

A Personal Energy Multi-dimensional Field Message is for energy and information for you at this time.

Your Personal Energy Multi-dimensional Field Message may also contain healing energy for you.

I am not a licensed healthcare provider. I make no claims, promises nor guarantees in regard to your health. I do not predict, diagnose nor prescribe, but if it is appropriate I may make suggestions for you to investigate for yourself. It is you, your body, mind, consciousness which will use the energy in the best way for you and help you to go on an inner journey as you experience the energy and information being brought forward to you. During the session Light Beings from other dimensions may come in to assist you – whatever is necessary to help clear your energy field so that you make the appropriate choices now to create the next step on your journey.

Any contact via text, phone or email will only be in relation to Omega Communications and will be for your support.
