“We are with you, Beloved.

Orem addressing you and I do represent all of us stationed here who are part of the consignment [is that a word you would recognise us by?] who are assigned in this particular aspect of creation connected with the planetoid named Earth and the Beings who have come forward over many cycles and presented in many different aspects of life to support the repositioning of the planet and supporting the evolving state of consciousness, of awareness.

You understand that we use the terminology of the vessel who offers herself for these sessions and you will also understand that you are able to receive the impression of what we deliver to you in all of these sessions, therefore you are receiving specific information for you and questions you may bring into this space will also be receiving attention and in your own specific way, you will be aware of the required information you have been seeking.

The many levels of you manifested even here alongside your main focus as your current body form participate in the sessions. This is part of the pathway that you opened in your connection to the point of origin state and all other aspects of you are aware of receiving information. The information may appear to be important, or it may appear to be confirmation of things that you already have realised and what you may have already manifested in many of your life patterns.

We refer again to the energy sphere imprinted with everything that you knew would be appropriate for you in this time to be receiving. You have already stepped into that energy state - into that sphere - remembering that in this area where you are assembled there is no time definition.

There is experience, there is movement through different dimensions. We speak to you in this way so that you continue to expand your own concepts, moving beyond time and expanding your awareness into the multi dimensional facets of what you represent and what you allow to come into your beingness. Within your energy sphere from your point of origin there is also the pattern which represents the entire planetoid you are on and because there is no separation, you will also be receiving connection to other galactic dimensions and spheres. We refer to them as dimensions because in that sense they are a different state of existence and energy. Civilisations manifest in many different styles, depending on the necessity of what is required where they are located and the intention of what the experience would be.

You also realise that the experience on the Earth planet has changed many times. The atmosphere has changed, the pattern of growth of life in general has changed. We bring your attention to the changes which you are experiencing currently and these will have been apparent to you in different ways. You may have already been experiencing a physical shift, as if you were sitting in one place and the next moment you were aware of shifting into a different position and this will have represented a shift in the dimensional field around you which you consciously placed yourself into and there are many of you have been focusing on this term “the shift”. The shift relates to your own state of consciousness and where you perceive yourself to be, what your intention is and what you allow yourself to experience. The impulse you all have from your origination space connected with Source Energy is to continually be upgraded and expansion of your senses, your perceptions, your awareness, your consciousness.

This has happened to you many times. Are you aware of this in your current life path? As a result of all of this current movement and expansion you will be releasing many of the atoms within your energy system which related to previous experience and which created a sense of change within your emotional or physical bodies.

Are you ready to come with me into the Station of Light? Are you ready to explore more aspects of who you are - what you are? Are you ready to receive the flow of energy and information?

Let us begin this way, focussing your attention within this transition space within the Station of Light, bringing all of your heightened senses into action, so that you participate very strongly in the session today.

The alignment with your intention into a pure line of connection to your point of origin and Source Energy then this is the part of the disengagement from you of the previous patterns and you will have been noticing changes in many of the layers of your physical unit. Even as you attend here in this experience, you are experiencing change. You may be experiencing release in some patterns that you have brought with you in this state. Remember, you are still engaging the energy systems which you brought forth for your own beingness to assist you. Ultimately this will mean that you participate openly, joyfully, and in full connection with the entire intention of the entire grouping of Beings who manifest as part of this ongoing exchange of information which enables you to expand beyond the known consciousness field you have existed in and to absorb a greater level of realisation and manifestation. And this is the entire purpose of your connection into this space.

Be very strong in your own intention and connection so that you are not diverted from that linkage, that alignment. Once you have committed to that alignment and clear pathway, you may then have a sense that there are others who are not working alongside you with the same intention. You would need to keep your focus on your own direct linkage and alignment and in this way you are moving with those of us who are overseeing and assisting this process of expansion, upliftment, and a resettling into the ongoing phase of existence.

Around you in the presentation is the energy field for you to experience of the next civilisation coming in, which you are creating. Everything of that would be included in what you would term JOY in the conscious connection with manifesting Source Energy. Feel this as you engage it within what you are experiencing here. Many of you are engaged in the process of sending out a layer, as if it was a wave, around the entire planet. Multi-coloured. Different light spectrum and in that different light spectrum is the manifestation of different facets of creation which will appear. It may appear as new dwelling spaces, of transportation vehicles, of different plant life.

It is all contained within the energy system which envelops the Earth at this time. The more that it moves into the true alignment such as you are in this moment, then more of this Creation unfolds and the general sense of support of each and the purification of each comes into reality.

With your awareness now coming back into the receiving area of the Station, there are many Beings here with you and you will see them in their different forms which they retain, of course, as they travel through dimensions to be with you in this state, collectively. You know you are supported and assisted. As you feel that and acknowledge it, I withdraw now

Orem out

Thank you Orem. This is Lani again addressing you and I have alongside me Ulea.

“We are here with you with the intention of assisting you to absorb the multi layers you have experienced in this session.

It is for you to continue to work with and it also increases what you have already experienced here, connecting you to the core energy system which you have retained because it is your Essence, and this you realised in that point of origin existence and the connection in this session has reinforced that for you.

I am now assisting you to return back to your physical form. You do know me as the one named Ulea and I have visited some of you individually, When it is appropriate I would appear in your knowledge, your awareness, and I am here in this Station always. I enjoy observing you shifting into your true energy being.

Ulea out

Thanks Ulea.

Lani again here. So - have you come back into your body. Are you feeling that core energy of you? I feel that in my solar plexus energy system. You may be aware of it somewhere else - but it is the central core energy pattern she was referring to which has been strengthened in this session.

It is time to take in a breath of pure Light to fill you and open your eyes and orient yourself fully back into your current physical presentation in this world. That is important.

Love who you are and enjoy who you are and what you bring forth into the world, especially knowing you have connected with the highest level of Creation, and that is what you are bringing through, clearly connected to All That Is.

Again I thank you for sharing in this experience today through the Omega Communications Portal.
