Issue 892

Date: December 7, 2017

Time: 6 pm

I open the Omega Communications Portal again and allow myself to be aware of the Station of Light and the Beings there who are commissioned to help us and I open to link with you. Therefore, as you are receiving this, you are indeed ready for the next inflow and experience of what is to come to us in this session.

Therefore, be aware that you are already within the receiving area of the Station of Light. What do you expect to perceive here? Is it something beyond the normal range of human eyesight, or is it completely natural and normal to you? I feel that whatever you expect to find here, as a welcoming space, it will present itself to you. Even though you may be aware of different surroundings to what I may observe, we just need to accept that we are together, we are allowing the information and confines of the Earth life to drop away and we allow ourselves to focus within the body of light, which is you. This is how we begin this session today.

“The space indeed does welcome you here, Dear One. Each and everyone we address personally and individually and we mingle with you at this time. You may perceive us as we move amongst you. This is Orem addressing you and I have with me of course, many other Beings of The Command whose purpose it is to greet you, to meet you and to introduce you to the flow of energy coming forward to you at this time.

There are expectations amongst you of some technical type information or guidance and through the flow of energy and information presented to you, there will be realisations you will gain, and understanding, even though the pattern presented to you may differ from what you expect it to be. We are addressing you as conscious Beings here who already are connected into that flow of information. You are receiving it already within your light body present here and thus you will be feeling adjustment occurring in that way.

Surrounding you initially is the energy which releases from you any matter which is trapped in your energy field that has been attracted to you in some way. Perhaps you have drawn it to you consciously, perhaps you have been exposed to something where you were not aware that it could be inhibiting the flow of energy around you and through you.

You each have been experiencing intense energy since the previous transmission to you resulting from changes occurring in the outersphere around the planet and what is reflected into the planet, coming in through the sun around which Earth is circling and also information comes through combined with that, relating to changing definitions of alignment processes and individual dimensional frequency changes. Life continually adapts and changes to the flows coming forward to you. We are momentarily adjusting your status and your presence within some of those flows of energy, so you may experience movement and you may experience that you are moving through different portals, or you are seeing different visions around you and different places. It all relates to the influence upon you and the manner in which you draw in the energy, and what is appropriate for you.

So, as well as your conscious light body doing this, there are higher aspects of you present also coming forward to assist you. Those aspects are those who exist primarily in this Station, but who have also come forward from different timelines to witness the process of your expansion into greater levels of existence of consciousness. Understand from this that you are being present within the city of light structures. Already these have formed around you as you are present here, so you are also present within areas of the city of light structures. In particular there is a structure around you on Earth which intersects within an area within the city of light structure and already you may feel you have been elevated into the highest point of that energy structure. Perceive what it feels like and what comes into your mind as a shape, as a formation, and you may also perceive Beings there with you. “

“We have wished to address you many times in these Stations and some of you have observed us in the area of existence within the waters on the planet at the present time. We are that. We can move between dimensions and spaces and the energy within this crystalline structure civilisation is also represented within the area beneath the waters on the planet, so there is merging of both energy spheres at this moment. You will feel the presence of this within your knowingness, centred within the upper chest of your physicality body and also within your light body which represents the physical body in this sense, so you are being harmonised between these two states of existence. Part of one, but a different aspect - part of Earth, but again, a different dimensional frequency, different light patterns, different formations.

Also, this is a deep construction from Source Energy that is appropriate and relevant for you to experience at this time.

You have not left, you have not departed your physicality, and yet you are existing in these other dimensional aspects and also time spheres. So, all that you may understand from this, is that you are able to, with guidance, experience being in many of these dimensional spheres, momentarily of course. We want you to gather in the higher field frequency from all of these areas you are experiencing and this will help you as you participate in the experiences around you on planet Earth presently.

In helping you in this way, you are able to keep a clear understanding of what is happening and to gain clearer understanding, whatever is required as an individual being, and also this helps you to participate in creation of what is felt is needed, required totally to provide a more sustainable experience on the planet as it is. You will be aware of changes and patterns which can be known to interfere with the healthiness of the physical unit, so we are doing our bit to help you process the change in a way that you will be able to expand into a higher level of existence above any such effect that could have been introduced to prevent you from expanding and exploring into these other states.

You are indeed absorbing all of this, which is what was required and we withdraw and we reconnect you with Commander Orem.”

 “Orem speaking again and this information and energy around you will help you sustain your own energy needed of course at this time.

To reinforce this for you, I enclose you in a sphere of light and you may be aware of the energy moving into you within this sphere. You may feel energy points that have been dull, being cleared. You may feel enlivened as a result of this - and that is done.

Many of you may be questioning timeframes, and what is time, and is there a length of time required for the expansion, is there a length of time available to be productive in what you want to do, is there a length of time measurable before there is a major discontinuation of life on the planet. There are many questions you each have, dependent on your own thoughts and what you have been receiving in your news items and other information layers and sources. There is no fixed time. Time as you know it, changes in accordance with what you focus on and how you react in an emotional or mental state. You will consider that now in the days ahead of you, and we also want you to understand that you have many opportunities to expand and listen to various discourses, you still continue and would need to continue, allowing your own higher self to influence you. The higher self aspect which connects into the energy from Source Essence. We talk about this in every session for you, so it becomes familiar and so you are immersed in that and you practice that. Everything you do should work in with that pattern.

Now going beyond this again, we are reassembling you into the receiving area of the Station and here I welcome Ulea into this space. “

“Thank you Commander Orem, Ulea addressing you again here, with joy, as I am happy that you have drawn this particular information into you from the deeper Beings who have aligned with you in this moment and who are continuing to work within the waters on the planet and to link you into areas of the city of light. Arising from all of this different frequency exposure, you may be feeling dissatisfaction with some of the actions you perform presently and with some of the food that you eat. Again you will be choosing energy in whatever form which will sustain you in an energetic pattern. Foods are designed to increase the energy and to process and transform that which you take into you. Energy coming over you at this moment continues to support you and uplift you and you may feel your attention is moving up and down, hearing words and the words are fading, and back and forth.

All of this is in relationship to your presence here and how you are able to absorb the pattern. Symbolically it means that what you are receiving is beyond a pattern that has been painted to you and yet it is emerging through the presence of water, or liquid in some form. When you observe the water that you drink before you drink it, you may be seeing patterns within it and you will see that which needs clearing and that which is coming in to enhance it. This is the effect that the Beings in Oceania are able to bring to you, to enhance the water for you, and everything that contains the water that you take in. I needed to point this out to you at this time

Ulea out “

Lani again and I am coming back to bring you back to Earth after this wonderful experience with these Beings within the Station and so you must also now make the effort and have your intention, to bring all of this back into your energy form within and around your body. Your light body is doing this and has it all, and yet it still needs your conscious allowance and intention for it to fully manifest in you.

I found this to be interesting and helpful myself today and now it is time for me to complete this transmission and be with you as you fully reconnect to your physical life and surroundings and the current time on Earth.

Thank you
Lani
