be over-laid with a higher function of that. That is a higher way of allowing the creation which you are focusing on, to occur, and following on from that, at some point there will come the creation of it, or it will be presented to you in such a way that you knew it could be done in that way. This is the advancement that many of you are calling for.

Ideally, you would now be drawing upon the energy frequently and consistently to evaluate the patterns around you and to enhance everything existing. Part of that may entail changing completely what is done and moving into a new way, a new pattern. Also, you will be experiencing a sense of freedom and freeing up, allowing you more space to link in consciously with the higher energy, as if time shifts and you have more space available to link in with the higher aspect and pattern and change.

Now, as we begin enveloping you in all of these different stages for you to integrate within you, we have a group of you being called together to receive specific information and to experience a movement of transportation into another sphere which transports you into a different level, amongst different Beings again.

There is great activity in that state as the energy network around Earth is evaluated, areas are needing more repair and areas are needing infusion of a different type of energy. With this occurring, there will be the alteration in a sense of energy through some of you listening to these sessions, where you feel you are not sure of the direction you could be taking, you feel perhaps you are not grounded within the Earth reality and you may feel the effects of being unbalanced, as the energy changes beneath you. Your energy systems respond to change in the energy, similarly as you would respond to changes in atmosphere preceding a violent storm or a change very quickly in air temperature. This disturbs the sense of the rhythms that naturally occur in your physical unit.

We are helping you adjust to these by increasing the presence within you of the energetic pathways which align you more correctly with Source Energy, so that you draw on that energy in times of disturbance rather than drawing on earth energy itself which would be going through changes. Those energies of earth do fluctuate in intensity and wavelength and frequency, so by identifying you with a more stable area from Source Energy, you are lifted above some of those reactions, and it is those disturbances which are creating reactions in certain people who are sensitive to the changes and are not able to align themselves even to the higher self aspect, because that would be unfamiliar in the present lifetime to those people.

The energy flowing over you now has adjusted you to the higher pattern and remember that this pattern was shown to you several sessions ago and this is what we are identifying in the present time.

This energy also is moving deeply into your core energy self. As that does and you realise it, you enter into the state of consciousness that is aware of the vast dynamics of change throughout this vector of creation in which Earth is embraced.

This would be being experienced as a very powerful state of existence for you, away from all sense of physical boundaries or limitation in any way.

We call you back from state, calling you forth to be present in the gathering again. You may feel more connected with all of the Beings here and now we bring you back to the receiving area. Be aware of this space.

Thank you Beloved
Orem out “

Lani speaking to you now. Thanks again Orem.

This is very deep. The energy connection in that deep state has a parallel in the reality in the Earth space within your physical structure - within your central structural pattern - therefore, there will be improvement experienced as you allow that to occur.

Gathering you up now, I am sending you back to your individual stations, where you live, or where you are listening to and receiving this transmission.

Have you noticed that you experience something different every time you listen to each transmission? That is how it works, because initially you will be receiving it only on one aspect of it, and as you move through the experience of it, that changes and you are able to receive the deeper energy system contained in the same message. Layers and layers of it, well beyond the words that are given to you.

This has been all that was coming through for this transmission, so I close the Omega Portal now but I ask you to make sure that you are fully connected into your body and present reality, observing the location around you, realising what day it is and the time, and then see if you can sense the higher reality around you - co-existing with what is around you.

Thanks again for tuning in and travelling the inner journey of consciousness

Lani
