Issue 905

Date: March 8, 2018

Time 2.30 pm

I have settled myself comfortably - have you - so that you can devote your full attention in this short session, this short time that we do this together as we move out of time and space, away from body, away from the physical environment.

Are you ready to be with me now, assembled in the receiving area space of the Station of Light? Here it is again you will feel that you are accompanied, and greeted by several different Beings here, and I also sense a lot of family members - or familiar members of the public or groups of people to you. The family might be wise counsellors, they might be your guides, they might be Beings who you identify with, even more than the flesh and blood family at the present lifetime you are in. What matters, of course, is the intention of everybody in this space to be receiving the ongoing flow of energy and information. That is always the purpose that these Beings have of drawing us into this assembly and bringing through patterns and codes introducing concepts or expanding on concepts. As you are ready now, and I am ready, I let myself go deeper in the deeper states where I can merge with and allow the Beings to merge with my consciousness, for them to address you.

“Again in this space we welcome you Dear One. Orem addressing you and we have established this space specifically so that you feel comfortable in it, so that we can observe you and assess you and describe more to you of what is happening to you and around you.

There are many places and people offering opportunities to meet with Beings from many different planets and to introduce you to different techniques and different dynamic structures - perhaps sound or colour - all designed to uplift you in some way. Some of the ways that are delivered to you may not be working. You may be feeling you have tried many different techniques and it hasn't worked. You still feel anchored on Earth, you still feel the same, you still feel difficulty in allowing the messages to come to you. That is because there needs to be continual adjustment in the aspects of you that receive and interpret. Everything is energy and vibrating at a different rate and even in this space as we are communicating with you verbally, many of you will be receiving it in a different form and your interpretation may be hearing words differently which are uttered as to what the intention is. You would be hearing different words, quite possibly, and those of you who may be reading the transcribed edition may also find that the words change, because you naturally draw to you the pattern that you will most respond to. The pattern is sounds or words.

We needed to give you this initially and in so doing, this will allow you to relax and enjoy what you are receiving. You do not need to be working hard in this space. What you do need to do is to let go of conscious thought patterns about what you may be receiving and to allow yourself to experience the rhythm and the flow within the words spoken.

You now will be experiencing different sensations throughout your light body here and you have accumulated layers of such energy and information and patterns, even in this initial space over your many visitations here.

As you continue to enter into this space, the layers change and move and the layers are able to be adjusted and create openings that you would identify as moving into another space, or moving through a portal of some form, allowing you to interpret in a different way in a different level. Also you will be experiencing yourself changing as you are here in your appearance, of what you consider to be yourself as perhaps the same human form that you inhabit on Earth, perhaps you feel you have transformed into a different type of body form and even beyond that, you may be just aware that you have an energy presence here, as a colour or a light.

So this sets the pattern for today. Today it is upon you to be analysed more deeply. The analysis is not judgemental. Judgements arise out of the human personality, The analysis is to assess the elevated levels around your body form here, so that it can be discerned what level is appropriate to present to you.

Most of you are open to accepting your response to the invitation given to you in this moment to enter within a vessel as you may perceive it to be, as if you are being drawn up into another Light Ship, and the Light Ship, or Vessel of Light, contains opportunities. Opportunities are such that we describe them to you for you to accept as possibilities which will enhance you in some way and which may allow you to travel or to meet a group of Beings who would want to explain more of the rhythms and patterns operating throughout different groups of planets and universes and the areas of consciousness which exist present in your awareness. Through your studies you will have come across different locations defined, or Beings defined, with whom you feel you could be safe in their presence and you might be receiving something very stimulating to you.

The opportunity may also be to perceive what is happening on planet Earth Station. You may be perceiving in this regard an opening which is apparent in the energy field around the Earth.

It is an opening that is not allowing anything to pour in, as if you had drilled a hole in the ground and you were waiting for it to filled with water. This opening is more like a channel running around or through a pattern of energy around your planet and this is activating some of those energy devices which have been referred to at other times which allow the radiating frequency to come out to touch people, to touch them in the very core energy pattern of each. In this way you may feel you are being caught up in a beam, or a ray, of energy. That is a symbol of how it is and it is all about connecting you to your core energy essence and when you go very deeply into that, you find there is a pattern within you in which you feel complete and you may feel you have been there all along - you have had it all along - this blueprint for you. The blueprint is for that human you, not the subhuman you - the human form that brings in all of the collective information from your origination state of existence.

Yes, you will be realising this is significant now that you have connected into that pattern again in this way, because you will now be feeling you are actively participating in sharing the state of consciousness which is restorative of the original intention. Yes, we have brought this to you in previous transmissions. It is presented to you again today in its fuller aspect because you have been cleared of many of the resistances that would have distorted the clarity of this connection. There is always the correct analysis and when the analysis correctly assesses the state of your energy systems, then you are drawn into this deeper connection.

It will be shifting you - the perceptions you have as you being the human vessel - and therefore the shifting perceptions allows you to correctly modulate what you bring through to other people, because you are doing it from the higher aspect of your origination station existence - from when you perceived the need that you could fulfil in the situation on the planet as it is now in its process of change and evolvment, and of course it will change as more people awaken individually and reconnect.

Opportunities, you see. This is the opportunity presented to you, as you moved into this space. It unfolds around you and this will continue to unfold through you and around you, even after this transmission has finished. Therefore, you are participating in the upliftment and transformation.

In this state also, the Beings who are around you connected with you through your joy, your gratitude, the love that you share. This transports you again into an altered level of awareness - consciousness.

Experience this.

There are patterns of expression. Some of those patterns you would use words you are familiar with but behind the patterns of the words is the true pattern which may not be defined in your language and this is what you need to be drawing in.

Now as we assess you, we see that you have incorporated this pattern and we are drawing you back as a group, gathered together as a group, into the initial receiving space again. We shepherd you back into this space and because you would have enjoyed the experience of the depth of that connection, we need to ensure that you do not stay there at this point of your evolvment because you are needed to bring this energy into you on Earth so it flows out around you. This is the joy of what you are participating in - to be able to share it.

This has been the purpose of gathering you into this space today, Beloved, and therefore I withdraw

Orem out

“Thank you Orem. Ulea with you here for you to recognise the pattern of my presence with you and for you also to allow that pattern to come into you as you are present here in this receiving area and you will be feeling more again of the normal human vessel that you have.

You have experienced the original blueprint, collectively for the healthy human form and individually as you. This is what you will be now preparing to consciously bring back into your physical form, where you are receiving this. I am present with you, wherever you are, and presently I am adjusting some aspects of the energy matrix both around your form and within it. I am able to perceive on those multi layers and now I am satisfied that you have actively engaged in that energy. You have been filled up again, you have been refuelled with the energy and you have had the added energy gained through the depth of your connection.

I, in turn, withdraw now

Ulea out

This is Lani speaking to you again and so it is time for me to make sure you are fully connected, grounded, back into your body form. Perhaps you see your body form differently now, because you have identified with that core energy essence of you, seeing it in a different way and it will have given you more sense of why you are here on Earth. That is wonderful!

Now I acknowledge all of the Beings involved in this session, on the Earth plane and the deeper levels of existence of other dimensions and I want you please to focus fully in the present, being aware of where you are and the present time. As you do that I close the Omega Portal today.

Thank you

Lani
