Issue 843

Date: November 3, 2016

Time: 8 pm

We begin this session joining together in friendship, as always, and identifying each other as a light being. Remember that essentially you are a being that is light, perhaps that is love, or a being that is energy and it is the energy that I call upon to be in your body of light - the light energy body. This is the body that can be separate from the physical body, so allow your physical body to be at ease and allow you - your consciousness - to establish the sense and connection within this light body. Then we can meet in a different dimension and from that different dimensional linkup, we move into the receiving area of the Station of Light, which is in another dimension. Perhaps if we could see it physically, we indeed would identify it in a certain way. From your body of light perspective, you will be perceiving it as an area that you can easily identify with and sense what is around you.

Already you have created a special sphere of energy in which you identify yourself completely as a being of light, so this is where we wait and really consolidate the sense of being a light being - a crystalline light being, perhaps just an energy form. This establishes the link - it is like a transition body between the physicality and the dimension from which the Star Beings can connect with you.

"We are happy to connect with you in this way Beloved, Orem addressing you and I come forward and already because of the stronger connection and realisation you have in this space, we are able to present ourselves to you very clearly and you may perhaps sense our energy signature, our energy shape, colours, personas, and it is all about you recognising the energy and the intention that is within this space, within this Station, the entire complex of the Station.

So, wherever you have come into this space from, anywhere around planet Earth and its surroundings, you all become as one unit here ready to receive the transmission of energy and information, ready to be inducted into this space. Already many of you have identified several of the areas we have taken you into in different journeys and some of those will be in your conscious memory now and so if you are new to this assembly, please be aware that there are many areas in this Station of Light which can sustain the human body element and it can also sustain other Beings and other states of existence or conscious forms. Consciousness can embody many different life forms.

Your humanoid form is well used to this space and the Station has been adapted to allow you to exist here easily, whether that is in your light body form or whether it may come a time when you are here in your physicality. Therefore, as you become used to this space, there is the sense that you can easily enter here and you can feel secure and you can also feel very purposeful. There is a purpose indeed in assembling you into this Station and the purpose also is to have you become familiar with the different Beings who will be communicating with you. There will be different intentions, depending on what is needed for each of you.

Beginning this process now, come as we enter within the major communication chamber. Presented to you here can be various elements that are needed and there could be the awareness of having some of the Councils who oversee transition areas in different places in creation, and they have an important role of ordering, re-ordering, balancing, introducing new concepts to help civilisations. Many of the concepts that are introduced to civilisations such as you presently on Earth, have helped evolve technology and technology can be used in many different ways, as you know, for communication, for entertainment, for improving or repairing the physical, emotional or mental bodies. Many of the aspects that you are used to seeking for assistance currently, has a base that has come through conceptually through layers of consciousness.

This would indicate to you that evolution on Earth has always been over-seen and assisted. There is a point that we cannot move into areas and displace people, or command people. We introduce concepts, suggestions, and we can help in that way, but it is the choice - what is known as free-will - of the population and perhaps of individuals as to what they will accept. You are aware of the free-will action that you have, for you don't blindly obey everything that is said, or believe everything that is said and this has been part of our core message to you, to sense what is going on around you, for you, within you, so that you know the appropriate response, you know what is going on around you.

Every time you come into this space you are helped more to understand this. You are helped in your energy body so that it will accept more of the higher frequency patterns. The patterns themselves can be modelled after and around the blueprint for the sustenance, perhaps for the original patterning, of the human body field. So, each time you feel you are lacking in something, remember that there is that original blueprint and that also is held in the layer of consciousness. We are helping you to realise this so that you can link in with that and draw upon the frequency.

We see the attempts that are made throughout the human family of Beings to restore balance and harmony. We are showing you the base energy pattern, showing you in a way that perhaps you are seeing what we are describing to you, because our words are describing the pattern that you are already receiving and observing. Allow that to move within you, within your senses in some way so that you can identify it and use it as a tool to access again this pattern of energy.

We also acknowledge that many of you perceive what we are presenting to you before the words are spoken. This is the level of linkage and communication you have and advanced perception.

Expanding your perception now, you may embrace many of the outer stations that are around planet Earth and we are referring to some of the light ships, the vessels, the Stations such as you are in, Sub Stations and also the patterning of the larger cities of light. These always have a point within this altered dimension that we are communicating you within and they also have existence close into the denseness of the Earth pattern, although still not readily visible to most people.

So, have you been sensing any of these energy existences, civilisations indeed, that have been closely around you and indeed the energy frequency coming to you and around you of the higher vibration has been touching many of you, altering your patterns. This requires a certain amount of resting time for each and every one to adapt to the energy, to integrate it. In this state as your light body consciousness, you are receiving more of this higher frequency pattern. As you feel this flowing around you, some of you may also be aware of a different shape to your energy form. If you are, this is a representation of some other form that you have been familiar with in a physical dimension and it reappears in the case where that particular form may already have been resonating to this higher frequency. The memory of that is still retained in aspects of consciousness. Not applicable to everyone, but we bring this up because some of the Beings receiving this will be already sensing that they are different Beings. The important part of this is to accept the energy of it and knowing that in a different reality, you have been very familiar with this higher spectrum of energy and now you are taking it in, in your body of light here to take back to the physicality to enhance it, to purify it, to raise its frequency. The vibration, you see, and the patterns all throughout you. Some of them can be likened to an electrical grid but it is not electricity as you know it, but it is energy connections and pathways. Feel yourself bathed in this here.

Now there is an aspect also that some of you will feel you are very strong and you are ready to participate in some of the other services that happen as part of the presence of this Station and that would be for another individual journey for you. As you are here collectively as a group, we just present to you the various possibilities that you may be acting out and also part of the experience in this transmission is for you to consolidate many of the informational messages you have been receiving personally. You can identify yourself in a different way and many of you have been receiving confirmation during this particular energy presentation to you.

What we can also remind you about here is that you are indeed communicating with different layers and levels through the dimensions and the pathways through different dimensions are still opening, they are still forming themselves into a pattern that is appropriate for you as a current Earth Being and for Earth Being also to allow the passage into higher states of consciousness. Step by step the process evolves you, as much as you allow it to do that.

We understand the desire to know all that is happening. This keeps you seeking and searching. When that search is based on the principle that you have come from a great originating Station, or existence, then that gives you a stable pathway and point to identify with, because you know that you brought everything into the area around you that you would need and it keeps you focused in a way that is pure - a pure alignment. That keeps the alignment through you energetically and physically, pure.

Be filled with this now as I am moving you back to the receiving area of the Station. You will find that you feel freer from this transmission and you will identify that in your own individual way of what is required. Again, because you are multi faceted, there is not one particular action that is applicable to everyone, but it is the sense that is applicable and it is the light energy form that uses the energy particular for you

Now my purpose for this transmission is complete and I leave you here Beloved.

Orem out “

“Thank you Orem. Ulea again speaking to you, joyfully walking around and greeting you, observing you and observing the change. Observing some of the needs also that you have, but you have been given the experience of certain ways to work with the energy. Tools - that is your word to use, and you may call on help at any time.

That was just my brief message to you. I am grateful to share that with you

Ulea out “

Thank you Ulea and Orem. Lani again speaking, bringing your attention back to the light body, feeling it different perhaps, and now bringing your attention and your light energy body back to your physicality. Sometimes you might feel you are standing beside your body, but you must integrate back into the body and you as a light body helps sustain this physical form.

Be aware of your surroundings again and the day and the time and be fully aligned as I end this transmission and close the Omega Portal.

Thank you everybody, thank you.

Lani
