Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Hi. This is Lani welcoming you to this transmission.

If you are ready now, let's begin this new journey, again renewing contact with the Light Beings, the Extra-dimensional Beings, renewing contact with the higher aspect of yourself and possibly making that more powerful and clear to you.

As usual, we begin by gathering in the receiving area of the Station of Light in that aspect of you we call your body of light. You are a light body, you are a Light Being, so it is this aspect that we receive more clearly the information and energy within.

As always, allow yourself to receive in this state of consciousness and of course, allow your body to be relaxed so that it too will receive the energy that your Light Body is receiving. The energy shifts around us here and I withdraw to allow the greater information to come through.

“Orem coming forward to you here in this space and we are around you, we are with you, we assess you, we measure the content of the information and energy which you have been working with, which you have been integrating into you, and that which needs more attention and focus. This is always in our initial welcoming of you into this space.

You may feel that you are each coming forward individually and as you do that you pass through a specific beam of energy. This in turn is what is assessing you, reading the data that you bring forward and also preparing you for more inflow that you are capable of receiving and storing and using.

This also is strengthening everything that you are, which you know you are and it increases your connection with the field of potential. There is a field of potential that is unique for you because this is what you agreed to bring in with you. There is a greater field of potential which is available to you all as you shift your perception and align with the increased pattern of energy coming through the Solar Portal to you from the Central Sun, the Central Source of energy that activates all of you. It is a prime energy source and this is delivered to you early in this session because you are able to perceive it and receive it.

It is your unique intention and focus which allows you to receive the strength and the greater patterns which are available to you through the field of potential.

Having presented this to you, we draw you deeper now to experience further communication with Beings who are stationed here at this time. They have been called in to assist in this process which Earth station is going through and therefore you are experiencing also. It is a process of alignment and connection and recalibration of much of the patterns which you are familiar. Some of the patterns will retain the same structure which you are existing in at present, but being recalibrated into a level of existence, of a frequency pattern, which allows you to observe more and receive more.

This also is connected with the field of potential and the Beings who have come forward to assist you in this process already know the appropriate level that you are able to integrate in you at this moment and in which you are able to assist in the overall transformation which is occurring in many levels of your current existence.

With the transforming of your current existence there is a pattern coming forward through the overall Starfield Matrix and at the moment again this is connecting into the similar matrix surrounding you. Perhaps you could define it as brainwave patterns. It is an energy matrix which interacts in other dimensional fields, so you have access to the greater dimensional fields of existence. The patterns are useful for you because they are combining layers of information - images - informing you of the progress and the process you are involved in and it also informs you on a cellular level.

We have referred to this previously as energy nutrition and through this connection with the Starfield Matrix with your own energy matrix, more of this is suffusing you at this time, expanding you into a clearer aspect of insight, information, activity.

Enough experience has happened in your personal timeline and in the general overall timeline that the Earth planet has been progressing through to enable you to consciously make this connection with the Starfield Matrix and this in turn affects the entire planetary activation system into the core of the energy. So, with your immersion into this energy as well, you are receiving this very deeply into the inner aspects of your existence. Your personal energy attunement and connection. There are many aspects of this, of course, because you function in many different ways.

Already you are sorting through what you have been immersed in, in this transmission, and analysing it in a way that perhaps you come into agreement with it, perhaps you put it into the way of - I will work with this later to understand it. Mostly you are readily accepting the energy because you have allowed yourself to be present in this presentation to you.

The energy matrix - the Starfield Matrix which we refer to - and it also has the influence within it of the Solar Field Matrix - is working throughout your energy systems. You may be aware that many individuals are experiencing emotional type disturbances which seem to disturb the entire basis of the personality which you think you are, and the energy systems then can get out of synchronisation with the core energy pattern of you and the Earth planet, and the core energy system of all must resonate with the core energy essence through the Solar Portal from Source Creation.

There is a grand alignment and attunement process happening for you. In this way you can release disturbances from your mind and many of you show concern about what you perceive as reality and happenings around you personally or world-wide on your planet. Realise that when you focus upon those you are closing yourself off from this true essence through the Solar Portal which is there to assist the dissolution of many disturbances.

No longer do you need to observe through a cloud which is obscuring this true light and intention.

You may be receiving this and liken it to a time stream which is healing and revitalising and that is part of the entire core energy essence applicable to you.

We draw you back at this stage to come into one of the communication chambers where there are groups assessing what is occurring around the planet in an energetic level. You may be looking at some big visual interpretations of this energy as if they are on projected screens and you may be observing many other dimensional Beings emerging through these screens, or emerging in the way of vessels.

Understand that what you are observing is in a higher dimension, so there are many instances of this happening - of Beings coming forward - but these Beings are not physical. They do not have the dense physical bodies that you are used to observing.

They are present in a greater metaphysical state in this higher dimensional field and you are learning to perceive these and as you do that, you become part of that recalibration system which is assisting you to see these other dimensional Beings.

Momentarily, all of you may be seeing some of these Beings with you. There is coordination happening of some of these groups and working with you and there is a coordination with particular ones with whom you resonate - the frequency pattern that you have drawn some assistance to you with some of these Beings. This is to enhance this aspect of you that observes into the higher frequency dimensional patterns.

In the greeting that these Beings have with you, they are also assisting that process to help you realise their presence. They can assist in many ways with you in the way of vitalisation, of enriching your energy field, enriching the flows of cellular processes and activities. It is in this way that we give the greatest assistance to you. This helps you to define yourself in a greater way, also as a specific Dimensional Being working with these Beings of Light, Energy and Information.

These Beings are now bringing you back into the initial receiving area of the Station. It is important that you acknowledge this assistance and acknowledge your own intention of why you come to receive these energy visitations and be immersed in the energy and it is important for you to use this energy in your current circumstances.

It is helping you return yourself to the greater aspect of you that always exists and also it is assisting Beings around you.

This is our presentation to you, Beloved and therefore I withdraw

Orem out

Lani again speaking and I am grateful for this Orem, for me personally, and I am grateful to have been aware of these many other Dimensional Beings with all of us and I ask that you make your presence known to us so that we know we are assisted.

Now everybody, it is time to bring your awareness back down into your physical body, being aware of the energy matrix, the Starfield and even the Solar Field Matrix that has been infused in your light body and you are now absorbing that into you physically. Enhance this. Let it enhance you

I thank you again for being with me in this part of this journey through time.

It is now appropriate for you to take in a deep breath and open your eyes and fully ground yourself back into your physical body.

I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal.

Thank you

Lani
