Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

This is a place - a sphere of energy - which you can use to separate yourself from daily activities and reconnect with higher aspects of yourself and from then you can easily access this communication space - the receiving area in the Station of Light.

As you know, the Station of Light has existed alongside this planet since before the planet was populated, so it is an enormous expanse of existence to get our mind around and perhaps we would never totally understand it with our present state of consciousness. However, we can enjoy the experience of the energy with the information presented to us through this present state, through our presence, in the Station of Light.

So, this is how we begin this session at this time.

“You are welcomed into this space,

Orem addressing you at this time and we are observing you and have observed you during many of your experiences, many of the consequences from changes you have made and we also have you present with us so that you may experience observing energy that is potential for you.

Every shift you have in your thoughts, every choice you make to make some alteration to your present pathway, creates a shift in energy and the energy creates particular sequences, patterns, codes, within that area of potential.

As you are aligned here with us, you are connecting with the highest aspect of yourself and your intention. If your intention is to be fulfilling all necessary aspects of your purpose, then you will be drawing from the field of potential. Potential being patterns of energy. Absorb that into you as you are present here in this conscious state.

There is an expansion and an opening in the field of energy which Earth is stationed within and this has influences measured as magnetic fields in and around the planet's structure, the energy structure which it is, realising that everything is energy.

This opening will be revealing many of the energetic spheres of code referred to in previous transmissions and also it will be revealing the difference that has become strongly apparent to many individuals between living in an atmosphere which you would call enlightened compared with the atmosphere which you might term very dense, very difficult. There are many layers in between.

Bringing you into your focused intention in this space, we are also having you revisit the energy spheres which you became involved in presenting them to the Earth-plane.

The movement you are feeling is repositioning you back to the original time when these energy devices, energy units, were presented into the field of energy of Earth.

With the raising of patterns of frequency of individuals it is necessary that these become evident and when the energy field of particular individuals resonates with these energy devices, this is when there will be the shift in the thought patterns and what is presented generally to people and in turn, individuals will be feeling the shift within their inner essence, within the consciousness field of who they are.

This creates individual alignment patterns, similar to that which you are experiencing in this session at this time. It is available, you might say, to every individual existing on the planet, but it is only available to those who resonate with the energy field contained within these energy devices, coming through time portals from a different aspect of civilisation.

You will be hearing more about this because your story writers who are attuned to this frequency will be presenting it to you in ways that you can understand. It is for the upliftment of you all and exchange of different data fields which incorporate the understanding of the greater pattern for Earth and how Earth has become to resonate with the higher field energy structure from Source Creation coming through the Solar Portal.

It may be evident that there are different types of energy also coming through the Solar Portal. What is relevant for you is to keep your intention very clear and purely attuned to your own energy source. For this to become more apparent to you, you are being strengthened through the energy fields you are experiencing in this present moment. This is the importance of your presentation into the Station of Light currently.

You will also be aware that within the Station there are many people participating in various assignments. These assignments were made known to you in the previous transmission through the Council of Light and so there is a selection process happening. There is a distribution process happening of energy and information and each time you are here with us, you are experiencing consolidation of what you received through the Council of Light.

Therefore, there will be memory aspects surfacing in you. Many of these may just relate to concepts rather than actual step by step directions. This is because you have a complex sequence of interpretation as an individual and the concept needs to be integrated through the higher aspects of your consciousness field into the pattern readily acceptable by you, and the pattern then, as you interpret it, will arise in your own thoughts of ways that you will be changing or enhancing or communicating or travelling. It is how you present yourself into the current civilisation and how you present the higher aspects that you have accepted as your assignment.

It was not a new assignment. It is a consolidation of what you brought in with you into your current life pattern. Therefore, you will already be sensing changes you are wanting to make. You may already have made many changes in how you view what is occurring in your life and around the planet and this will be incorporating as part of that change withdrawing your attention from what you had been heavily engaged in, in previous years. Those types of changes arise from the repatterning of you in alignment with the higher aspects of - we call it pure - energy instruction and activation. It is pure in the sense that it has not been altered by conditioning and programming.

Again, we draw your attention to bringing yourself into alignment through that Solar Portal, very easily accessed by you in this state present here.

Gather in that energy into the core energy self that is you here with us.

Bring this back now with you, fully focussed within the receiving area of the Station.

There is the aspect of this that you have drawn into you which we will term for you - as your vital essence. This vital essence works throughout your energy field in many ways. The vital essence identified for you at this particular time around the planet, is also within the element of water.

Consider the pure element of water energised through the vital essence. - that vital essence which you received from Source Creation and which you carry within you.

More of this will become apparent to you as you interpret the energy you have been immersed in during this session.

This is all that I am presenting to you at this time,
Beloved

Orem out “

Thanks Orem. This is Lani again with you, joining you again in this space, consciously, and I am aware of this vital essence.

Do you feel that working through you in this space? Perhaps you feel it surrounding you, and if you infuse the water that you take into your body with this, you will be feeling change, noticing change. Take note of it.

I feel as if the whole planet has received a drop of something vital. Can you picture that as I am picturing it? This amazing drop of vital essence.

Bring this into your awareness now and bring it all back into the planet, through you, through your body, as you now bring your attention fully back into your body.

You may continue to feel this vital essence in your energy field. How will you use that? I am sure the higher aspect of yourself will be giving you the clear impulses in regard to all of this.

Now it is time to fully bring your focus back into your body, into your full aspect here on Earth. Feel it filling your heart, your mind, your body, your energy. It does feel to be something very special.

I now close the Omega Portal so we have time to absorb and fully integrate the energy of this session.

Thank you again for taking part in this energy activation and we will connect again in the next session.
