Issue 883

Date: September 21, 2017

Time: 4.30 pm

Welcome to another session through this Portal, through this space that has been created where we can gather together from wherever in the world you are. Feel that you are very welcome in this space. I am ready to lay aside my daily activities and to link in with the information and energy coming through to us. Always, I seek upliftment and energy to raise my frequency and to eliminate from me the patterns of the Earth that might be restricting me and I am sure you do the same.

Now, come with me as we consciously relax the physical body and let go of the surroundings and immediately place yourself within that wonderful safe and secure space that is labelled the transition area, or the receiving area of the Station of Light. Already you have begun to shift your perspective, your attention, and to shift the sense of the energy that you are, and so that is the most magnificent thing about these types of sessions - it is that it is not always about the words and about what you might read or be told by people out in the world. It is more important to feel that you are receiving the energy and information directly yourself.

Therefore, you can respond to it in the way that is particular to you and you receive the energy that is particular for you. So, I appreciate that part of this work that I exist in and allow to come forward through me to you and to the aspect of the Creation that is calling for it and is needing it. Progressing, we just allow ourselves to be aware of the energy around us here in this space, being very still and quiet because I am sure you have moved into different assembly areas in this space where you feel better, where you feel it is the right position and the right understanding of what is around you, to proceed. I withdraw now.

“Welcome to you, into this space. Orem addressing you at this time and already we who are with you are surrounding you in the energy frequency that you will feel separates you from even what is around you in this space that you had been identifying in some particular way as objects or colours or a physical sense of the appearance of this space. Already we are attuning you beyond that into the level of consciousness that we have been working with you previously.

Already you will be feeling you are suspended in a state of awareness beyond any limit or confining limits of a structured space. We have immediately presented you into that area that is suspending you out of physical time and space in a dimension where you feel fully supported and you feel already you are changing.

The shift, or the change you may be experiencing is how you are responding to the frequencies that are surrounding you in all of your daily spaces and activities. You may feel very heavily engrossed in the activities you are doing which may relate to a lot of mind-ful attention but beyond that you may also be aware that there is a different energy around you and this is what we are reminding you about and what you are immersed in, in this moment.

Travelling is what you are experiencing. Travelling out of the restriction of measurement of time.

Travelling through energetic experiences. Travelling to again remind yourself that you are reconnecting to an aspect of Creation which you can identify easily in this space. It is enhancing you, as you have already been progressing through different experiences and these may be continuing in another phase. With your attention and focus into the pattern of creation that you are bringing into the Earth plane, you will find you will progress through the events easily and will be interpreting information and you will indeed be assisting others with information and energy in the way that is particular for you as you present yourself and the energy into the time space reality on Earth. In reminding you of this, as you are held suspended out of time and space, it enables you to again draw upon the strengthening pattern of Creation.

You will already be aware that creative energy is a particular sequence of symbols or shapes in the field of creation which is evolving and shifting and which creates particular areas of connection in areas of the dimension and those areas of connection make up the particular geometric shapes that you identify with. In this moment you are in the centre of all of that.

We continue to hold you in this space in this transmission of energy and information for you simply because it is making a change in the area around you. What we have presented you into is an exact positioning where you draw into you the purpose of creation, the infinite level of energy that you can identify with and many of you as we speak these words to you will be experiencing a shift in your position. The shift in position is very strengthening to you, thus, what is around you that may be of disturbance or change is not going to affect you as it would if you had not been experiencing this adjustment and alignment.

You may already be seeing the disturbances in people around you, many such disturbances reflect in the way they observe the patterns around them and even how they observe themselves and treat themselves and consider themselves in some aspect of life. The identification process of the conscious mind can be powerful and can be manipulated. This is another reason why we bring you into these states of deep immersion into the pureness and into the original place that you drew upon Source Creation energy to manifest in the way that you were able to radiate it into the environment around you.

Bringing you out of that space now, we wish you to visualise and to feel that you are again within the energy structure of the city of light. This is helping to maintain the memory of this in you and the energy of this light structure interfaces with your energy field that you have brought with you in your body of light energy structure here. Identify with that now in this process. Feel it around you. Stretch into it. Allow it to be absorbed into your energy field.

You may perceive that there is organisation in the energy structure of this new civilisation. Much is being put into place. Information is available and the patterns necessary to assist the Beings presently on planet Earth are also visibly manifesting. In many cases you will be realising that some of the people who are working on purifying themselves are aware that they are moving into a different type of civilisation, so ultimately it is being prepared for those beings who are ready to accept it and understand it and that also means there will be much they will need to leave behind them. This also applies to you.

Relinquishing the power of the physical manifested objects is what is required to exist within the greater civilisations. You would still be using various vehicles and tools to exist and to help in your existence, but you would view it in a different way. It is viewed with love and being able to employ what is around you that you manifest in the way to assist the civilisation as well as self. There is, in a sense, an engineering practice, where you might feel it is being engineered to be some way or some place. That is simply because it is a pattern of creation that you would recognise in your mind as being necessary and useful.

Within it all, you hold the connection to the Source Energy pattern that you identify with and that you encompass.

With this explanation I am now bringing you back to being aware that you are assembled in the receiving area of this Station of Light. These sessions are delivered in a way that you will be interested in them, that you may be motivated to continue expanding your awareness and you may also be scheduling times to re-immense yourself in the energy to receive upgrades in your energy field. The energy field is superimposed over and within and around the physical processes of your body form. Remember that this is not a selfish way of working. As you continue to evolve and increase your energy field, it touches others.

It is that you chose to come here in this time and in this way and to re-awaken what you brought with you, carried as if it were a seed within your consciousness that needed to receive certain light energy frequencies to allow it to expand and fill you, just as this confirms to you that you are indeed doing this.

There are many Beings of different representations who come around you in these sessions and many of these in this present time are explaining to some of you more definitions of what occurs in these spaces we draw you into and more information being given to you about your current life pattern and perhaps how that may change. It varies, of course, for individuals.

Now it is considered that you have absorbed the concepts of this transmission and experienced the changes, the alteration in your energy field and thus my purpose for speaking with you this day is complete

I withdraw now Beloved
Orem out

Lani again with you and I thank you Orem.

I bring my attention back to be with you in this space and identifying many of you here. It is amazing that we don't have to present ourselves individually as if we were invited guests and we had to sign in or identify ourselves individually. Everyone is welcome in this space.

It is time now to consciously gather into you everything you have received during this transmission, into your consciousness of the light body consciousness pattern and feel that you are now returning to your physical self and form and all of the layers of its thoughts and emotions, energy field patterns, health, vitality and you have much to bring into this physical unit that you are. You may be experiencing many visions and thoughts and words that were not expressed as words in this session. It is all part of your individual expansion.

Everything that is presented through this Station of Light is helping you. The Beings recognise you.

Now be fully aware of your surroundings. Be fully aware of the physical form that is you. It has a name. It has a place where you live. Be fully aware of that now and be fully aware of the day - the present - whenever you touch into this transmission again.

It is wonderful to share in this energy with you and I thank you

Lani
