Date: August 17, 2017

Time: 2.30 pm

Hello and welcome into the Omega
Communications Portal.

As usual, I ask you to allow yourself the time to devote to this inner journey and to experience the energy given with the message and to allow yourself to let go of any expectations about this inner journey which may limit your reception of the energy and information. I do ask you to identify yourself as a light being, and thus we can travel together and assemble in the receiving area space within the Station of Light, just to transit between the feeling of the Earth body and the conscious mind and into this space where you expand your consciousness.

Already you are receiving some energy or information, even though the Beings have not come forward to address you individually here. By placing yourself into this space, you place yourself within the flow of energy, or the sphere of energy that surrounds you here. So, we begin.

“Welcome, indeed, Beloved. As a great group here, we draw you into this plane of consciousness. Many of you visit here as you pursue your individual linkages and as you sometimes focus within this space before you enter into the state known as sleep. It is readily available, readily accessible when you focus within it, with the intention of renewing yourself in some way, of uplifting some space or place, or just to strengthen your core energy systems. There are other purposes of course. These are the simple ones that you can use to manifest your presence here in this Station.

We are always observing you and interested in how you respond to the flows of energy which Earth itself is being exposed to and we also observe how you respond to the pressures in the current civilisation that are upon you. Some of those pressures and demands do not seem to relate to the supportive life in this state of consciousness here. When you remove yourself from reaction, you identify with this state of consciousness and you can indeed bring forth answers, you can bring forth understanding and realisation about the influences that are around you in the civilisation.

Drawing you away from that – because you will be consciously thinking about that with these words – we now accompany you and assemble you into the central communication chamber, with the groups gathered here, with the Councils assembled here. The Councils are also moving to establish greater levels of communication with many of the Beings upon Earth planet. Therefore, some of you may have been experiencing receiving communication, speaking of other worlds, speaking of alternate realities that you are well known within, and perhaps speaking about opportunities coming to you to maintain your presence to a greater degree in the civilisation and in the energy matrix field of the city of light, crystallisation appearance. We are using unfamiliar terms at this time as we are working to convey to you the concepts of those existences.

Many times, you have moved within that energy sphere generally known as the city of light. Many times, you have grown accustomed to sensing how you are active within those areas. In presenting this to you again, be aware that the higher aspect of you is drawing you forward into the activation.

Resulting from this, you will be experiencing connections in different aspects of your light body system here already, and already you may be experiencing some shifts or sensations in your physicality. This is the way that we present much of the changing energy frequencies to you, because as you experience it simultaneously with the deliverance of this energy message, you are adapting to what is being presented to you. You are assimilating the energy and within that energy can be typical strategies for you to follow in different scenarios occurring around you each on the planet system. You constantly refine the way you live and the way you respond, and in many circumstances you are needed to help certain areas of the civilisation to evolve. By bringing your awareness within your presence into any meeting, into any report you are reading, there is an influence spread out to those who are instigating change and therefore they are offered the opportunity to adopt a higher policy and a higher manifestation way.

Obviously, this can take time to manifest, depending on what is being prepared already and in the process involved in manifestation in the way that your world operates and in the way that people cooperate with each other and with other groups. With the concepts clearly envisioned within the minds of the people who make decisions, then the forthcoming result will be a movement toward the evolution of this manifestation of this city of light civilisation. You are all contributing in many ways, individually.

You will be aware of feeling very strong in this presentation to you and perhaps you will be observing that the energy matrix around you physically is changing and is being enlivened.

In perceiving it through your multi-dimensional perception, that is how you will see the activation points and the energy flowing through different channels around you.

This preparation work, and of course you are experiencing it now, will bring you into different meeting areas within the Station primarily for you to connect with other aspects of life here and using aspects of life in the Station as a passageway into the crystalline city and some of the activation portals into it. The portals which will become available for entry throughout many areas on the planet are being connected into the vibration of individual beings. If you are resonating already with some of those areas, then you will find that you can move through the portals without coming through this Station into those cities.

Take all of this into you and maintain the sense of purposefulness and of proceeding with the overall plan and connected network as part of this process that you are engaged within.

We take you deeper in this short space of experience to allow you again to move into a deep connection with Source Energy. You are held suspended and supported in this state. The energy that you were functioning as in the origination station of you each is included in what you are receiving. You may experience memory sensations, visionary perception perhaps, if that is necessary for you to re-engage that into your current life pattern. Because each life pattern has its own particular energy and layers of construction in the energy matrix field, then there is the continual adjustment to allow you to bring in the appropriate energy to the present.

You are doing this now, so we draw you back to the communication chamber from that deep connection to Source Energy – and this was all necessary for you in the present journey you have and in the present part of that journey.

We also want you to know that there are representatives from many other galaxies coming forward and initially they enter within this Station and some of them can be directed to communicate individually with you. There may be some of them appearing to you in your visions and senses. There is the commitment to uphold the universal support between all who work in this way in this Station for Earth and the Beings here. You may certainly question who appears to you, question their intentions and they are required to be open with all of that. If you do sense any such Beings, it will be because it is the time for you to connect and communicate.

There is movement occurring in areas within the planet and thus you will be feeling some of that energy. Also, you will feel you are being aligned and parts of your energy form, as it relates to your physicality, will be undergoing balancing throughout you. Balancing also through different time experiences. Balancing also between different locations where you have been, or are still existing. It is part of the connected energy matrix of creation.

Bring this all around you now in your light body form and come back and assemble in the receiving area.

We give this to you with our acknowledgement of your presence and acceptance of your own purpose

Orem out “

Lani speaking again. Well - there will be no need for confirmation of this because I am sure that most of you are already aware of what you have been receiving in this session. You will have already been sensing it and experiencing it, particularly the appearance of other Beings coming to you, presenting themselves to you.

I am aware in this moment of this very great matrix of energy that we all are within, especially as it is relative to this planet and this current lifetime of you and I am also aware that it incorporates other life experiences and opportunities. It must be necessary for us to be aware of this for me to present it to you.

It is time now to move away from the Station and merge again with all aspects of your physicality. You may be feeling yourself enlivening and uplifting your physicality. It is such a lovely feeling and it is wonderful to explore these concepts that are presented as to the influence that you have and the greatness that you are held within, in Creation.

I am closing the Omega Portal on this transmission now and I want you to make sure that you are fully aware and grounded in the present.

Thank you again for being with me on this journey and I thank Orem and all of the other Beings who were present in this session

Lani
