Time 2.30 pm

Hello again. In opening the Omega Portal today, I am very much aware of a high energy around me, as if suddenly, in linking with Commander Orem and the Station of Light, I have walked into another space. Different energy - Light - and perhaps this is part of what existing in the Earth crystalline city of light is like. That energy is drawing us in, so are you ready to come with me into this next transmission today, coming in with me into the receiving area of the Station.

The expectation is that we will be receiving a flow of energy and information and we would be expecting to receive something new, or some more detail. What would you be expecting to receive, because it does depend on everyone of us as to what will be coming through. There might be something particular for you to know in your life presently, or it might be on a wider scale. It is up to what you resonate with and will draw toward you.

Allow this time for you to receive and experience and to participate in whatever is required within this Station and grouping of Beings today.

“Orem speaking with you again and I come forward, welcoming you into this space.

We are always prepared for you, but at these times when you are gathered together as a group, there is a difference in the information which comes through. It is a little likened to listening to a professional speaker at some time through radio and then going into a vast auditorium to hear that speaker again. The atmosphere changes, The combination of the gathering of energy beings together changes what comes through and you are receiving through your particular energy field. Therefore, in this space as you gather during these transmissions together, you are receiving a different vibration which is encompassing you all and it is brought to you by those of us in the Station and by you all who have gathered together at this time, drawn in together. This energy will remain here, so the next time you listen to the transmission, you step right back into the gathering, although it will differ, because you will be receiving a different aspect of the stream, of the flow, of energy information. That is how it works.

If you go back to an earlier transmission, much of that will be the same, but the energy flow will have changed and you will react to that in a different way.

So, here we begin at this time, moving around you, repositioning you in accordance with the frequency pattern that you respond to. Even in this receiving area space, there are different aspects to it, so you are naturally drawn to be within the area that you respond to. In a similar way, if you go into a vast area, you choose a particular spot to stand in, or a particular seat to sit in, and that is your knowingness of the vibration which you will interact with in that particular location, that draws you to that location. This is the greater knowing that is inherent within you.

As we continue with the transmission here, we are drawing you deeper into a a different area again within the Station, which allows you the opportunity to participate in a much deeper experience for you at this time. In particular we use that word “deeper” because the energy is penetrating deeply under the crust, the surface, of the planet at this time, moving into areas where there has been disturbances which you know about, and allowing the interchange of energy to happen. Arising from the release of matter which is coming up through layers under the surface will become the revelation to most people of a change in the atmosphere. We do not refer to changes in gaseous componentry within the air, or other matter which might be existing in the atmosphere, we are referring to an energy which is released, just as an energy. Using your perception you may see a change in colour, with the energy processing being revealed and drawn up out of the air. This is responding to what is coming through from central sun area, which affects the magnetic flows within the planet and the higher intensity frequencies surrounding the planet in a field which is apparent as you perceive the changes in the flows of energy.

At times this may be perceived if there is sufficient moisture in the air to reflect and refract the colours, just as it is apparent when you perceive what you call your rainbows, the effect is that the colours become apparent as they are channelled through moisture patterns in the air. The colours that will be apparent from the rays around the planet will be different, in a different formation to how you perceive the colours in the rainbow, and a variation in the colours themselves. There may be different patterns that you will perceive.

Aside from that, we now continue your placement to experience energy within the Earth Light City. The crystalline light vibration in here is again being integrated within your light body and as that happens, further adjustments occur to different processes which relate to the health and maintenance and cleansing of the energy systems of your physical form. There is much yet to be decided as to what is appropriate to be revealed to you in regard to the changes taking place in the physical form.

You are all well aware of the vibration of the food you take into you to nourish your body or for other purposes, so take advantage of this time when you are present within this city of light space to absorb what is available to you here. You are combining the new unfoldment with what you have already integrated and resulting from this there will be many of you remembering other aspects that you have experienced life as, and drawn these into you, for the ones you will be remembering are of a vibration that you may draw upon to assist the process of upliftment of all that is around you. Therefore, you are gathering energy and information as you are present here in this dimension.

You may also have been considering information you have been receiving which occurs as different timelines connect or intersect in different flows and for some of you, this has been a time when you have been experiencing a different set of emotions and disturbances generally throughout you. Presenting you into this existence here is another opportunity for you to clear the disturbances from you. We do not need to do this. We have brought you into this space where you do this for yourself.

Some of the timelines also have been giving you instruction and giving you a sense of buoyancy because you are remembering how you used to use energy to displace aspects or pockets or matter which did not suit the new set of circumstances and you will be remembering how you used the energy to change, to transform, matter that may have been of a disturbance. It is easy for you to do this in this space here and as you remember it, it will be easy for you to certainly do that again in your current existence and timeline. Draw into you now in this space, the higher aspects that you can use. It is not a verbal instruction and yet you know it and you sense it. You sense what is changing in you. You may be sensing an aspect that you are becoming as you increase your vibration to match the higher aspects that would be able to exist in this Earth light city dimension. As you continue with this, there will be a time where you will feel fulfilled completely and at that time you will have greater opportunities to assist more people around you, giving them information, sharing the energy field that you have become.

This is all indicative of your presence here in the crystalline Earth city of light, so at this time I bring you back from that space into a gathering again where you will be meeting up again with some of the Beings who have made themselves known to you through these transmissions. You may be seeing different Light Beings here. They will be coming forward at the appropriate time to assist you, perhaps to give messages in this way. At this time there is assessment to see the compatibility of your energy field with those who would wish to work through you and this is happening indeed for this vessel who is bringing this information to you and indeed it is available to you. Many times there is great communication occurring with you, but at times you are not receiving that. You have not consciously attuned to that pathway of communication and linkage. It is available for you when you seek particular assistance or explanation.

We do not speak as an individual guide to you, but we do give information that will appear to guide you, because as you understand the energy, then it opens up pathways for you. Ideas will come to you. Impulses to act will come to you so in that way you are receiving direct assistance and then it is up to you to choose to follow and accept what you perceive.

We would again, as we bring you out of this and back to the receiving area, ask you to project yourself onto the planet surface, remembering that you have experienced yourself the dimension in which the Earth Light City exists. What you are doing is bringing that energy into current Earth time dimension. This will assist everyone around you and yourself - and that was all that was needed so now your attention is back with me in the receiving area of the Station.

We understand that these may seem small steps to you.

In observing your energy field, there is big adjustment and change and this is because it should be easy and simple for you.

This is all that is available to you at this time, Beloved

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. This is Lani. I feel as if we are enveloped in a silky smooth energy. Do you feel that too? Do you feel it as if it is golden energy flowing through you and over you? That is what I am sensing. Maybe that is just what I need at this time, but perhaps it is also what you need and my sense is that this particular energy includes a wide scale of frequency, of different intensities, and that must be designed for us as creatures on the planet at this time. That is why it is coming through like this.

I feel we could draw it out of the atmosphere - from above, beyond, our Earth's atmosphere from a higher level but something that filters in perfectly, because you are the perfect vessel for that, and how else can it come through and be grounded, but through the Earth Beings - the vessels - here on Earth and used in various ways. Beautiful Light Energy.

Okay, now it is time for us to bring this fully back into our bodies. Bring it right down through you. You may experience different parts of you fitting in smoothly again into the body, better than it was before we started this transmission journey. I leave this with you today and close this portal for this transmission. Remember that the more you listen to the transmissions, the more you will experience energy shifts and you will adjust to the higher energy frequency and that allows more to come through.

I really am enjoying the flow with you. ☺

Thank you - Lani
