Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

The information and energy coming through the Portal is to help you move into that higher state of consciousness where your frequency matches that of the Beings of Light. To assist this, I gather you up as if you are with me in your body of light - that energy state - and we move together in the receiving area of the Station of Light, assembled beyond the Earth's visible frequency.

You will understand from this that you need to raise your frequency to be relaxed and happy, so that you easily enter into this energetic zone, which is the Station of Light.

So, here you are, gathered here, ready to receive upliftment and whatever else the Beings of Light who are stationed here at this time have to offer you.

The energy has shifted already around us, so I withdraw to allow the Beings to come through me.

“Orem coming forward to you, surrounding you, approaching each one of you and I also will have you be aware that you are surrounded in a sphere of light which is held in place by a number of Beings here who have come forward to witness your ascension process.

It is a process and you are deeply configured for this process to occur. The configuration occurred before you entered into the physical body state you inhabit on Earth. The process for many of you was initiated in several other dimensions, in different time patterns, time as you would try to relate it to your understanding as it flows through your Earth life. We refer to it in a different aspect, just for you to comprehend that it is not lineal time.

Moving beyond that, there is a brief encounter that you will have here with an aspect of your own conscious self. Conscious self being that which consciously chose to move into different life experiences to bring forward your particular energy attachment and configuration as it was created through Source Creation.

This is the ultimate connection for you, and you would be aware that you are in different aspects of experience as you moved to absorb everything that was appropriate for you through Source Creation and then as you manifested that, as you created it, sometimes in a singular fashion and other times as a group creation.

We have expanded your awareness to perceive this, and yet, what is required for you is how you identify yourself now as you are using your current physical body form and that is apparent to you as the most important aspect of life, because you chose to be in this physical body currently and you chose to experience what is occurring around the entire planet Earth existence and its surroundings.

You also chose to align yourself with Central Source Creation to allow the continuation of the energy coming through the matrix of creation, in particular firstly into you and this stabilises, enriches, enhances your energy matrix. It is from the energy matrix that the body form is created, the body form is not fixed in its creation because the energy field matrix contains the pure essence for the body form, for the existence, for your creationism and it needs to be fully comprehended and integrated into the conscious body matrix of you.

We have already spoken about your physical body DNA and you would understand through your scientific analysis how that affects your physical body, and your memories, your inherited memories. We have also referred to the energy DNA system from Source Creation for the wholeness, for the core essence which contains the natural holistic blueprint within that energy DNA. This is being integrated into you in this state of your presence here receiving this session. It continues to expand to touch into the energy system of you in cooperation with your allowance and acceptance, non-judgement and appreciation of the entire process in this time where you are with us [and we have amusement about that term but we use it because you understand it]. So, in this time you chose this time to more fully integrate this pattern of energy into you.

This allows you to access another state of existence. It may appear to you that you are walking over a form of bridging network into another area and we wish to bring you deeply into this area. It is a metaphysical and deeply hidden physical aspect of creation in relationship to the Earth construct. It is hidden because it is held within the natural earth formation. So, every time you perceive in your landscape either a cone shape in the natural landscape, or more of a pyramid shape, this is the area that you are crossing over to move into to experience at this time. It is another vehicle of presentation to you, where you will observe how matter can be changed. Matter is changed by the absorption of the energy systems present within these shapes which are a focal point to receive specific energy as the Earth maintains a rotational orbit and as it aligns in particular dimensional flows to that which is coming through the solar portal.

You have been taken into this shape which exists within your Earth time understanding currently to receive this in a different way. For some of you this will be more easily accepted because you may feel you are there entirely in your current physical body form. This is why we have been able to present it to you at this time for you to deeply experience it as you receive this form of energy information.

It is making necessary adjustments deeply within your current physical unit. Connections are strengthened which can be misplaced or weakened and so the reconnection and strengthening is necessary. At the present moment you will be aware that your blood system is being enhanced through this connection. Within the blood system is the flow of energy which your body has taken in through the various energy vortices and this also is inherent in your core energy flow paralleling your physical spine and it is receiving in depth some coding energy mechanisms through the blood. As the blood integrates this energy there is a natural filtration process occurring. This will help you adapt to the changing energy patterns you are receiving.

This is what was needed in this state and you will be aware that your physical body is moving out of that structure, which was both metaphysical and physical, and so your body form merges completely back into your body but your energy form continues to be with us and your focal point is with us in the Station of Light.

You are observed and it is acknowledged that the sequence of the pattern that was given to you is apparent to you, will be readily accepted, because the receptor aspects were prepared for it and have been waiting for it. You will find results as you continue through your life pattern in the current physical form. You will also be aware that you are more in connection with many of the Beings who come forward to assist this change. It is an alteration in the energy pattern. You already have some scientific instruments and mechanisms which will recognise this change in the people who have allowed the change to occur. We say allow, because you have conscious choice, always, and it does depend on your willingness to let go of resistance and fear so that it is fully integrated into you. It is natural that by being present in the presentation, you do allow this to happen. We understand there can be depths of resistance and fear as they relate to memories that may be contained within you.

We continue to support you, to assist you to reconnect the aspects of you already active within the consciousness levels of where we are and functioning very deeply from your own connection to that aspect of you existing in a much more powerfully aware state.

We give you a moment to reconnect with that aspect of you. Feel the connection. Feel how it changes you - the sensation you have.

With that process complete in this moment, we draw you back into the receiving area of this Station. Again, you may perceive you are surrounded by a group of Beings supporting you. You may be aware that you are being given something. Remember you have an area within this space particular to you where you can store everything you receive in this space and you are able to access that. Each time you come back into this receiving area state it all is renewed in you. It compounds and expands. We are aware that many of you come in straight to this space that you created to just reconnect with that and you stay there during the entire process of your immersion here.

It is time now, the appropriate aspect in time, to draw all of this into you again. This will help you function in the greater creative world you exist in.

We withdraw now

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. This is Lani again and I am instructed again - perhaps the word is compelled or impressed, to bring your awareness back into your light body completely here, feeling that you have changed.

Hold onto the experience of it before it fades away, and bring all of this back now to deeply, fully, connect into your physical unit. I was going to say your physical apparatus. It is the bio-mechanical being that you are, comprising all of the aspects of your physical unit. Everything, because it is energy, can be changed as you absorb all of that higher aspect given to you today. It continues to unfold and from my personal experience, every time I listen to the session again, I receive something more and I value that.

Now, take in a breath, open your eyes and fully orient yourself back into your body. You will realise that your body of light that accepted all of this in the energy DNA pattern is already around you, within you and through you.

This is how I conclude this session today as I close the Omega Communication Portal.

Thank you

Lani
