Omega Communications Portal Transmissions

Welcome to this new session of energy and information coming through the Omega Communications Portal for you, for everybody, and to enable the deepest experience, of course, it is up to you to open your mind, relax your body and let yourself travel in your light body - the light essence of you - to come with me into the receiving area of the Station of Light here in this extra dimension existing with the planet.

This is how we begin this session today.

“Even as you have gathered here today, Beloved, Orem addressing you, we are able to also explain that you have been in a series of time shifts over the last few days preceding this session. Also, if you listen to this session at any other time date as you know it, you will continue to experience the energy.

It is all about the energy improving you, expanding your awareness and helping you to assimilate the rays of higher frequency patterns surrounding the planet, for the purpose of enhancing the vitality and the pure essence of each and every one of you.

This is necessary and essential so that you maintain your presence very strongly on planet Earth system because you are the ones who are changing the course of evolution. You are the ones who are changing the civilisation.

The importance is upon your intention and how you would wish to bring in light, love and joy into you and into your surroundings.

This is part of the mission of how we share ourselves with you and all of which we are able to bring forward to you and this comes in the way of energy, it comes in the way of support for you, it comes in the way of various galactic Beings making themselves known to you.

This is dependent on your readiness and acceptance, moving beyond belief systems, moving into the deep awareness that you have when you connect precisely to the point of light known as your point of origin and connected deeply into the creative essence of everything.

It is a matter of you preparing yourself to undergo changes and already many of you are aware that you have been experiencing changes. These changes will manifest in improvement in your body, clarity of mind, of focus, it may manifest as impulses to share the information which you bring forth into the planet from before you were presented into this life form that you have.

All of this is knowledge you have. The reminder serves to trigger some of the memories you hold which go beyond what you may refer to as inherited memories. These are memories of where you existed with many greater abilities and functions and these are those which you chose to bring close to you into the current civilisation, when it is appropriate to use them. It is always appropriate to use them when you are filled with happiness, joy, love - all of the higher frequency patterns natural to your light essence self.

I turn around here and allow another presence to communicate with you. “

"I come forward to be with you. I am known as Mineeta and it is my joy again to restore you into the memory of working with us and being aware of our presence as we exist beneath the surface of planet Earth. We remind you also that we exist beneath the surface of other planets in your current star system.

We are present here with Earth for the purpose of holding the frequency patterns that come into the Earth and we are able to use these to stabilise some of the conditions around the Earth and it is also to facilitate the movement of Earth as it transitions into a clearer space of light and this is a state you could refer to it as another state of consciousness. It is another dimensional state and the preparation you have been receiving is to enable you to also exist consciously in that dimensional state of an enhanced civilisation, as you know it. This exists around you.

This is important for you to realise. It is important as you know, you are only aware of this when you are in a heightened energy state.

We are also able to facilitate from within areas of existence within the planet that which you would refer to as restorative energy vibration. We are making this known to you.

Even as you are with me in my existence, you will be aware that changes are happening throughout your energy system as you are present here. There are still patterns which are visible to us here and you will be aware of them also which need to be withdrawn from your entire energy being and pattern, so that when you integrate back into your physicality you will notice the difference.

Some of you have carried discordant patterns that have become apparent and entangled into your current energy systems and these have been distorting your perceptions and distorting how the energy framework is intended to create and recreate the healthy physical unit for you. Merely being within this energy system is helping you.

It is another way. There are many Beings who assist in accordance with what is appropriate for you for them to reveal as a pattern to enhance you, but there is the underlying pattern referred to as entanglements or distortions that need to be cleared before the full impact of the higher frequency of the light patterns can fully function for you.

This is what I needed to explain to you at this time. I now return you back to the Station of Light and I withdraw now. Thank you. "

Thank you. Lani speaking to you again and I am seeing Mineeta still with you, touching you with a loving hand of light on your central heart energy system and I can see the result of that, because what I see is the energy flowing directly into your entire light body present here. This seems to be the vehicle that carries it back into your physical form.

The appearance in the Station of Light today is one of celebration. This arises from the recognition of the energy which has been absorbed around the planet. It is an energy which I am perceiving as - bio-plasma energy is the phrase which comes to mind - and that has been enhanced by some particular rays which have been surrounding the planet as well. It seems to be an infusion into an overlaying network. It is expansive and it gives me a great sense of joy - peace - knowing that we are absorbing a clearer pattern of light that is above - it comes in from above our atmosphere and the layers surrounding the planet. Do they call it stratosphere and perhaps beyond that? This is where the higher energy surrounds the Earth first and this is what we are tapping into, above everything that is manifested here on Earth.

Again, in this Station of Light your biosphere of energy becomes apparent. Perhaps it is being enhanced in that way as well.

This is all for this session for you to absorb. It carries a great depth to it which exists in the spaces between the words, so allow yourself to realise this, to accept it and to now bring it back to integrate in your physical body.

Take a breath in to allow that to take place and as you breathe out be aware that it is a continuation of the clearance that Mineeta assisted you with. Mineeta is one of the Agarthan Beings existing within our planet.

This is all for now and I end this session through the Omega Communications Portal and you will be welcome again to share these sessions with us.

Do make sure you are fully focused back in this present body and the current time, fully connected to Source Energy and the true essence of you.
