Time 4 pm

Hello, as I open the Omega Portal again for this new transmission. Are you enjoying the different energy coming through these transmissions, these visitations to the Station of Light and the energy that the planet is surrounded in at the present time coming through the sun? Are you enjoying the expansion of your consciousness? All of these are dependant on your intention and allowance of yourself to receive the energy.

With this in mind now I call you forth to be with me in the receiving area of the Station of Light. Sometimes it seems that time stands still when we are in these altered states of consciousness and at other times it seems time speeds up and we experience that sensation of knowing that we are enveloped in a greater state of awareness and yet we can still be aware of the physical surroundings. This demonstrates the many layers of consciousness that you exist in. Today, as usual, I have no sense of what we will be receiving through the Beings here in the Station. I do know that it is all interesting and helpful and it is time now for me to withdraw to allow this new energy transmission to come to you.

“We have settled you all into a balanced state of awareness, Beloved. Orem addressing you and it is in this state that you are more able to be refreshed and to understand the concepts of what you experience, and to also travel beyond any known limit of your consciousness field and perhaps even to release any aspects that might limit you, such as doubt or concern about what this all about and concern that you might be changed by the energy field.

You are here because you chose to expand and to restore a level of consciousness and activity, responsiveness to the flows coming in around you, and much more. This is why you are drawn into receiving each transmission, in whatever way you allow that to be.

It may be a few words that you hear. It may be a resonating energy effect that you experience. It may be that you communicate with a Being in this state who gives you something specific. Everything that is appropriate for you to receive will come through as you allow it to be, in this state.

Of course this introduction prepares you and the channels that are necessary for you to receive then come into alignment and openness. We perceive this as we observe your energy field here, as your light body in all of its energy systems and what you resonate with, and therefore we do perceive the elements required for you and these you are already drawing into your light body even as these words are given to you --- these energy aspects are vibrating in different frequencies through the sound of the voice, the pattern of the words and what is around the words, as we have given to you many times in explanation.

Now we perceive that there is an element of change affecting many of you at this time. Location, upliftment, change in how you perceive what is occurring in the environment around you. The change you are perceiving in relationship to the energy patterns that you understand exist will be revealing the fields of light in all of the environment around you, and the light can be measured as density or very high frequency. Many of those measurements may not be perceived by you yet and you may just be sensing what is happening. In this way and in this time, we would ask you to focus on the shifting energy you experience in the session and allow to drop away from your thoughts, patterns that you have read about.

Your individual progress is determined by your connection to the flows of energy and the information which is contained in the flows of energy. That is unique to you because you have a particular pattern that you are designed to receive and to bring into the Earth pattern. This is separate from what we refer to as the blueprint for the healthy human organism. This is a pattern that relates to your purpose and for your purpose to be fully integrated into you currently and for you to express outwardly, then the amount of energy that you take in to reinstate the whole blueprint for the human body is linked with everything you experience and what you can absorb and radiate out. It is all part of the resonating field that you are engaging in during these sessions and during your personal attunement to your point of origin.

At this stage again we would bring you to experience what is known as the edge of your consciousness field. This is separate to what you may be experiencing, or expect to be experiencing in the transmission, and perhaps in the experience in the Earth Light City. Taking you to this edge of your consciousness field allows you to engage the individual pattern of rays coming through the centre of the present galaxy you are in, and more than that, it allows you to experience the unified field of energy before it connects into creation of matter. So, here in this state, you are experiencing existence and a state of pre-existence. You are capable of being immersed in this and you are experiencing this --- out of time --- in your presence.

You automatically absorb what is available to you in that state for you to bring in consciously through your point of origin.

We do it in this way through the platform of the point of origin which is already inter-linked with your consciousness field as you are in the present phase.

That filters what you have received and transforms it into ways that you can identify. For many of you, firstly it does relate to fulfilling aspects of the human blueprint for health and then ongoing, as we explained, it comes in for your purpose.

You may be experiencing the joy and harmony of this, because it is a balanced existence. Out of balance will come action, inspiration for the action and the energy for the action. There is no need to engage a thought pattern about this. It will come through in natural impulses, ideas and concepts. Your higher self consciousness already is preparing you for the next element of your life here.

At this point in the session, perceive assistance around you - communication states around you - through other Beings and perhaps through memory devices and energy devices that are available to you here, all of which is stored, accumulated from what you have been receiving in these sessions. This could be coming to you in a visual way, as if you are passing through a stream of ideas or places or patterns and meetings with people and being in the presence of the Councils engaged in this process.

We understand to the human personality it is vague. If we give definition, then that is defining something into a specific placement within your rational thinking. What we are bringing to you is an ongoing expansion and it is for your individuality aspect to identify the aspects needed for you, so this is why it may seem vague in comparison with other bringers forth of information prepared. It is the overall layer of consciousness and your energy field that we observe and work with.

Consciousness. Intention. Sensory perception. This is all part of who and what you are in your evolvment and is also how you were experiencing conscious living in your origination station.

It is all about that reconnection and reactivation in you and this moves through your timeline, your current focused timeline here. At the same moment it may also be moving through parallel existences. Your focus is in this existence, but perhaps holding the intention that all of the aspects of you are receiving it and working in the overall expansion of Earth station and the Earth Light City and beyond that, the existence of all known elements.

All known elements could include planetary systems and it can also include what is available on the planet at the present time, what has evolved through minerals and plant life. This is an aspect for you to consider and how all of that is assisting you and how you can assist all of that, including the element of water and what is conveyed to you through water, through light.

All of this is known to you and in presenting it to you in this way, you are experiencing it in many different layers of you. You are enfolded in this presentation and the enfoldment also restores you to the receiving area pattern, in this Light Station.

Again, we would give you the reminder that you are progressing well. We are observing this. It is why we are with you and bring you into this Station.

I now withdraw from this aspect of the transmission

Orem out “

Again I thank you Commander Orem, and again this is Lani addressing you, even though you may be perceiving with me Ulea, because she is here, and she has the expression of kindness and love for every one of us here. It is a great knowingness that she has and her presence and knowingness is what we label love, and joy, acceptance - many of those beautiful expressions that we love to hear and feel. It is natural. It is just part of who she is, what her energy is.

Together, we are helping you now to connect back into your physicality in the surroundings. There are many people who feel that they can remain in an altered state during their daily activities, but this is not what you were designed to be as you work in your physicality. Your intention and your focus should be in what is around you and it is your higher self aspect that brings in the higher energy and functions on that other level of reality. To many of us that is like a dream-like reality. It is the altered state of consciousness often referred to as alpha state where we see symbols and visions and dreams. All of that is accessible but you have to retain the awareness of being grounded and bringing that energy in through you into the Earth and thus you are connected with all of the energy grid within the Earth and around the Earth and that allows for the greatest flow of your expanded consciousness to go out from you, touching others.

So, this is what we leave with you today with this transmission, as I close the Omega Portal, with thanks to Ulea, Commander Orem and all of the Light Beings who were present in this session, and of course to you receiving this energy information.

Thank you

Lani
