Issue 874

Date: July 20, 2017

Time: 6 pm

Welcome to another session through the Omega Communications Portal. It is a pleasure to withdraw from the activities of the day and journey with a group of like-minded people into other dimensions, for the work that you are involved in, for the information and energy which is appropriate for you to receive at this present time. What are you drawing forward to you today, as you receive this transmission?

Settle yourself comfortably. Allow yourself to be in a space where you will have no interruptions for this short time that we are working together. Perhaps you have the intention that you want a certain outcome from being in the energy today and if that is your strong intention, then of course you will receive just what you have put your thought out to receive.

Now, come together into the receiving area of the Station of Light. Although the Station of Light is not always clearly visible to you, its presence may be there with you as an under-lying awareness beneath everything that you do and also, beneath everything that you do is the awareness that you have a particular purpose for being here on Earth. That purpose is to bring through the energy to expand your awareness so that you are actively joining in creating the better civilisation. That could possibly be put into better words than what I am using, but you will understand my intention by saying that to you, because you already know what your intention and purpose is in expanding your consciousness and energy field. So, this sets the energy for this session, although it could be changed when the higher Beings of Light interact with you. Settle yourself into this space and feel the expansion of your energy field around your light energy body here. You may be aware that you are drawing other Beings close to you and perhaps you can identify those Beings.

“Greetings here to you, Beloved, Orem coming forward and addressing you. We enter through the layers of dimensional frequency and to you it would appear that there are openings appear and we emerge through the openings or portals. It is a shift in energy frequency - a dimensional extension from where we usually operate, to extend into this receiving area and indeed even around you physically on the Earth plane. We want you to understand this, accept it and receive it, because this helps you connect in more frequently and more easily to this aspect of Creation.

Already there exists in this aspect of Creation an aspect of you - the higher dimensional aspect of you that is already present here with us, is already being very consciously active in the entire system that supports Earth construct and every time you connect back into this space, that other aspect of you connects with you. This may help you understand why you feel the shift in energy during the transmissions and following the transmissions you feel expanded and clearer, because you are receiving the energy field from the higher aspect of you existing here.

You do have your individual expansion and the aspect of your individual light body that exists to be present with you in the Earthplane, so this is just helping you get a greater picture. Again, if you were looking at it in a multi-dimensional way, you would observe these different aspects of you and we are describing it to you to help you visualise and experience all of these different aspects of the energy system that comes through and exists as you in the Earthplane and exists in many other realities.

Now, we have given you sufficient energy transmissions for you to realise that everything you focus upon will be manifested into your reality. Your reality might include simple frameworks of thought patterns or emotional patterns without necessarily being enacted into physical materialisation. You can still experience and grow and expand through the different elements that are created by yourself with the assistance of higher energetic Beings around you. When you do particularly align yourself with your higher self and your point of origin, that changes what you manifest. It brings into your systems of awareness different elements that allow you to co-create in a different way and will also help you discern what is necessary for you to bring into the elements of construction or manifestation around you.

In the Earthplane you are very active mentally and emotionally, so you could be manifesting many concepts and realities that are not truly in alignment with your pure source, or origination station. What would you prefer? Is it time for you to focus intently in the oneness of your alignment? It is your choice, of course. You may still be wanting to experience a wide pattern of existence and different elements within the created world on Earth planet at present.

We remind you also that it is not necessary to repeat some of the earlier experiences which helped you to evolve to the point where you are at now. That is to say, it is not necessary to recreate other lifetimes that were disturbing. It may be necessary for you to align yourself with the unfolding evolution and to be agreeable to understand higher patterns of life and the joy there is in creating a stable civilisation around you and stabilisation of many of the conditions that you experience mentally, physically, emotionally.

As we speak this to you, you may be identifying that core energy essence of self and that is beyond many of the disturbing levels that we refer to.

It is directly in alignment with your Source Energy Self. In previous transmissions, as we do in this transmission, we ask you to experience the energy of your core self and this is where you experience that you are removing from yourself some disturbing elements. This will be different for many of you people. It may involve clearing away linkages with other people. It may be clearing away food patterns, it may be clearing away disturbances from you physically, emotionally or mentally, You, your higher self aspect here, even in your light body here, knows the true alignment and what is necessary for you to receive. We observe this in you and we allow you the space to comprehend what you are receiving.

As you complete that, you are moved immediately into the system of the cities of light. We enjoy - yes, enjoy - bringing you into these experiences because it is fulfilment of part of your individuality in its purpose. It satisfies an inner longing or desire or emptiness that is within you all. As you evolve through the experiences in your current life pattern, you draw yourself into, by pure resonance, these states presented to you and in that way, you feel fulfilled. Fulfilling you in direct connection with this energy also gives you a clearer understanding of some patterns that you need to be working with, to be actively engaged in and moving more in conformity with the higher evolved aspect of you within the Station of Light and other dimensions as is appropriate to you as an individual. It does not necessarily mean being the greatest and most vocal person. It just means that your energy field encompasses a wide range of people around you and in so doing, you perceive the ones who respond to that pure essence that is within you. This is the pure essence that is present here that is actively engaged in this transmission with us.

You may be experiencing a sense of Oneness - of being in tune with the entire pattern - and from this central position you may also be aware of changes evolving around you. You could think of this in your imaging as being the centre of a galaxy and there are other areas revolving around you and changing, but you exist as the centre and you are emitting energy to help all of that which is evolving around you. Are you therefore emitting the right energy pattern? The right energy pattern you recognise as being part of Source Energy and your original purpose. We speak of this many times to you, because in presenting it to you, you are more able to realise it in you and through you and around you. The realisation brings you the sense of enjoyment and fulfilment.

We bring you back now to be aware that you are in the presence of the chambers of communication where there are the Beings present of the Council of Light. This Council of Light oversees the energy emanations toward Earth station as it is connected with other of the planetary beings and as is necessary for you to be present and receive more understanding of that pattern and linkage.

You are receiving communication from that group known as the Council of Light here. Many of you here are being surrounded in what they are presenting to you. It is stripping away some of the messages around what the Council of Light is and what it does, so that you are just presented with the energy system of the Council of Light. You will recognise this as a pattern that you resonate with, that you are often drawn to, to share the energy that you have brought with you from Earth planet and also from other places that you travel to.

It is significant that this is drawn to your awareness in this transmission. It is significant because there is a shift in some of the layers of the dimensional construct around Earth at present. Some areas are being repaired and restored. Some areas are being cleared to be more open to receive some of those other Beings from other planetary systems who are drawn in specifically at this time to relieve some of the pressures being experienced within Earth planet and effectively changing some of the distortions which arise in some of the conflicts that are apparent in your worldly pattern. Some of those are quite unnecessary and have been created as distractions to prevent a great number of people from recognising that this is an opportunity to step aside from conflict and evolve in a better way. This has been presented to you at other times in different methods and words and images.

There is a great deal happening around you and you are affirmed, you are given an affirmation by these Beings of the Council that you are aware of what is occurring and that they are aware of what is occurring around you and they confirm your journey into Earth experience and confirm that you are needed to bring in the higher realisation and pattern.

With that message I now bring you back to be aware of your presence in the receiving area. There has been much dealt with in this transmission around you and through you and it is enough for you to process, to work through and to receive more individually as you listen and agree to work in cooperation with the higher levels. This was my purpose for being with you at this time, Beloved

Orem out“

Lani speaking again. Thank you, Orem. Thank you, Council of Light and all the Beings involved in this transmission.

Are you ready - I have an awareness of many people listening and connecting with me at this time. It is time to bring all of this back into your conscious memory and action, into your physical form. Into your life pattern, deeply into the energy grid that constructs and supports Earth and allows the shifting in other dimensions to bring forth the pure element from Source creation. Do you recognise this is what you are doing? It relieves pressures that may be upon you daily, so enjoy that experience of who you really are. Be aware now you are fully reconnecting and enhancing your life pattern and being fully present in the present moment
