Welcome again to the Omega Communications
Portal.

Hello, and thank you for joining me for this energy transmission - another inner journey together with many other like-minded beings as we draw together in consciousness and we gather in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

This is a space that I draw you into and of course you may go further than this, but initially it is to bring you into the energy system of the Earth Station of Light. The Light Station of Earth - which has been here beyond our measurement of time, as I understand it, which has been indicated by the Beings here on the Station to us, and of course it seems that time is irrelevant to them as we measure it. It is just a phase of existence and their presence has been necessary as part of our consciousness field, to help us in ways that personally I cannot describe. So, in this way as we gather together in this space, already it is required of you to open your mind, open your heart, extend your senses and embrace the living energy which will come through the words, between the words. So here we are - we are ready to receive the energy transmission today.

“ As I come forward acknowledging your presence here Beloved, Orem addressing you, I am also able to assure you that everything around you that you put your mind to, relates to the mental creations and this substantiates everything that is around you and relates in particular to the lower aspects of your mind.

When you assemble into this Station and we envelop you in the extended energy system, you rise above the levels of conscious mind into the extended dimension which is that aspect of you sometimes called your higher self, but definitely we identify you as an energy Being here.

Your purpose for assembling in this Station is for you to be assisted to expand your conscious memory back into the process that you are engaged in as you become attuned to the ongoing phases of expanding evolution and as you also contribute to the higher existence in the dimension and the civilisation which is being called the Light City civilisation. We have described this to you as the City of Light, the Earth Light City and the Crystalline Light City existing in the dimension alongside everything that your conscious mind is aware of and exists deep within the Earth's structure, as you are aware of that structure and how you participate in that. We take the opportunity when you assemble with us in this Station to bring you more into the energy systems of this situation.

Where you are situated in an energy sense is at the expanded, extended state of your consciousness field which now incorporates your conscious presence in the Earth Crystalline Light City. You will be aware of this. You will also have been aware you are accompanied by some dimensional Beings who have made their presence known to you currently. This assists you further when you realise that these Beings exist alongside you. When you are consciously engaged in physical matters, you may be unaware of their presence until you open and expand and link into the higher essence of your own state of consciousness.

Our emphasis is always on this for you to be consciously present in the higher level of civilisation. Assistance again is given to you for the purpose of uplifting you into realising that the presence of the Station here is a reality and is part of your expression as a Being, consciously present on the planet system known to you as Earth. It assists you in many ways.

We are aware of certain difficulties which you experience within the human body element form and when you identify with your light body present here with us in this transmission, there is none of that disharmony or out of balance situation. Being clear even for a few moments in this state gives you the realisation that what you have been experiencing is not necessarily a real aspect of you, even as a humanoid being. We remind you that when you move into this space with us, there is a filtration system that you are engaged within which helps to clarify and strengthen your energy system and we also remind you to establish that firmly in your dwelling space and you would need to be aware of this and to incorporate the energy of that activated system within all the elements of your humanoid being.

We are issuing this to you because we have the intention of assisting you to move beyond what the matter has presented itself as in the humanoid form and to give you the opportunity to re-order anything that has seemed to be out of balance around you. Even in the many systems you function within, you would sense the out of balance sensation and energy systems. Therefore, when you establish this higher level system, within your dwelling space, you are able to engage that in a very real manner into your humanoid existence - into your physicality.

As you are present here, there is the opportunity again to be present in the Council of Light. In this current situation and presentation you are reminded of many opportunities presented to you and many pathways presented to you. There is always one which will be very strongly evident to you and you will resonate with that particular pathway.

Perhaps it could be presented to you as a book or a visual presentation, or a sense, and when you attune to your point of origin through your higher self, it is always evident to you and there is always the inpouring to you from that level of existence, which is also clarification in many levels. Then your choices are evident and you take the appropriate steps to engage all of the energy that you would be needing within you.

There is a greater organisation happening also to bring in a higher order in the entire civilisation as an overall concept upon Earth as it is at present and you are aware of many factors that are trying to dominate and be predominant around the Earth pattern and we are also aware of the disturbances physically in atmospheric and earth changes for you. In this session, as we modify your entire energy framework and system and that stabilises your energy systems, you will see the correlation that it is needed in the outward appearance around the planet - the stabilisation effect. There will be many people who are aware that if they maintain a very ordered perception of creation around them, then they become separated from much of what is experienced by other people. We are not suggesting that those appearances do not happen, but we are encouraging you to keep your own systems balanced and highly attuned to the sense of order through Source Creation and the various avenues that you receive energy from Creative Source.

Also, we do help you understand, with the presence of the Council, that it becomes necessary to identify patterns within your energy system which need modifying so that you are more consciously able to absorb this type of energy you are receiving now. Assistance in this way has always been present and you have always had some individuals who have been able to present this to you in various forms over many generations and many civilisations. Have you been aware of that? Have you been able to integrate all of that within you? You have many higher energy intersections around the planet that people are drawn to and they still perceive visually, whereas when you enter within those spaces as a metaphysical Being, which you can do from anywhere around the planet, then you have a greater realisation of the purpose of those intersections and how they can enable you to move through dimensions. Many of them act as portals and portals to underground existences within inner Earth as you would perceive that to be and also within some of the ground mountains you can identify already; even within populated city areas there are portals which can be identified within your senses. You merely need to attune to your higher self and ask if it is appropriate for you to locate those areas and to be present within those areas. You are capable of all of this that is presented to you in these sessions.

The presentation to you of the Council of Light in this moment gives you an enlivened system and therefore your energy system will be vibrating at a different frequency and that frequency will help you identify the higher level of creation around you. You are attuned to various patterns around the planet, above it, within it, within the oceans, high above the atmosphere. You could be anywhere, but it depends on your frequency and where you resonate with and then the appropriate information comes to you, so this is an overall explanation. Again, it is presented to you. We do not take you somewhere that you are not ready to perceive, or to receive what is there. What we are doing is to help you acknowledge that you are consciously present and you are conscious of the many portals that provide energy and information and passageway into other realisations and dimensions.

At the present time energy is shifting greatly around the manifested Earth planet and it is being influenced by the concentrated thought patterns of people and when you are within groups such as this gathered here, you are operating at a higher level and you are influencing numbers of people around you, almost like saying - here is an opportunity to participate in this higher resonating energy field. Are you ready to wake up? Are you ready to acknowledge the existence of this? Are you ready to acknowledge the existence of Beings from other dimensions? And when you are ready there is an inpouring of assistance and reunion with many of these Beings. It has an effect of strengthening, awakening, lifting you up, giving a much more powerful sense of who you are and why you are present on Earth at the present time.

The Council enfolds you in a beautiful pattern of light and we bring you back from that into the receiving area of the Station. Stabilise yourself here. Realise that even a higher aspect of your light body system comes back to be integrated in the aspect of you which immediately came into the receiving area of the Station. You are being redefined and this was the purpose of this transmission for you today. I withdraw now

Orem out "

Lani speaking again. Thank you Orem and the Council. Personally, I feel filled with light, changed, and I am sure you will feel this too. Remember what you have experienced. Take it all into you, into your mind, into your emotions and your body and now bring this back to fully reconnect with your physical aspect present within the Earth civilisation as it is in this moment. There is a sense as we do this that we are putting out the energy saying wake up everyone, come into the community of Light Beings and enjoy new creations.

I am closing the Omega Portal now but I leave all this with you. Take in a deep breath, open your eyes and be fully consciously present, in your body, in your location, back in the present moment.

Again, thanks for being with me on this journey
