Issue 906

Date: March 15, 2018

Time 1.30 pm

Today I am with you and welcome you again into this space, as I open the Omega Portal for this transmission.

Come with me, with the intention of receiving everything that is appropriate for you to receive today. Everything that may be important for you, or for others around you, or for Earth.

So, let's raise our awareness and feel that we are being raised up, to gather within the receiving area of this Station of Light.

We have always begun in this way, it has established a pathway and it is easy to travel a pathway that you know. You may be lifted up into this area of the Station at other times individually, but today, as always, it is important to be with the group and to be with the Beings who come forward, and now it is that I will withdraw, altering my awareness and level of consciousness state to allow this session to begin.

"Greetings to you, each and every one of you. We are with you at this time. Orem addressing you and those of us with me who implement these sessions and who oversee your progress and who help cleanse your energy as you come into this space - all of us here are working to divide you into particular stations and groups. The groups are all involved in different aspects of the process which Earth is engaged in currently and the process that you are receiving individually through aspects of your own consciousness and through the channels of light and energy and information coming to you.

Each of you have specific channels that you identify with and these channels are not of Earth construction, they are energy channels within your own consciousness field and they are within the aspect of your individuality presently enacting what you are receiving and doing on planet Earth currently. So, you are all in the process of engaging streams of energy - channels of energy - for you. We are assisting you here in this transmission so that you may perceive on a greater understanding level the occurrence of the presence of the channels of light and the purpose of them.

You do receive enhancements and you do engage the rays of energy coming forth from central sun. These are important in different levels for each of you. Mostly, of course, they give you a certain energy pattern for renewal of the codes to maintain health within the body. The blueprint of the human form element requires the exposure to the certain frequencies emitted from central sun. You are designed for that. The bodies and the creatures existing on planet Earth currently are designed to receive the light from central sun and the light is interpreted and integrated into different aspects of you.

Also at this time there is a newer energy wave coming in and the purpose of this is to expand the energy receivers which have been mentioned to you previously, within the Earth's gravitational field and within pockets of the earth itself and within pockets of energy around the planet's surface.

Within the pockets of energy they may not be clearly visible yet to most individuals, but there will be the sense of a different flow and energy matrix in certain areas. You do not need to identify these so that you madly go around the planet trying to be on these spots, because you are receiving the energy that you need individually at this time.

The energy also is awakening to many of you a different time frame - a different element of time. By this we are referring to aspects of you that are waiting for the connection of certain coded frequencies, which are coming to you currently, in the short phase ahead of you. Already you have been prepared for this and you are ready to accept those rays. Not every one will understand this, or be in an attitude which allows them to perceive the energy or to receive the energy. By your allowance, your conscious allowance, to receive yourself the energy, you will do so. Even though it is available to everybody, it is individual choice. Individual choice is dependent on the energy field, the energy structure of individuals.

This is also going to implement another way of energy to be used for - you would call it powering of technology and instruments and the concept of this is already implanted in the energy field of many of you. So, you will be aware of new concepts coming through - out of time - from beyond the limits of time.

There is the view that it takes time to bring in new elements, even of thought and to change the current thought patterns. That is a limitation that is imposed through the conditioning field operating around planet Earth. It does not need to be adhered to. When you gather in times of this when you are out of time, you are receiving all of these concepts.

This is the initial purpose of this transmission today - to be immersed in that and to have some information given to you regarding these flows of energy being received.

You have received these constantly over many of your generations and even over your current journey of life experience.

You may have been aware at times of a shift in perspective you have had, and that is to do with how you integrated the waves of light energy and the codes contained in those.

So, as you were gathered into different groups to receive this, now we draw you all together again, moving through the portal to be in that dimension and existence of the Earth Light City. Already many of you present here will be understanding the change that is occurring in the Earth Light City as a result of receiving these waves and frequency. In this state we speak about it as having already been received and having already passed around the planet and moved into a different dimensional existence, to effect the change in other time frames and existences. You therefore are receiving it in your present life journey and physicality and you also are aware it has been received in the Earth Light City.

Do you also perceive the population existing here. Many of you may be aware of the groups working, exchanging energy. In the exchange of energy, you will be feeling the response automatically in your presence here and you will be observing that same response within others whom you are perceiving and communicating with at this time.

We continually expose you to this energy field and information. In that way, it settles within you. Having received it consciously, you are more able to interpret the methods that might be given to you by other people on Earth to receive the energy and in interpreting that, you may also perceive what their intention is, because you have already received the energy, without any particular posture or chant. You simply presented yourself into the energy stream.

You will be feeling the shift within you, as you receive this in the Earth Light City sense, and do you sense that you are assisting to expand this and to strengthen it? Also observe the ones who are coming into your awareness who are just presented here for a short time and then they withdraw back.

This can occur in times when those ones are tuning into Energy Source, who are consciously being grateful for the joy they are feeling, and who are responding to joy as it is presented through that word so you understand it. The pattern of the energy of how that word is spoken and presented is what you respond to.

Come back now to gather with us in the chamber with the Council of Light. There is great agreement in here amongst the Council presence that the civilisation is clearly being established and there is a correction of the imbalance that had been taking place to do with the construction of certain ways to disturb people, but through the ongoing efforts to work with the higher field of energy and manifest that energy, the balance is being restored and you all will be responding - harmonising yourself - resonating with the energy frequency that brings forth new elements to manifest to assist the civilisation unfolding. Focus on this during your days and you may perceive ideas of how this new form of energy can manifest to assist in the daily processes. Those of you who have worked in this way will remember that you were using energy and you are getting reminders of that in different ways recently and this will continue, so you feel it is real - that it is a pattern that exists now within you and around you, and it makes it easier to exist within the Earth Light City civilisation.

Continuing now, we are bringing you back into the receiving area of the Station. The words may be few, but the energy with the words expands through you and around you and is assisting many other people who are ready for change. Many are talking about change and different ways to initiate change, feeling it in their own way. You are feeling it now.

In seeing this pattern merge into your light body status here, we now withdraw from you. This will continue. Be aware of it - indeed.

Orem out “

“Thank you Orem. Lani speaking to you again.

Did you feel that different pattern of light come into your body of light here in this receiving area? I experienced it even while the words were being uttered through me.

Bring your senses - your awareness - back now, from the Station of Light, back to your physicality. It is always important to do this - to bring all of the information and energy, the change, the shifting that occurs - bringing it all back into your space where you exist within the lifeform of you. This is your life. It is important, this current life.

I do trust that you feel expanded and clear through the energy received in this session, and as I close the portal on this transmission, I ask you to be fully conscious, fully present in the current time, and day, and place.

I enjoy sharing this, in this way, with you.

Thank you

Lani
