Date: February 22, 2018
Time 3 pm

I open the Omega Portal again and welcome you into my space, first of all the space created on the Earth plane and in our normal environment and then I welcome the light body aspect of you and call you forth to be with me as we gather in the receiving area of the Station of Light. Perhaps you feel yourself being drawn up within a flow of energy, just gently and easily feeling now that you are in that altered space already - a space where you have different perceptions and realisations may come more freely to you and the patterns within you that allow you to see images will be activating at this time.

There is much around your energy field which receives what is given to you in the presentation in the sessions and of course that is more than can be described with the words in the sessions. It is up to you to receive everything that you need at this time, allowing it to come to you.

I have done my part by bringing you into this space again, so I withdraw to allow the Beings within this Command Station of Light to come through, to address us all.

“Welcome to you, each and every one of you, Beloved. This is Ulea speaking to you again and as you open your perception and enter more deeply into this space, you will realise that you have come into a different level of your awareness here.

Perhaps you have been feeling that around you in your daily life, that you have taken a step forward, or you have moved into a different set of circumstances. The circumstances may be how you are feeling in yourself, how you are responding to the news of the day and the activities of the day.

It is our intention as we bring this to you, that you feel that you are relieved of some of the activities which create stress in you or around you in some form. That might be stress in a physical sense, or stress because you may have many things that you want to achieve - many matters to deal with, because you are busy. Now as you release all of that activity, you again will be responding to the energy field here which changes your sense of yourself being present here.

The way that you would perceive yourself as I bring this to your attention, is that you are Light. You are lighter than the normal physical body appears to be, because you are energy in the sense here. You have not yet come into this space in your actual physical denseness, so you now have realised the lightness of your energy form here. This immediately is resonating with all that is within this Station of Light and also the portal which allows you to enter into more of the inner spaces of creation.

In particular, of course, we are reinstating you into the Earth Light City at this time. We have meetings, gatherings, occurring in various spatial areas within the overall Earth Light City. Feel that you are being drawn into a gathering in this space. The gathering is not so much to listen to anybody or any Being addressing you, but it is for you to receive a pattern of energy for you. You could be sensing this that this would be a particular colour and the colour may be in some form that you would recognise.

The purpose of this is for you to receive another increment of coded energy and this in turn your light body energy is resonating with and you are able to, even in this consciousness state, to draw it into elements of your physical form.

It enters first into the thought patterns and the energy network of that which is all within your physical body form. In this way you are taking in the information.

There are various memory cells and activity cells which will understand what you are receiving and will use that pattern throughout you. This does not mean you are going to change dramatically to transform into some different type of being. What this does is to enhance the activities of the cells and all of the pathways within you, so you manifest a greater energy field which is resonating with the Earth Light City and the patterns you have been taking in here, you will be retaining because it is circulating throughout the physical form and following through with that information, you are bringing it into your life pattern. Your higher self aspect is completely in harmony with this and may already be producing different work phases and different elements of creation for you.

This is something which you can celebrate.

I am bringing you back out of that connection into the gathering in the Earth Light City, bringing you back into chambers within the Station of Light here.

There are strong connections at the moment to other planetoid stations, some of which are known to you, close to Earth in its synchronised orbiting in the placement where it is, and there is information and there are connections and communication that you would be sensing that is occurring. Many of the planetary bodies will be coming to your awareness as part of the communication link up occurring, and there is an analysis also occurring within you and this has been enabled through the connections and the energy sequence you received in the Earth Light City Station.

The Earth Light City is ready to connect in a more active way to many of those other planets and the Beings who are proceeding to connect into Earth Light City.

You may have been hearing about visitations coming to Earth from different civilisations and planets. You must be aware that some of those visitations will simply be entering within the Earth Light City and they will not be perceived in the ordinary state - the lower state of consciousness - that predominates on Earth as it is at present. It is when you raise your consciousness that you may perceive other Beings around you who are visiting, coming forth to experience the coordinated shift and the transformation occurring within the civilisations. The cross-over and the merging which takes place does draw many Beings into the experience of that, even as you have been drawn into that experience yourself. You are experiencing it and participating in the transformation of consciousness.

We take this time here again for adjustments, for alignment throughout you, because as you have been responding to the flows of energy, there are several patterns of alignment of certain conditions and flows of energy messages and energy chords which change position and this is the adjustment that we assist you with when you are exposed to the energy within the Station, so that you become stronger and you can absorb the energy as it changes. The preparation is vast and everything that it encompasses is quite expansive because it embraces many different concepts and layers for you. It is not something you can just analyse in your mind and you think you know it and understand it. Your entire energy systems need to absorb it, and to absorb it they need to be realigned, reconfigured and adjusted in many ways and that is happening each time you enter within this space again.

Many of you are visiting various landmarks which are known to be on the energy lines of the planet and to be active in connecting as gateways between dimensions and just higher energy focus stations.

Momentarily we would ask you to expand your awareness to embrace all of those avenues of connection, and we are with you and we are suffusing it all with a light frequency pattern.

It is a communication pattern and it is also serving as a filtration pattern, so that all that comes into your planet would be free of anything that would disturb the balance and might introduce a different pattern that is not beneficial to you as the human race as it is now. There are other ways to receive a higher, purer pattern, but there are Beings who would come through who are unaware that they bring in organisms or patterns that the Earth construct could not adapt to at this time. So, the communication in these avenues gives that information and it only allows what is helpful and needed here at this time.

You, yourselves, have experienced the process of receiving energy to purify you as you enter within the Station - and we remind you of that.

The experience of what we have given to you in this session is something for you to continue to experience and work with.

Now it is that I am bringing you back to the receiving area, so that you are prepared to transit back to your surroundings in the physical plane.

We have surrounded you in the field of light which again is supporting you at this time and I now withdraw from you

Ulea out

Thank you Ulea. This is Lani back again with you and my awareness is filled with the impression of those avenues she spoke about and the communication network and the filtration network in all of those ways that other Beings come into our planet, or attempt to come into our planet. I found that interesting. I also found it interesting when she spoke about some of the visitors who are coming from other areas will only be in the Earth Light City state. There are many different layers to be aware of in these dimensions, in these layers of consciousness - is it consciousness or dimension?

I am wanting now to call your attention back to be aware of your body of light. Momentarily again you may be aware of what you received when you were within the gathering in the City of Light, and if you were, then bring that back consciously, in your light body, back into your physical body today, right now, right into the present, and feel that your body takes it into you, in every way needed. Perhaps it is going to inspire you in some way, or refresh you, enlivening you in some way.

Be aware of your surroundings and the present time, the present moment, as I thank you again and all of the aspects of you for being present here and I acknowledge and thank all of the Beings involved in this session as I close the Omega Portal until we gather again.

Thank you

Lani
