Issue 901
Date: February 8, 2018
Time 4 pm

Hello again, as I open the Omega Communications Portal and I bring you together with me, gathering you up from all around the Earth in this space in the Station of Light labelled the receiving area, or the transition area - it's the same space.

I gather you up again today to be in this space so that the energy around you and throughout you will be sorted out, will be strengthened, in whatever way that you need it to be, and as that happens you will be receiving information and energy which you will be needing at this time - whenever you link in with this message.

So, enjoy this time that we have, out of time and space, in this receiving area of the Station of Light.

I step back to allow the Beings who support each and every one of us to come to us today.

"We are present with you as requested and this is Orem addressing you as the Command Centre within this Station.

I have many energy systems to organise around you and through you and for you, so each segment of this transmission, and every transmission, helps you to be more complete, because it helps you to expand back into the energy of Source Energy and your Point of Origin and of course that is everything that is appropriate for you in this current lifetime pattern. It is always, and also appropriate in other lifetime phases, but directly coming to you at this time, you are able to adjust your own individual frequency so that you can be immersed in the particular resonating level that is for you to bring into your current lifetime.

It is important for you to realise that you are doing this for you. You are doing it in cooperation with the higher aspect of yourself stationed here in this Station. This allows you a more accurate and clear connection, when you realise there is the higher aspect of you present in this Station, always has been, all throughout all of your lifetime systems and experiences. During the moments in your current life experience when you felt you were uplifted and suffused with light in any way, when you feel perfect in every way, you are fully in connection with your higher self aspect and everything that you are drawing to you from your Point of Origin.

In your visitations to the Station here, all of this is being reinforced in you and it allows the pathways in your particular energy systems and physicality systems to be strengthened to enable the absorption of this higher energy frequency.

Absorbing the higher energy frequency then allows you to spend more time in the Earth Light City Energy structure. That also serves to imprint in your energy system what you would be experiencing. In many times you might say this is future and at other times when you are feeling fully immersed in the energy, it is current, it is present, it is there.

You will understand this because as we are bringing these words to you, the energy within the words and around the words - infinite energy - is all that you are and you are present in this energy system of Creation for you.

You can utilise this to help you make decisions to help you make choices in your current life pattern. You can do this because you know it is part of you already. Your higher self is already assisting you in making those choices.

The enjoyment is for you to understand that and to allow the process to be part of your life now.

Moving you deeper into a communication chamber within the Station, we want you to observe there is a correction and sorting out within several timelines that are existing upon the planet at this time. Perhaps you observe some of the fighting that occurs and perhaps you would question why it continues, because it seems to be relative to the past and that is indeed a different timeline that is superimposed and enacting within the current timeline.

You also would be aware of areas where there is harmony amongst people, where there is support, where there is upliftment and joy. That is what is needed in the present awareness and configuration of the energy matrix of civilisation. To assist you to be within that, we are continuing the process of working with your energy matrix and as that is strengthened and aligned with the resonating frequency coming from Earth Light City, then this is the part you are naturally drawn into in these sessions.

You become suffused in the energy when you respond to the impulse to tune back into the sessions.

Then you can continue supporting yourself in your surroundings very easily, in ways that will flow when you draw to you the people who can assist you when it is needed, and it draws you to the people you can interact with in a positive connection. So, it is all coming from your alignment, your connection, to the Point of Origin.

As we are delivering these words to you within the energy, you will be sensing the energy changing around you and in this particular aspect, it is different layers which pertain to different items, to different aspects of the entire unit that is you. The layers being adjusted and receiving energy allow you to be perfectly in harmony with the frequency of the Earth Light City.

You are becoming familiar with working with energy systems in your own life pattern. Energy systems are those that support life and there are many of those, because you are a living organic type machine, or operating organism, then it is the energy systems of what you take into it that support you and around you from the environment. It is provided there, you see. It was established - the environment was established before you entered into the Earth system. The environment was established in connection with the elements of air and water, of light and earth.

During this change in energy frequency, many of these systems are being upgraded, even within the plant life and the mineral life. You will become aware of that with what you take into your body. Many of you will be seeing the structure that is what you take into your body. The vibration of it is important for you and necessary for the ongoing fulfillment of you, for the integration of the greater pattern for you. The greater pattern you are taking in also allows clearer communication with dimensions that are supporting the planet and you. We include this Station of Light in those dimensions that are supporting you.

Everything in creation around the Earth is being upgraded. This is as a result of a shift in the incoming flows of energy from beyond the planet that you are all being immersed in and there is also the involvement of what has been already established in the planet's system here, so this is part of what is being adjusted, even in your timeline, even in the energy matrix around the Earth - it is all overseen and assisted.

Many of you hold the thought, or have the thought, that there is improvement occurring, there is alignment with a better state of consciousness. As you do that, it is drawing that in around you and you receive that thought, or impulse, from the higher aspect of Self which is in a greater clearer communication to Source Energy. So you see the process that is involved? The process is likened to a mechanism because it involves one aspect changing, and another aspect changing and another one integrating it, and that is what we call the mechanism. Some of you will also be sensing that as the DNA mechanism - the energy DNA mechanism working precisely in accordance with aspects of Creation through different dimensions working.

This is bringing to you more energy and information which you are aware of in your core awareness - the core consciousness existing as you.

And this is the message for you at this time. Draw it completely into you, allowing it to work through all of your energy systems.

And thus it is done - and thus I bring your attention and your presence back into the receiving area of the Station.

These short immersions in the Station are making adjustments for you and these will be smooth for you, as you continue to work with the energy and information.

All is in order

Orem out “

Orem withdraws and I am back with you,

Lani speaking, filled with all of the impressions and experience involved in this session. In this out of time and Earth construct, there is a huge amount of existence that we each are experiencing.

It is an individual process of what you respond to. Many of you will be trying to identify it with logic and mental identification. I feel it is more than that. I feel it is the feeling, the joy, the enlightenment, that is the process.

Now it is time to bring all of this back into your body, so feel you are connecting the many layers of this light energy information system back into this present physical body that you have.

I would love to hear from you if you are feeling you are being rejuvenated or helped in any way. Just send me a thought perhaps, as you listen to this.

Together we are evolving and evolving the Earth Light City.

Now, do make sure you are fully connected and back in the present, in the present moment, as you listen to this, and we will continue with more transmissions and experiences.

Thank you at this time, and I close the Omega Portal.

Lani
