Issue 908

Date: March 29, 2018

Time 5 pm

I open the Omega Portal - this space created to bring through an energy - a frequency - a pattern - that is familiar to all of us as we expand our consciousness, because it is a known frequency, a vibration, something that we resonate with, and that is why you are receiving this transmission today,

It can be as if you have been called, drawn to this space, so let us regard it as that, as a very special space in which we can gather with other like-minded Beings for the purpose of greater enlivenment, enlightenment and to receive whatever is appropriate for us, as we continue the expansion of consciousness individually. Therefore, come with me as I gather us all together to be in the receiving area of the Station of Light. This familiar space seems to expand and draw us in together and my sense personally is that I feel I am standing taller and responding to an energy that is very refreshing here. Perhaps you feel it in a different way. Whatever it is that you respond to, you will notice it is here, so let's just relax and enjoy this session, putting aside from you everything you have been experiencing today, even if they have been very joyful experiences, and that allows you to be open to be refreshed in the incoming supportive frequency.

“Greetings to you, Beloved, here. This is Ulea speaking to you, and indeed were you inspired and uplifted by the opening remarks and energy?”

We do indeed infuse you with that type of energy, so that you are alert and you expect to be in a higher field indeed, and it is not that you have to concentrate, but it is that there is a concentration of the energy sphere here around you, which you perceive. This aligns you again in a very particular manner to the frequency, the pattern of which comes into the Earth planet continuously, but at times there are different wavelengths, and so the intensity is perceived. All of this is available to you in this receiving area of the Station, available to you in such a way that you can understand it and that you take the time to be immersed within it. It can be used to infuse your energy field here with a particular frequency that enables you to discard outdated and older patterns from your energy field. This can be taken as deeply as you wish it to be, deeply into your emotional states, into your thought patterns and indeed therefore into the physicality part of you, that you recognise as a solid body.

It is dependent on your intention and allowance, and this we have given to you over many different sessions.

With you receiving this, perhaps you will visualise that you can step aside from what you bring in that surrounds you as your physical form. Just leave it aside and emerge fully into the presence of yourself here as a conscious Being in the appearance of a light body. Perceive your light body now with different colours. The colours are responding to the intensity of the energy coming through to you. The details can be quite specific relating to different parts of your organism and your energy field and the specific details are also part of your personal journey and expansion and purpose, which is why it is not defined.

Receive all of this, and you receive it in moments, in the instant that it is described to you, and this makes you free and able to perceive how you are drawn into different aspects of the Station here.

We are pleased to present to you as part of the presence of the Station of Light, the immersion into different fields that are active within different spatial areas of planet Earth, so in this session in particular, you are being taken into experience inner spaces within the planetary dimensions as such. Yes, described as being beneath the Earth's surface.

The Earth's surface is perceived as an energy layer and at times you are permitted to move through that layer, as if it opens, and it is only when you are clear enough to understand that this is an experience for you to participate in, without fear, without judgement, then you are permitted to enter into different spaces. Yes, indeed you may perceive that you are going into the Earth through different devices. Some of you would instantly be within certain civilisations existing - under the water - within caverns - and even within a vast open area in which you might see it as a reflection of what is around you on the surface in the natural landscape.

The purpose in presenting this to you is for you to understand the different dimensions that exist as part of planet Earth as it is known and will be known. In entering into such dimensions as you are in this aspect of consciousness as a light being, you are connecting in with different layers of communication and creation. Experience the visions and sensations here.

Also as part of the purpose of bringing you into this particular experience it is for you to absorb in your body of light the elements that are contained within this planetary station and within it like this, the elements are different to what is available to you above the surface. There is a natural filtration pattern existing as you are immersed in this inner experience, so, again in this way, you could perceive it as cleansing and clearing.

Also, it will be clearing away some concepts that many of you may have been believing that there is something wrong with the structure of planet Earth.

When you sense what is around you here in the light energy frequency, there is no sense of disorder, but it is simply a different state of existence. When there is the adjustment and existence in the Earth Light City, then there will be a difference perceived in this inner Earth pattern.

We are just presenting to you many different dimensions that exist all around you in your current time phase and this is part of expanding your consciousness. There is also the depth of greater linkage and communication you would be experiencing, wherever you perceive yourself to be within the Earth and this also is part of the phase required for you as it unfolds and expands in your daily life pattern as you bring forth all of the greater aspects of consciousness that you are.

Everything that you experience is assisting everything that is around you. We bring you into experiences of expansion, of upliftment, of joy, of expression of energy that restores the pattern for the whole blueprint for you and as you are restored to that, you are restoring much that is around you.

So, we bring you back, withdrawing you from those spaces that you have been experiencing and we are bringing you back into a central chamber here within the Earth Station in which you are surrounded by plant life, by the kingdom which provides superior nutrition to you through vital essences, through the vibration of what is growing around you in this space in this Station. Of course, everything here surrounding you is all edible, or you can take in the imprint of it, the message of it and the energy of it, which is all coming forward to envelop you in the specific elements needed that are provided by this vegetation - and we are using your terms so that you can appreciate and acknowledge it.

The difference between what is surrounding you here in the Station and what is growing around you in your gardens and what you take in that has been grown and produced commercially in the markets, is that in this light Station it is all infused with a pure element necessary for you and for the energy DNA of you.

There is a lot that you take in, in your daily food which does support the physical DNA, now when you realise that there is this higher aspect of the vegetation infused with the pattern for the energy DNA which is all part of your whole blueprint, you will be experiencing the shift and the exchange of information from the higher light pattern coming in matching the energy signature of what you take in physically.

There is increased emphasis of course on growing methods and how it can be enhanced to nourish a greater number of people around your planet and all sorts of methods involved in that. With your intention of drawing in the Light Pattern, you are helping the evolution of all of the ways of providing food in the best and holistic ways. You are becoming much more involved in the co-creation of a higher established form of existence.

All of this you will be responding to. We see it engaged in your light body here and of course, remember that the light body is inherent in the existence of your physicality on Earth. It is a higher aspect.

Now, keeping all of this in your awareness, I am bringing you back now to the initial receiving area of the Station. The sphere of this area has drawn around you to isolate you again from what you experienced deeply. It is a method that we use in these sessions to ensure that you maintain the memory of what is given to you and you bring it all back through your light body into the different aspects of you existing. In that way you are important, your presence is important, your existence is necessary as part of the overall changing pattern on Earth planet.

This has been what was needed for you to experience at this time and I withdraw at this moment, disengaging momentarily from your energy, which allows you to become more aware that you do have your physical presence on the Earth, wherever you are living and travelling.

I appreciate everything which you are and your presence

Ulea out “

Thank you Ulea, Lani back again and it is my role again to bring your focus back to my voice, my personality and myself as a Being on Earth with you and to disengage you from everything here and to bring you back to be fully present in your body. Come back gently, gently merging again with all of your body, feeling the energy of it stretching out through your arms and your feet, stretching your spine, standing taller and feeling great with all of this energy you experienced.

It seemed to be a special time of infusion. Does that coincide with what we are experiencing at this time with the phase of the moon, phases of energy coming through the sun, what we may be following certain religious ways we call Easter and Easter goes back to ancient ceremonies as well. It is all engaged in our consciousness, so whatever way you may celebrate this time, I am with you as we celebrate this beautiful energy we experienced in this transmission. Lock it into place within you. Feel the dimensional shift and change and be aware of what you are creating as part of that change. It is as if we could be engaging a different gear to move into a different power. It is all wonderful!

Again, make sure you are fully aware of where you are, fully present in your surroundings and the time.

Thanks again for being part of this creation that we are working in together.

I close the Omega Portal as this transmission is complete.

Lani
