Date: August 16, 2018

Time 3 pm

I welcome you into this new transmission through the Omega Communications Portal and for you to get the maximum benefit from this, I ask you to make yourself comfortable, and relax so that you can really experience the energy through the messages and let images come into your awareness, of what is being presented to you.

So, here we are again, gathering together as a group, many of us all gathered together, and I move us into the receiving area of the Station of Light. This is just an amazing space for us to reconnect with other dimensional Beings and for them to present themselves to us, and of course, because we come in a group, it is easier for us to recognise the Beings and to experience the group energy, even if physically you are alone. In this metaphysical dimension we are together and that is the important aspect of this form of communication - sharing in energy, even though of course we do have many layers, for each one of us, and many layers in this receiving area. However, what is important for you to receive will come to you in this session and in every other session as you allow yourself to be uplifted in the energy - do you feel it already? - and receive the information. This is what I allow to come through me in this space.

“We are present with you again, Beloved. Orem addressing you as you come into this Station, even in this initial area where you are adjusted.

You have the sense already that you belong to a distant aspect of yourself. It is only distant because when you are in your physicality and are very busily engaged and focused in that world, there appears to be the distance. You always have the connection in the higher aspects of your energy field into these dimensions, the dimensions which are appropriate to you as an individual.

Again we say we observe you and we are here to undertake support for you and in that support you evolve and you can experience expansion as you are experiencing the wider civilisations which exist and you also experience moving into the altered dimensional frequency which is that pattern you identify as the Earth crystalline light city. All of this is around you in this initial greeting to you.

Some of you now are being separated into separate groupings so that you will receive impulses and impressions, even beyond the words which are spoken to you which are delivered to everybody, but you can still experience your individual link-up with other Beings here for you.

Initially everybody receives a clearing type energy pattern and this allows you then to expand your awareness to be clear in those energy centres existing in your energy body as this is all to do with the extra dimensional field of information patterns already known to you. Your existences in other places where you were more evolved than you are now, always assist you in your present focused life experience. Anywhere you are in your current life experience, you are able to connect with the appropriate higher evolved aspect of Self, or Consciousness that is You and collect in information and assistance. All of that is aligned with the greater purpose that you have and the overall purpose of everyone is to assist the upliftment process and to enliven your physical body, the cells of your physical body, to such an extent that you vibrate in that higher pattern in which you exist and you can move and travel into the organised areas of the City of Light energy.

The emphasis is on this, because the portal is open for you to engage your connection into that existence. Engaging your presence and the energy of that, enhances you in your present focused life existence experience. The result of that is that you draw in more energy frequency into your pattern of light and body and flesh and thus it is anchored into the Earth plane and anchored into that overlaying energy matrix.

We speak about this because as this information is given to you and you experience it in this altered dimensional state of consciousness, it can become distorted, or not so relevant, when you fully engage back in your body form. This means that the more frequently you are exposed to this pattern, then the realisation becomes much stronger in your current conscious mind functioning.

Now we are speaking here about separation, or division, into specific pockets of energy and understanding and this relates to the many different layers that people function at in their minds and emotions and physically, in the same area which you are inhabiting. You are aware of this. You are aware of the ones that you draw back from. You are aware of the ones you resonate with and commune with and that will be amplifying the energy frequency that you both share and that also has a connection to the greater evolved self of each one, which again is connected into the greater network of consciousness. This is the basis, you see, of manifestation and everything that is needed will come to you out of that higher state from which manifestation occurs.

The division means that there had been areas overlaying the lower aspects of consciousness on this planet which had served the purpose of obscuring some of the energetic pathways available for you to move along, so with this being separated and the openings becoming more apparent, you will be experiencing times of very high energy where you would be filled with the light, or perhaps you would call it happiness or joy or love, and this has the effect of drawing you deeper through that layer that had existed. When you do experience those intense moments of higher energy frequency, you are able to strengthen that within you, because you remember it, you know it, and it exists there, connected into that opening, or that portal, through which you are able to receive that. The connection to the higher aspects of you exists in that same way and you would be drawn, some of you, into different vectors within the functioning universe. Those individual vectors contain an energy frequency and pattern which is held or focused around the planet by Beings who have come in from outer areas beyond your current solar system, to be of assistance. Some are observers, some are assisting you.

You may be experiencing this, because we are sharing the present pattern of that with you.

This also will be having an impact on your energy field. Every major energy centre of your light energy body as it exists within and around your physicality, relates to specific vector coordinates and therefore when we bring this to your attention in this way, you will be feeling releases, or connections, whichever occurs in the appropriateness of the moment and all of this also assists you.

It means you are becoming more finely attuned to this greater dimensional field and this has inherent in it certain functions or actions. As different parts of your energy field respond to this, the particular actions or motivations also become apparent to you. This is another way in which we assist you all in this process.

We remind you that every action you take around you in your life where you are nurturing some aspect of creation has the effect of reinforcing to you your connection to the energetic kingdoms which exist around you. If you are nurturing plant life or nurturing animal life or even nurturing other people in some way, you are aware of the existence of the energy frequency of the natural kingdom and you are able to draw on those for extra assistance, just as you draw upon Light generally, coming around you, around the planet.

If you were existing within a building and you have no access to open air light, you are still able to draw upon universal light energy frequency to support you and help you. We give this to you because we are aware some people do not spend time outside in daylight. That is essential for your well-being and if you are one of those people not able to do that, then this is a way to also assist you. The light that you receive when you are exposed to the open air has certain wavelengths in it, patterns of energy unseen, and in this way you are able to use that more directly.

So, having drawn that in around you now, I am bringing you back to connect consciously within the receiving area of the Station. You have expanded in this experience. This is achieving the intention of this session with you, so again I conclude this aspect of my visitation with you

Lani speaking again. Thank you Orem.

Again we are filled with this Light and Information. By now you will have realised it is much more than the words. These are actual energetic experiences which will continue to unfold, as you allow that to happen within you. Each time you listen to, or read this transmission, allow yourself to experience unfoldment in different areas and again you may experience in your energy self what Orem referred to in this session. That seemed to be very important. Different things being moved aside or opened and other areas being deeply connected again.

Each journey is an interesting journey that we move together within.

Now it is time to bring the awareness firstly into your body of light - being aware that you are the body of light energy - and this now reconnects in every way with your physical form and life. Perhaps you feel it as a settling over you and within you, right down to the soles of your feet and my sense is the body of light is much larger than our physical body and we are of course surrounded in a sphere of energy.

So because I am ending this transmission through the Omega Communications Portal, I want you to take in a nice deep breath and as you let it out, be fully aware of your situation, your surroundings and the present moment. In the present moment you could be aware that you are surrounded by many wonderful Beings of Light. You might see them in the variety of manifested forms that they have - or energetic forms manifesting around you in some level. This is your support team. These are some of the Beings you connect with as we hold the beautiful energy around us and in us and in the Earth energy system - right where we are meant to be at this time. Thank you for being with me and we will continue again at some other time

Lani
