Issue 899

Date: January 25, 2018

Time 6 pm

Hello again. I open the Omega Communications Portal and invite you to be with me as again we raise our energy and awareness to beyond the physical body unit. Therefore, you need to be comfortable as you are receiving this energy transmission, so that you have no distractions and you can focus totally in the energy which you will be surrounded in. Are you perceiving already that you are in this great gathering space within the Station of Light - this space that is named the receiving area and it is also called the transition area? In this space, of course, you will be seeing and sensing different energy moving around you, perhaps different beings already, perhaps you have decided to bring in some special people who are close to you, to be in this space also, perhaps you are holding the intention that everyone who needs to receive this type of energy and information will be drawn into this space with you, with all of us here.

I am sensing you coming forward as I come forward, and in that process we assume a different energy system. Already you will be aware of that, of different energy sensations around you and you may be feeling that around your physical body in some way, but you will also be aware of being present here with us. This is aspects of consciousness and this is quite normal and is something we need to be aware of, even if we do not clearly define it. So, we are ready to begin and I open my awareness and recede so that the Beings within the Station of Light will come through to you – to us.

“Greetings to you, Orem addressing you and I observe the transition you have made into this space and it is an aspect of all of you that comes into this space.

There may be other aspects of you that you identify as yourself, operating in different levels of consciousness and it is always that we identify you and bring your focus into this space within the Station of Light.

In this space you are able to be adjusted and the aspect of you that is focused here would be needing the energy that is appropriate to you now, and so it is a process that you consciously engage in that energy, to surround you, to help you identify the next aspect of your journey through the life pattern and the next aspect of what you are proposing, which would be appropriate for you to connect into the activity that is presented around you here. It is also a process of allowing you to become familiar with the different types of Beings present here and the information which comes forward to you through those Beings. As you relax, you will find there will be different opportunities and realisations coming to your conscious thought pattern here.

In this transmission, as you come forward deeper into this space, you are going through a spectrum of light frequency and as you pass through that, be aware of what is occurring. What is occurring is the separation from you of some elements that have still been clearly visible in your energy aspect that you are here now. Some of these are attributable to what you have been experiencing in this current life phase and pattern and many of you are aware that you also strongly identify to other times of life, to other lifetimes, past lives perhaps you would recognise those as, and indeed if any such aspect is disturbing you, and this is always clearly visible in this state, then it is the appropriate time to release those consciously from you. It is a simple process, because all you are required to do is to allow all attachments to be released from you, from your aspect here now and this aspect of you that is here now is the closest aspect that relates to your current lifetime and life phase. This is the purpose of this light frequency passing around you and over you, as you consciously decide to move forward into a deeper connection into this space.

Your conscious mind is aware of this and it is your conscious mind that decides, as well as the higher aspect of you which also decides to allow the conscious mind to allow this process to occur. Do you see the different aspects involved here? The layers of consciousness? And always it is our intention to bring you through to the highest - or deepest - state of consciousness that is available to you to access through this particular way and appropriate visitation in this space. So, understand that we are addressing you as an individual, but we are also addressing you as the group gathered here in this space.

Already with this light frequency purifying your energy field, you are more in harmony with the experience of travelling out of time and space with us. This allows a closer linkup of you to your point of origin and to that point of origin which has within its energy system the Station that you identify with. For many of you, it is this particular Station of Light which has been around you and in the consciousness field of the Earth Light City Beings for many civilisations and many times you have been in those many civilisations, because it is associated with the Earth planetary station and its existence as a planet for life to evolve on and we will just be referring to this in this time. Anything else is a separate and personal introduction to you for this time. You will gain benefit from this particular presentation that you are immersed in. It confirms to you many of your personal visitations into this Station consciously, over recent transmissions and in between the transmissions when you link in consciously yourself as an individual.

Many times we welcome you individually so that you can gain better experience and individual insight into what you are involved in. There are many mechanical systems here. In that we refer to not mechanical as machinery, but methods - many methods that you are involved in, in working with the energy grid which surrounds you individually and which you are working with while you are present on the Earth in this phase of transition from the existing Earth planet stage into the Earth Light City energy construction. So, there is a method involved in it and that method you might say is a mechanical sequence. It is a sequence, because as you absorb and integrate the energy here, this expands your energy field and through the connecting nodes you are working within different facilities here within this Station which are involved in the establishment of the Earth Light City structure.

In coming to this particular evolutionary phase, this is why there are more Beings attracted around the Earth Station and also answers your questions as to why there are so many different types of Beings involved in this and presenting themselves through many different vessels and many different channelers. You, as individuals respond to certain frequencies that different groups bring in and the information and energy is what you are drawn to. You will have already been deciding that many of the information channelers that you are receiving coordinates from and descriptions from do not seem very welcoming or do not resonate with you, and so you are continually cycling information and finding you are expanding your level of connections and thus you are drawn into the most appropriate state and area that you resonate with. So, all of you in this space now have resonated with this level of energy within the Earth Light City and this is part - wholly part - of the purpose of our presence here in this Station of Light.

There are many different galactic Beings working with you in this Station. They come in at different times and they come in with specific energy frequency which you would find necessary for you as you progress in these times. You are experiencing being presented into Councils of Light in this space. The greater Council which exists and meets in this Station of Light has various sub councils all linking in with it and it is not necessary to be in one particular Council group, because there is an overall communication connection with all of them, and be aware as you, as an individual presented here into the overall Council presence, you are directly in communication with one communicator representing the specific patterns that you are needing at this time. As an individual Being - a conscious Being of Light that you are - you are interpreting this sequence of coded patterns and information. There is too much to be presented through the words that we are giving to you. You must allow the energy to come into you through this and you have a vast capacity to absorb all of this within you and around you - and you are doing this in this moment.

When you present yourself in repeated connections to this transmission, there will be ongoing unfoldments to you from this direct transmission to you from the Council here around you. You may feel that it is you speaking these words. When you do feel that, this is the precise alignment that you have with the communicator within the Council.

You exist for this.

You will feel yourself unfolding to receive more of this.

Now, in my capacity as holding you in this space and presenting you into this space, I am now withdrawing you from that pattern and you will feel yourself being drawn back to the assembly in the receiving space within this Station. You have been absorbing a great deal within that beam of coded information to you. I bring this over you, as if it is a cloak or a sphere of light directly over you. There are patterns within it that are making specific adjustments to you to help you realise what this is and to be able to work with it, and you will be working with it in the space between this and the next transmission.

I now withdraw and leave you in this receiving condition

“Orem out “

“Thank you Orem. Ulea coming forward to you now and I am working with you to help you precisely align with all of this pattern that has been beamed into you, in such a way that it will be a gentle absorption. It is not until you are able to recognise and absorb this type of higher intense frequency that it comes to you, and so you have allowed yourself to receive this.

It is filling your light energy form and those aspects of you that are all necessary for the lifetime you are living in the present phase and I am now bringing you back to connect into your current life and all aspects of that which is known as you. I am happy to do this with you, so do make sure that you have followed this instruction to bring it all back into you now.

Thank you, and you can feel pleased with what you have been receiving in this transmission

Ulea out “

And, Lani again speaking to you and I am very happy to see that you have been brought back with the instruction from Ulea. So you may feel you are firmly back in this present moment, location and body. It is a discipline and a method that is required, because you were taken out of current time and space.

I am now closing the Omega Portal for this transmission and you are now fully present. Thank you for being with me in this transmission and we were told to work with it so that you gain maximum benefit from everything that was presented. Perhaps I will be aware of you again when I tune back into it! Thank you.

Lani
