Time 4.30 pm

Once again I open the Omega Communications Portal to link with you and to bring you into meeting and gathering again in the receiving area of the Station of Light. The frequency of this is already known to you. The frequency of the Station is already known to all of the population on the planet, because we were all born into the current civilisation and the presence of the Station, with its energy was already there, so it is already familiar to us all. Do you feel that familiarity when I gather you into the receiving area of this space? It is as if here you can lay aside everything of your life, of yourself, concerns, any discomforts, everything and you just are here in your energy sense. Your energy senses of course include all of your awareness, and you will be observing and perhaps mentally taking notes - trying to remember - but do remember if you doubt then your experience will not be as deep as when you allow yourself to be present here and experience the transmission.

This is all the preparation you need to simply be present here in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

“Ulea coming forward to you here Dear Ones and I am permitted to speak to you directly, to move about you and to touch you and I do appreciate your presence and acknowledge that you are prepared to visit this Station and you are prepared to be open to exploring the other dimensions that are available to you here. It is easier to explore those dimensions here, because you have already released the confines of the body and the Earth mentality to be here.

Thus we can begin by overseeing you as you assemble into different vibration groups. The vibration of the different groups is what you are drawn into immediately into this space. It is not a separation or perhaps identifying with a particular leader or spokesperson. It is simply that when you are drawn into a resonating frequency with other Beings you are more open to receive the direct communication which can come to you, even beyond the words we address you initially in this space with.

One of the purposes of being here is to integrate into your senses what you are perceiving here and in this state you are also presented into areas where there is a different life pattern happening, because there are a different set of inter spatial coordinates evident in the various relativity groups that you are in and that relates to your individual experience and what you are needing to receive. You may need to receive specific energy in the way of information or assistance, clarification maybe of things you are talking about, and you may also be needing to receive a further set of energy patterns that you can integrate into you which allows you to move beyond the Station and to actively participate in bringing patterns of light, energy and information into the physical body and the physical world you are living in. Multi-dimensional aspects of your presence are always applicable here.

So, in many respects, what you receive in the Station is general. Your interpretation of it is specific to you. when you individually interpret what is given to you and what you experience, then you know it to be all that is appropriate and is also very particular in its introduction to you. Even if you experience this as flows of coloured energy or light coming around you and through you, you still are able to discern what is applicable for you and that which you will allow to flow past you, perhaps into another time space where you are existing and it may be relevant in that reality.

Being present here for this presentation is giving to you groupings in the sense of energy patterns. The energy patterns do represent communication into other areas in the greater open universe aspect. This is introduced to you frequently because you need to be able to receive the communication. As you evolve you begin to see more around you and to receive more around you, but as you begin the journey, there may be simply no awareness in you of anything else present, because you have not adapted yourself to the energy frequency.

It is appropriate now to bring you deeper into the central communication area in the Station and there are many spheres of communication here, so you are all being drawn into one central sphere of communication. Already, many of you are responding to familiar patterns here and you are remembering some information which originally you were to bring into the life pattern you are existing in presently. The information could not come through in terms of remembered knowledge until you were sufficiently energised, which means your energy field was vibrating in a way that you could recognise the information that you were to bring in with you.

That information is not such that you would see it written down and could read it anywhere. It is assembled in different coded frequencies which come through in inter-linking chains and there is the appropriate point where those energy chains become apparent to you and when you are ready to absorb that information, it comes to you. It will come to you in your internal alignment to the higher aspects of creation, or it may come to you through another Being who is of that higher aspect of Creation and can speak to you. Again, because of your individual frequency pattern, it is not more defined than this.

It becomes relevant to you as you are moving into that energy field which is expanding the Earth's energy field and which is being drawn out beyond where it has existed. In time you will find that some of your scientists will be measuring this and recording this. You also have been extending your energy field that is consciousness and thus you are able to link in completely with the unfolding energy mechanisms within this overall sequence.

Already you will be feeling that you are receiving something which goes beyond these words spoken to you and in particular some of the information will be moving deeply into the energy pattern of your physical body. Here again, individual cellular activity is needed to be enhanced so that you can interpret what is being given. Some of what is being given to you is not consciously part of your environmental learning and civilisation learning and teachings. Therefore, it is appearing to be something unknown to you previously. How do you feel about that? If you can allow yourself to experience what is being referred to, then you will find that you are shifting your perceptions relating to your life journey and the apparent predictable changes happening within and around the planet.

It is referred to as being only apparent simply because when you focus into the higher aspects of creation, there can be the application of energy which you draw into you which changes the apparent happening. You become an active participant in the exchange of information and integration of the energy information for the civilisation and for the planet.

There is no need to give specific items and explanation because you are already receiving this. As this unfolds, you will experience a change within your personal systems, including your thinking systems, the interpretations that you have, the responses in the way of emotions and the responses in the physical body form, because you are having to assimilate and understand and absorb the energy. All of this is delivered to you in this session simply because you were needing it individually and this will be giving you a sense of great freedom throughout your energetic systems which of course overlay and influence all systems within your physical unit.

Experience the feeling of being suspended here, free of all attachments, free of all analysis, and you are simply experiencing energy information.

This is sufficient here for you at this present time, so I am bringing you back into the receiving area of the Station. From this space expand yourself to embrace the life you are living, the country you are existing in or moving to, and the entire planet and all that surrounds it in the dimensions. There are many existences and realities in the dimensions around the planet which are not usually evident to most people. The more that you can become attuned to the energy pattern known as the Earth Light City, then you will perceive what we are referring to in the energy field around the planet, so there is a great deal happening for you and you are drawn into receiving just what you were needing at this particular time. You may have been receiving reassurances from what you have experienced here today. It may have been something deeper than that. You may be feeling that you have taken into you some specific dimensional coordinates which you will later return to, identifying what they are there for and how they are part of your consciousness field, and you will be able to tap into those simply by being aware of the nodes of connection.

All of this you will be assimilating now into you and I withdraw from this area. I do encompass you in this sphere of energy and appreciate being able to address you in this way

This is Lani again and I am back with you, fully conscious, but it is me speaking, and so again it must be the time for us to bring all of our aspects of consciousness into the Earth body again.

Ulea had us encompass it with love, so encompass yourself again, consciously, as you become aware that you are back within your body. You may experience the slight shift there has been which was referred to earlier in the session as changes took place and I am sure there are many aspects of interest delivered in this session. At this present time I am not remembering it all

Take a lovely breath into your physical body, feeling that you integrate it all now, and as you let it go you are clearing from you all doubt and resistance and any discomfort that you are ready to be free of.

It is time now for me to close the Omega Portal, so I ask you to be fully conscious again - conscious of your body, your location and the time and day, physically grounding this energy into your space and into the earth.

There is a very strong connection between the Station of Light, your Higher Self and what you are presenting into the civilisation. I thank you for that
