Issue 888

Date: October 26, 2017

Time: 6 pm

The Omega Portal is open again. Are you ready to continue these journeys of expanding your consciousness and of receiving the information that is available to us all? Are you ready to be comfortable in your body, so that you can leave the body in your energy system, the body of light? Have you been working with the previous transmission, or any one of them from earlier weeks, so that you are getting a continual flow of energy which balances and corrects? If you have not been - even if this is the first Omega transmission you have come across - it is time to link with me as we gather in a group in the transition space of the Station of Light. This Station of Light houses, or is the vehicle, for a great number of Beings whose intention is to help the energy on Earth and to help the Beings on Earth evolve in the way that is considered to be holistic and in the way of the unfoldment of Source Energy Creation.

We always begin here in the transition space, because gathering you into this space allows you to adapt to the energy and to familiarise yourself with being present as an energy consciousness form.

You could perceive your energy body indeed as a form present here. It will not be exactly the same as your physical form, because you have already left behind you some of the grossness - the density - of that physical body and reinstating you into the awareness of the Essence of you, so listen and be open to enjoy the energy transmission.

“Greetings to you all here, Beloved, Orem addressing you and I am with you in this state again assisting you and I am representing the number of Beings also working with us in this Station. We often have no designated position or purpose as a task - it is shared between the group consciousness level and we perceive what is needed by those of you who have come forward into this space and of course we are assessing what is around you on the Earth plane and arising from that we bring forth the energy appropriate for you in this moment to assist.

There is a multi level of energy systems of the rays of light, or the attendances of different Beings from different dimensions and of course the pattern - there is an individual pattern around each land mass on Earth and encompassing the Earth itself in a very unique pattern, because every energy space has a unique pattern. You have a unique pattern compared with other people assembled with you here, although there is the underlying base energy support and network for the element of the Human Being on Earth that is needed. It is this underlying base energy matrix and field that we are considering in this moment as you are assembled here.

Because of the changing energy structure of Earth and what you are receiving from beyond the Earth station coming through other dimensional existences and fields, there needs to be adjustment in each and in the pattern of the Earth system. We have been assessing the disturbances in the electro-magnetic layers of the configuration of planet Earth and what has also been disturbing the configuration of the human element energy field.

This has arisen from many of the technological ways that you utilise in your daily energy field and so there has been put into creation some patterns that will assist you so that you are not so affected or disturbed by the energy. In one sense it means that the energetic biology of the human form and other creatures on the planet and plant life have not sufficiently evolved to be able to absorb what you are exposed to with the created technology around you. Therefore, in bringing your attention to this at this time in the space, we will be assisting you.

To do this we draw all of you present here into a deeper chamber within the Station and your energy field is being assessed. Your energy field, as you know, is also affected by your own thoughts and emotions. All of this can be taken into consideration in the assessment and then what will happen is you will be receiving some energy to help you so that you can integrate it in your energy field. You may see it perhaps as an overlaying protective field and deep within you there will be energy patterns which will be enlivened to protect you.

You were intended to be operating at a higher energy frequency where you would use different forms of creation for your intelligent motivations and creations and sensory devices and communication devices, but there had been various layers that had prevented that evolutionary change to occur. It is permitted for us to have available for you, energy systems to assist you. They are present around you in this space. They are present in the energy matrix around the entire population, but it is your own choice to make. If you decide that you do not need this, it will not be imprinted in you. If you choose to accept it, then the energy will be assisting you in this moment, in the moment that you choose to accept assistance it is given.

Have you realised and noticed that anything that you are involved in on Earth, or experiencing, the moment that you send out a request for help, it is given to you. This is occurring because of your connection into the higher aspect of Creation.

It is a higher aspect of you connected into vibratory levels and those vibratory levels are overseen as part of different groups all around you in this other dimensional reality from where you most focus your attention.

Again, you are being reminded of that, to request assistance in the way that the request would come in the right way when you are attuned into Source Energy Creation as it is part of your purpose of existence on Earth.

We are providing you with the impression and knowledge of your connection overseeing planet Earth as it is today. It is a level of harmonic resonance and because of your own particular resonating field and frequency, you are automatically drawn into the correct area, so all around the planet and around your cities there will be those of you who resonate with particular frequencies which are evident in some areas and this is what is happening currently for you in your states. If you are presently connected into an area that you are not resonating with on that deeper level, then you will be experiencing a shift from whatever that was that was disturbing you. You may consciously be making choices to leave, or to provide some other faction of your creation that might help harmonise the area. You are very aware of this. You function as a highly perceptive person, when you allow yourself to be, when you are balanced and aligned with Source Energy without conscious thoughts and stressful emotions. You clearly know what you want to achieve and where you want to be.

You are aware already of the energy that you are within, in this greater overlaying energy matrix we referred to. In this sense, you are receiving information and energy, restoring you, rejuvenating you in some fashion, clearing you of the energy that is not harmonised with you, and at the same time, you are being drawn into the resonating energy field in which you are harmonised with. You will be experiencing this, in this moment.

Also in this gathering space, Ulea is present with you.”

“ I am Ulea coming forward amongst you, giving you attention and drawing your attention to my presence.

I am involved in this space, along with many others stationed around the planet, involved in the process of helping you understand and receive the energy necessary to inhibit the interference you have been receiving from the technology, as Orem has described to you. This is what I am here for and you may be aware that you are drawing that specific energy from me, for I am surrounded in it, and you are able to draw upon that for you, to draw it into your energy centre, even in your body of light here, because that takes it in fully and it will remain there when you integrate this light body back into all the levels of your physicality present. You will feel this working through you and around you.

A lot happens in these areas where you are out of the measurement of time. It happens in this space with the words and between the words. I withdraw from you now. “ “Acknowledged, Ulea. Orem now back with you and I am drawing you back from your sensory perception of linking with the overall planet system. I draw you back to our receiving area of the Station.

You may be trying to define yourself - but that is not necessary. You may be accepting yourself, who and what you are - and that is necessary. It changes you, you see, and at the opportune moment, the energy of what you are is available to other ones in need. It is a natural flow, just as you drew energy from Ulea, others can draw from what you have around you and so you are engaged in the process of assisting the overall plan and assisting other Beings, other lifeforms around you.

This has been the purpose of this message today - to give you the energy of support and clearance. This will remain with you as long as you need it and are aware of it to bring it back to your conscious mind at times. I now withdraw from this session

Orem out “

This is Lani speaking again and I give my grateful thanks to Orem and Ulea and all of the other Beings involved in this session. It was necessary for us to receive that energy. There must have been a change in the energy environment around us all on the planet for us to be given this protection and my sense is that it raises our energy field and it strengthens the energy field that exists around each one of us separately, which I sense can be weakened by the different rays and frequencies around us. Let me know if you notice the difference over the next few days. You may have been experiencing pressures around your head, or tiredness, so if this changes, you will understand that it arises from this energy assistance you have been given.

Bring all of this back in your beautiful body of light and bring it back into your physical form right now, fully engaged again in this life pattern, fully present in your location and the moment. We do this because you get separated into different dimensions during these sessions and it is necessary for you to be present on Earth, although you will always retain the energy of that higher level of light. Thank you again and I am closing the Omega Portal because this transmission is complete.
