Issue 897

Date: January 11, 2018

Time 3.30 pm

As I open the Omega Communications Portal, come with me as we begin today's session, as we go within for inspiration, for energy and for information in whatever way is appropriate for you to receive.

Focus within your body of light and feel yourself being drawn upward with me into the receiving area of the Station. This Station that is supported by so many members of the greater Galactic Councils and the Beings who are constantly coming to and from the Station, all of them have the intention of being with Earth and being with you as evolvement occurs. They oversee and they help, so, are you coming forward into this space to receive help in some way? All will be given to you as you need it and can absorb it, integrating it into your realisations and everything affects your energy field and therefore your life in this particular body.

As you focus here in this space, you may feel change happening around you as the area shifts and becomes - almost transforming into different geometric shapes today - which all have a meaning. We can look up what every geometric shape known to us symbolises.

In this state, the geometry goes beyond what we can identify perhaps because it brings in a different depth and that different depth in the sacred geometry allows planes of dimensions to shift. This is where I withdraw and allow the Light Beings within the Station to come forward to address you.

“Welcome into this space. Orem addressing you initially again as it is my role to do that and my presence allows you the freedom to accept that I understand you as a conscious Being within the physical form which is used on Earth today. I understand you, not from the sense of having been existing on the planet in the form that you have, but from the point of view of collecting information and assessing your energy field when you come into this space.

It is all part of the positioning here around you, it is all part of the presentation around you and it is all part of presenting you into this space and the manner in which you are drawn into it, allows your consciousness, your energy field, to absorb what is around you here.

Always this is to inform you, to enhance you, to clear away patterns that you no longer need, perhaps identifying patterns for you to understand that you do not any longer need. Perhaps the energy around you here will bring to your attention some pathways and studies that you have taken into your systems that you realise are not adequate for you to comprehend the change in the dimensions affecting around you. So, as we begin this session you are already divesting yourself of some of those extraneous energy systems.

Now begin this aspect of this session with us, coming with us into an overall area, a space within the Station, where you can observe very many Stations, Planets, Vessels as they emerge into the energy field around planet Earth. As you observe before you these movements and appearances, you will also be perceiving the greater energy field around the Earth which is the aspect of the Earth Light City.

More of this will become apparent to you as you expand your senses and you find that different areas within you are awakened, are initiated, because there are certain lines of information for you to follow which relate to the existence of the Earth Light City and what is to become of it.

You may be recalling what you have been shown in graphics in some way that have been created. Remember that many of the creations are coming through the inspirational visits that artists can bring forward and therefore creations unfold. This is all relevant to the particular level that people are receiving the information on and up until this current time phase you are in, many of the creations are beginning to depict the reality of the construction of the Earth Light City. Remember too, that it is not just about physical construction and layers of strengthening type materials or areas to exist in. Our focus, as we bring your awareness into this, is upon the actions, the attitude, the receptivity of you all, the acknowledgement of the energy systems and how you allow the energy systems to interact with your personal energy grid - the matrix that you are and this is multi-dimensional. Even in your present Earth body you are a multi-dimensional aspect of Creation.

In these sessions we draw your attention away from physical structure into this greater energy link up and the flowingness which is the light body energy matrix of you here, and of course there are sections of those which we have referred you to the naming as nodes and these particular intersections of energy are in this moment again being adjusted. The adjustments will be producing different sensations, some of which you may be experiencing physically or mentally and perhaps emotionally, because there is the merging of those two aspects of you, so as you become aware of different sensations, then ascertain whether it is part of the exchange of information through the connecting nodes of you as an individual with the Earth Light City energy system, and if it is, then this will give you some reassurance that it is all happening as you expect it to occur to help you facilitate moving into a more conscious sensation of existing on the Earth but within the Light City consciousness field.

Our presentations to you always involve the evolvment and expansion of your awareness and of your consciousness, that is your knowingness that you have arrived at a particular intersection in your journey where all of this information is being presented to you and there are ones around you with whom you can share this change in you and you can share the result of that change, which is to energise you greatly and to enable the smooth passageway of you through your experiences in these dimensions and in and upon the surface of the planet, or wherever you exist.

The continuation of you experiencing these energy transmissions does assist the process of transformation and the activation within you of many areas which have been prepared and have been expecting to receive specific activating energy. This is the time when there are many layers around you being activated. There are many pockets of information in you which are presenting to you another layer of understanding of existence and the deepening connection of you to the Source Energy aspect of Creation.

You are now in the phase of using this energy that you will be experiencing around you presently, to help you and others. The higher aspects of your consciousness already know of this, are already working in this way and of course will be passing that information into you in such a way that you will feel compelled to use the energy if it is necessary. We say again it is something you do not force, but when you merge within the energy consciousness state of Source Energy, whatever is required will flow through you.

This is time for you to acknowledge the area you have come into and the understanding, the realisations, now that you have. Resulting from this, you will understand more of the patterns that are present in the interactions with people and you may be understanding the levels that many of these people are acting upon.

You may also be witnessing those who are following a deep inspiration of this creative flow of energy from Source Creation. You may also be observing how that is sometimes changed or used to suit a person's process of what they are wanting to achieve, as a personal goal, as opposed to the purpose of the overall connectedness and support for those on the planet willing to learn and expand and assist the levels on Earth to absorb the Light City energy. You know, of course, that not all people are in that state of expanded awareness.

Observing around you in this space, you may be sensing the number of people gathered here - the groups. You may be sensing the areas of population in which certain individuals are living. You will also be aware that in areas upon the planet where there is no dense population, there are energy systems being activated, energy which has been entered within the structure of Earth and as the Earth Light City expands and draws upon energy, there is a certain resonating effect with some of these energy systems that have been installed within different areas on the planet. There was the indications that there would maintain open spaces that would not be heavily populated, so there was careful assessment before the placement of these energy systems before the great number of beings evolved on the planet. There are many of these energy systems, some would be identified as major and some are lesser and some are aligned with what you term portals and many of those were the first to be initiated as part of the Earth Light City manifestation, so there is a long term unfoldment for this energy structure. This is what is being observed by many of the Beings who have come forward to witness this and to assist the process and they come forward from many different dimensions and planetary systems.

There is the sense of appreciation and gratitude to you for your presence and for the efforts you have made to remember your purpose and to let go of all resistance to that purpose. In the acknowledgement of that to you, this again is allowing you to expand more and to resonate more with many of these Beings.

Enjoy this moment when you are supported in their energy matrix which is around you. If you are sensing particular Beings then remember this and you can call upon that linkage to give you further information individually. [Take time to Feel this]

With that experience complete I am drawing you back now to refocus within the receiving transition space of the Station. It is required of you to focus within this space and I envelop you all in all overall sphere of light in this moment, drawing you all into it - and thus I withdraw. This presentation to you is complete at this time

Orem out "

Lani back again speaking to you. Thank you, Orem, for this presentation. It seems a short time, and yet I am aware of a great experience that has been shared with you, so as you allow that to be within your conscious mind now, I also ask you to return to your physical body.

Each session helps your physical body, as you allow the energy to do that for you and consciously draw upon it. Your physical body, of course, is just an energy system and it has a blueprint and so the plan, the blueprint, can be modified and enhanced. There is a wonderful opening available to us all now and I thank you for being with me on this journey.

Now become aware fully of your surroundings, bringing yourself back into the absolute present moment and locality. I trust that you enjoyed this, as I have enjoyed allowing all of this to come through. Thank you again and we will connect again for the next session. I close the Omega Portal for this particular transmission.
