“There is always an expansion to experience as you come into this space, Beloved.

Orem addressing you and I am here present, I have drawn you into this space and you are encompassed in the warmth, in the joy, in the communication sharing as this session opens. It is upon you to be sufficiently expanded in awareness that you choose to divest yourself of the accumulation of the human civilisation for this short period you are here and you thereby are able to realise the fulness of your energy self here. The expanded version of yourself. You may refer to it as the enlightened aspect of yourself, but that is what you are always and what the intent ion was for you to be present in the environment you inhabit currently. We are just here reminding you of that, uplifting you into the energy spheres here which allow you to bring in with you the disturbances of any sort and as you bring them in with you, you are divested of those.

The continual presentation into here cleanses and clears many different layers and aspects of you and when that occurs, you are more able to perceive the general groups of Beings from other dimensions here who are always communicating with you and indicating different aspects of creation, as you would need to identify patterns which are occurring and patterns perhaps which may appear to be cycling over and reappearing around you and in your life. Indeed this is true of many civilisations you have been in. In some civilisations on Earth you may have climbed to mountain tops with the view that you would receive clearer messages and you would be able to draw energy in through you into the Earth, but in this current civilisation and time phase you are experiencing, you are able to do this because you are sufficiently connected into the higher aspects of self which indeed draw into you the information through particular dimensional portals for you.

Now, we are also assisting you to orient yourself into the specific placement for you.

We often speak about dimensional coordinates and these are around you, presented to you, and as you move into different phases in this Station, you are drawn to the particular dimensional coordinates where you feel you are in the right place, within you. You resonate with the frequency pattern and thus you are able to bring into your presence and awareness Beings who would be working with you. In this way you are participating in different essential programmes for the expansion of consciousness without necessarily having to spend life patterns in that particular dimensional area of existence. Many of you have done that. The memory of that is retained in your consciousness, so in this way, in the Station, as you reconnect with the dimensional coordinates you resonate with, you are moving into that state of assisting, of preparing, of enlightening people, of showing them different various choices that are available to them in creation. Are you feeling that? Are you feeling you are in a state of awareness where you are functioning in several different ways.

Having energy forms, whether they are such as your human organic unit form, or of a higher frequency vibration, there are still areas which occur of impact or disturbance, Depending on the level of vibration you are functioning at will depend on the method you use to restore all elements to the basic operating functions for that particular manifested unit. Because in the Earth physical unit you exist in currently you are adjusting to higher frequencies and you are receiving energy and information through different dimensional portals, you are already aware that you can use the patterns of energy to restore the complete pattern of energy to your physical unit.

We are bringing this to you at this transmission simply because many of you are already aware that you could be using energy to facilitate clearance or remedial work. It is dependent upon many variables in your energy systems, in how you view your life pattern, and how you are aligned and attuned to the frequency which allows you to use that energy form.

Issue 923
Date: July 12, 2018
Time 4.30 pm

I open the Omega Communications Portal for you to receive the energy and information today. Therefore, put aside whatever you are doing to devote this little time, about 20 minutes, to receive the messages within the energy and the words.

I feel as if I am drawing many people with me today into the receiving area of this beautiful Station of Light. It is filled with space, in the sense that it is great in its area and we have been told previously it expands to embrace everyone who is drawn into this space, as if it has no limits, because it is a living, organic space and it can change in accordance with the needs of who comes forward. So there is a lot we need to understand about energy vessels such as this, and every time you come into this space you are absorbing energy and information to do with this Station of Light and the Beings who exist here or who come in, and of course the purpose for it and of course the purpose for you being drawn into it. It is very much an individual integration for you, even though we are addressed as a group.

Be present consciously here as we begin this session.

Initially when you are exposed to higher energy fields, there may be a response within your physical unit in some way. Therefore, you need to acknowledge that your physical unit, if it is responding, is simply attempting to be fully integrating the higher energy pattern, and it is the higher energy pattern which will create some adjustments necessary for you. Using the light energy pattern through your highest point of connection, to that which you identify as your highest self immersed within Source Energy will assist the release of blockages or resistances and also will assist you to restore a higher level of functioning to you.

We bring this up in this session because many of you are responding in various intense ways when you receive the higher energy pattern. Trust the process. Trust yourself and love yourself and respect yourself for everything that you have experienced in the journey living in the current existence in your Earth body unit.

You are facilitating and integrating energy which allows the facilitation of you to absorb more of the higher frequency - important at this time. There are the influences drawn around you through the extra dimensional Beings who are assisting in this process for you and there is the sense that many of you have that this needs to happen quickly so you are in the correct energy framework and systems functioning well to interpret the communication flows coming through to you for the overall existence on the planet. This again, as has been referred to, is continuing to expand the consciousness field, or the energy field of this planet you are on. You will be viewing it as a shifting and changing civilisation, especially when you view it from your presentation into the Earth Light City dimension.

Again, as we bring this to your attention, you are there present in that dimensional existence. In that existence, you are already using energy waves, energy fields, intentional use of ultra-spectrum energy systems to assist all people, to assist yourself, so if you are sensing disturbances that you brought with you into this vibratory dimension, then take advantage of this while you are present here to absorb and fully use the energy systems available to you here. We did present you with the concept that you can have around you in your dwelling space a system of using a light beam for you to stand within and pass through to help you in many different ways and again this is happening to you now in this presentation in the Earth Light City. You may perceive this perhaps in different terms, terms such as the crystalline energy field, terms such as the greater source energy energy field which is identified in different phrases around you currently.

You may liken it maybe to higher octane fuel which is known to your conscious mind in your current civilisation, or perhaps you would liken it to a very high level of solar field energy, the panels simply capturing higher rays of light. You have the capacity within your energy field to capture even higher fields of light energy, so indeed it is an expanding scale of energy as you unfold your consciousness and allow the greater patterns to come to you. Take this within you now and also the way to do this for you. You do it through sensing, through embracing, through intention. We always present these in energy patterns to you simply and therefore in the simplicity of it you are not trying to logically interpret it, breaking it into different fractions, layers and different words and colours. It simply IS. It is a greater energy field. You are feeling this at the present time.

We acknowledge this in you and now bring you back into conscious awareness of being in the receiving area pattern of this Station. For some moments in this session you took on the higher aspect of you working in a different way, in a different life pattern. You could capture some of that impression if it is appropriate for it to be incorporated into you in this time. There is always a higher filtering system which will over-ride and prevent anything that is not appropriate for you to be using currently in the Earth civilisation from merging with you, until it is appropriate. So, this was all that was needed to be given to you in this session, Beloved.

All of you come back - bring back all of you - into this pattern within the receiving area of the Station. You will always be able to reconnect with the groups of Beings when it is appropriate, for they will oversee the process for you. It is acknowledged - the sense of allowing all of this to happen brings you closer into that energy field which is merging with your current energy field, so that when the transition time comes to be functioning more often in the higher energy field, it is quite naturally achieved. You would understand that as well as your energy field, there is the energy within the physical organic unit to be increased in vitality and energy for all of this to happen.

We acknowledge you here Beloved

Orem out

Lani back with you again. I felt a great sense of enjoyment of what was being presented today. There was enough of me present with you experiencing that for me to be aware of the sensations and the energy and even a different appearance within the Station of Light. Now bring the attention to your light body, bring it back to where you are receiving this energy message in your physical environment. Of course the physical environment has many dimensions in it around you but at this time we are still focusing on the present time and place and physicality. Every time you extend your energy field you are embracing that higher dimensional aspect of yourself and the existence that is there. Every one of you has the existence around you of that Earth crystalline light city and that is exciting for all of us to know!

I now close the Omega Portal, so I want you to breathe in the light energy information and bring it into your conscious mind, body, the Earth and environment around you. Thank you.

Lani
