Date: December 21, 2017

Time 5 pm

Hello and I welcome you into another session of the Omega Communications transmissions, so as I prepare myself to allow the energy and information to come through, I ask you to do the same. I ask you to be ready for any change that may be coming forward in the energy pattern and I ask you to allow information which can come through in many different ways. It might come through to you as a colour or perhaps you just see a symbol - it is all coded information which is brought forth into your conscious mind and knowing.

For now, it is time to gather again in the receiving area of the Station of Light so this transition space begins this session today and we have always come to the point of sensing it is time to receive another flow of energy. Perhaps some of you feel a level of discomfort or stress in the body or pressure around your head and that can indicate that it is the energy wanting to come through to you, because it comes in a rhythm and a pattern and we ourselves have set up the pattern to receive on a weekly basis that system of energy, of light, of information.

This is what it is all about at this time – bringing in and allowing the light to be. Now I step back and allow Commander Orem to come forward and greet you.

“ Orem addressing you in this presentation in this time phase again, Beloved.

Even if I do not speak to you directly, you are within my presence and I am aware of what is occurring as you gather in this space and I am also assisting the overall plan of energy to come through to you. There might be aspects of yourself that need to be settled down, or set down, so that you can enable a different part - a different aspect of you - to come forward and to be fully aware of your presence in this state in this Station. It is all about identifying your core energy self and identifying the connection that it is in alignment with the higher pattern of energy which is available to you and to all of the aspects of Earth and it is available also to all aspects of Creation. We are just here to help you open the doorway, to acknowledge that, to receive it and to be within the flow and allowing it to be present everywhere that you are.

In the presentations to you, there has been information given to you relating to different patterns present within the consciousness of Earth people and within the pattern of energy on Earth and many of you respond to that information and you recognise the places which can be referred to. Also in the sessions you may have been taken directly into other areas of civilisation and patterns of energy. All of this is because you enable the flow of energy to work for you and you are also in this state and Station in the presence of the higher self aspect of you and the higher self aspect of you also brings through an origination space and energy for you, because it also knows what you are needing at this time and is always positioning you within the flows of energy appropriate for you.

You will understand from this that it is your own perception and what you allow to come through which will present to you everything that is appropriate for you in this space, in this time space.

During the deliverance of these words and energy, you have shifted in your sense of what you are identifying with here and as a result of that shift, you are being presented through other portals into different assemblies. Some of these assemblies are directly involving you in the pattern of energy necessary to help you bring in the next unfoldment into the Earth space.

Already you will be aware of the communication grid existing around you and around the consciousness field of people and as you observe this, you may see surges of different patterns passing through this energy grid. There are multi layers to it. You may be aware there is a focus on some individuals who are linked into the grid, into this matrix and this matrix, as well as bringing more light energy frequency into the planet, it is also helping adjust the particular energy patterns which relate to the human involvement of the entire human unit that you are. This incorporates the physical, emotional, mental and the many dimensions in which you are active and you have identified with many of those dimensions.

It must come to your conscious knowledge that the energy being received goes throughout dimensions time and space. There is no separation in terms of the energy presence but because you are functioning at present in the Earth plane, it does seem to you that it is coming to you in surges or in moments or in patterns and sometimes you can relate that to seasons or turnings of the Earth or some other celebrations that you hold onto in your memory. We are telling you that it is all around you, always.

In some time and some place you have been conditioned to think that it must come with alignment with some other area or person or pattern within the overall universe and so as a necessity we have been using your realisations to position you into the element of the energy which it will seem is coming to you in certain phases.

Taking you to the edge of your consciousness field as we have done many times with your understanding now, you will feel that you are encompassing the presence of such a state of consciousness that you would feel enveloped within that, quite apart from planetary Station Earth, and we recognise this state of being supported and enveloped in this energy.

As you withdraw from that back to being consciously aware of the assembly where you are receiving this, now you will have the sense that there is a higher pattern within your awareness. You know that you can bring this energy to other people or creatures or places and in bringing the energy in, that is all that you are required to do. The energy itself will work in accordance with the perception of whatever is being surrounded by the next level of energy that may be consciously needed.

Now, moving aside from this, be aware also of the energy within the energy matrix enfolding and surrounding the planet and it is in this time being drawn to different places, filling different civilisations which are existing alongside what you would consider to be the current civilisation. Some of these that we refer to are existing in a different vibration, so are not readily seen by most people, However, the energy still is moving into those energy patterns. If you are feeling that it was necessary for you to know this, you may also be feeling that many of those civilisations have been expecting your presence - your consciousness - to allow this energy pattern to come forward.

Allow all sense of boundary around you to dissolve and you are just the Energy of Source Creation.

If you can sense what would occur with many thousands of people present and realising this same energy, you will begin to get a sense of what can happen because you, yourself felt all boundaries to dissolve away, all judgement to dissolve away, all sense of emotional attachment and degrees of emotions that you experience in the Earth plane all being dissolved away. The details of what you may think could be happening are not as important as the sensing of what is happening with the presence of this energy.

You will know also everyone whom you know is also being immersed in this energy, because you have dissolved all boundaries and all ones in your awareness are connected in, in this moment, with the energy, with light, with consciousness.

Come back now with me, withdrawing from this space, withdrawing from the assembly area, orienting yourself back in the transition receiving area. You have been exploring many different layers of dimension in this session.

I withdraw now, for you to continue experiencing this

Orem out “

Bringing my attention back to be with you now, this is Lani again. All this that you are experiencing will be making a difference in your life pattern. It is not even about how you might use it. It is just allowing yourself to enjoy the flow of energy and inspiration and creation which will arise from this. It changes you inwardly and therefore outward changes will evolve and manifest.

It is time now to bring this awareness and energy which you have been experiencing in your light body here, coming back to your physical self, your physical unit. Enjoy the experience of this and enjoy the peaceful time that you have been taken into.

I leave this with you now also, and I complete the transmission at this time through the Omega Portal. Make sure you are fully present in your surroundings in the current time. We don't need any segments of you wandering around. We need you to be present within the presence of the energy.

Thank you
Lani
