“Greetings to you. This is Orem and we are situated very close to you in terms of the level of receptivity and the intricate meshing together of the different dynamic fields of communication. Perhaps you would say layers of dimension, layers of thought field patterns, opportunities and portals which present themselves to you when you have the intention of aligning to the deeper aspect of your own Being and that deeper aspect of course is the Self that is always connected into the all-knowing, ever-present, universal consciousness field.

We are here to assist you to connect in the process and in so doing we also evaluate the level of energy that you bring forward into this space and as we evaluate that, there becomes apparent specific needs for you. Are you ready to receive the energy field that you draw to you in respect of the specific needs you have?

It is all about you acknowledging that you are an Energy Being and you will draw to you the energy which you need. It may not come in a materialistic appearance. It may come in the sense of feeling inner strength, feeling greater connection to all that is and to the aspect of Creation that you came from. You may feel more deeply connected to the pattern that you recognise as yourself that you set out to be, as that aspect of self that brings to you the patterns of energy needed.

You are able to change circumstances around you and appearances around you. They are simply appearances manifested through various patterns of thought, layers of thought, layers of emotion. When you assemble in this space you become enveloped in a state of energy which is clear and therefore you have a greater sense of clarity of purpose, of your presence, or what is truly needed for you and that which is not necessary for you to have around you or within you.

We offer the energy to you to assist you. We are able also to strengthen that pattern that you resonate with, when it is your intention to work with the highest aspect of self. There is always ongoing expansion and unfoldment.

These words which are presented to you come in the form of a sequence of energy patterns, frequency perhaps which could be measured and if you were able to measure it with the appropriate energy system, you may see colours, you may see patterns, you may see tones that some would relate to various musical notes, you may see a depth of creation through which you could travel and it is this level, this extent of your perception, which we can observe and also we understand then how you have integrated previous energy sessions.

We are also able to assess where you have deviated from your original intention and purpose through circumstances, perhaps through very strong influences around you or presented to you. We acknowledge that there are many people like you who have consciously avoided following the media and what is presented to you and this usually arises from feeling the impact of what is presented to you upon you, and you thus realise that it is not beneficial to your sense of joy.

We speak again about the existence of the pattern known as joy, the energy that you resonate with as joy. This is moving throughout you here in your energy form. It has the effect of restructuring patterns within your energy aspect, the energy matrix, the energy field of you, which is greater and permeates through all aspects of your existence. There is no dense physical aspect of you which is separate from this energy matrix. We are able to see the adjustments which happen - the alteration as a result of drawing into you the energy pattern here and that which you identify as joy. Perhaps you could refer to it simply as - LIGHT. Light which you receive and draw into you from all of the elements around you and in particular through the solar portal. There is a great influx coming around you through that dimensional portal.

I am known as Lani and I am happy to facilitate these sessions which enable you to be able to be part of a greater group, even if you are living alone and have no contact with anyone else associated with this type of energy and information. So, you are part of a collective consciousness and in this way it is easier to receive the energy and information. All you have to do is give yourself the time to receive this transmission and to open your awareness and still the mind so that you are receptive to the experience of these sessions. It is more than just listening to a lecture. It is your participation and willingness to receive what comes to you which makes it more real and is often evidenced to you, because you may have thoughts confirmed to you in these sessions.

During this introduction I am linking with you and drawing you into the receiving area of the Station of Light - and here we begin. I withdraw into a deeper part of my consciousness field to allow the Beings existing here in this space, this Light Station, to come forward to us.

There is a need also amongst a great number of the population to again receive this energy because it balances, it clears, and it allows you to feel that you are expanding outward and moving forward again into a placement where you feel very welcomed and you would feel that placement is very familiar to you. In one sense this is described as returning to your higher evolutionary state for renewal and again you are being restructured through that renewal.

Many of the pathways through you became disturbed over several civilisations and patterns you were subjected to and we have spoken previously about clearing ancestral patterns and clearing the mass collective consciousness. So, here again you have risen above all of that and you are vibrating into a different energy field. There is a modulation effect happening which gives a recurring wavelength and this in turn creates a pattern of energy. You may be familiar with the term the torsion field and this can be deeply examined, it has been examined through scientific studies. It also carries you into a depth of activation into a deeper level of existence. It can also operate as the functional dimensional portal into the corresponding energy situation of another life pattern.

Some of this has already been created by you in the field of your potential and how you would see and wish yourself to be existing in, in a different field of existence. Surrounding you is the impetus of this highest potential - the next potential field for you. It is ongoing after that but we speak about it as the new dimensional civilisation cities of light for you to exist in. There is the merging and it is in states such as this that you can more consciously experience it and thus it becomes part of your energy field. This also helps to keep your energy at a level where you can relate to it and integrate it and it helps you to separate from the earlier part of your journey in this current physicality you have and which you have separated yourself from to be within this current transmission. Allow yourself to experience this, to integrate it.

As a child you would have the sense of wonderment and joy - pure happiness and this again is part of existing in this altered dimensional pattern of life for you.

Indeed you may realise that there is an aspect of you already existing in that state and this also helps you connect with it.

This has a settling effect within you right now and thus I draw your attention to your presence in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

You are being uplifted, you are transforming yourself, you are transmuting different states into a more expanded state of light and within that light there is energy, there is information in a way that you assimilate it easily. You may already have plans that you have been waiting for specific energy patterns, or a clearance, or change, or motivation so that you can manifest, or put into action, those plans. Drawing in the pure Light from our own Point of Origin connected to Source assists that.

This experience for you again is complete - another pocket of experience that you moved into that you can retain as part of your expanded energy field.

I withdraw now

Orem out “

Thank you Orem. This is Lani again and I am aware also of the presence of other Beings again here who have made themselves known to us over recent transmissions. They are here, they are busy working with you, making adjustments because they see you as an energy form here. The energy pattern adjustments are required for you. It is purification and this is necessary, it seems, just because of what has evolved in our general living conditions and we are one here on this planet.

We are within one atmosphere. We are within this Creation. If you willingly accept the purification, you are participating in the purification of the entire energy field of Earth and the atmosphere. It seems to be a matter of engaging the energy purification and allowing that to work, releasing of course the appearances of what you may feel is disturbing around the planet.

We are surrounded in a layer which I perceive at the present moment as a thick band of translucent golden light and it is a thick band around the planet's atmosphere, extending well out beyond it and also as far out as where the moon exists. There is an extended field of energy around us.

Now I would like you to bring this all back with you, around you, within you, connecting firmly back into your physical form and take a few moments to adjust again to being present in the body. Take in the energy that motivates you and energises you for the day, or perhaps you use the energy to help you sleep and in your sleep state you can again reconnect with the energy.

So, take in a breath of pure light, filling every area of you. Open your eyes and be fully present in the current moment.

I end this transmission through the Omega Communications Portal.

Thank you

Lani
