Issue 859

Date: April 6, 2017

Time: 6 pm

Today I open the Omega Portal and greet you from my space on Earth and as I say that, I am settling my physical body and allowing my focus, my attention, to be in a higher state of consciousness, in the light body consciousness state. In that heightened awareness I reach out to link with you, as you receive these energy words. Words are energy in whatever language. It is all energy within the words which describe states of consciousness or activities or experience, so for this experience, you are receiving the words and you will be receiving impressions as we continue.

We continue to gather together in the receiving area of the Station of Light and already Orem has given me the words to say that we are in this space at this time so that a great rebalancing will occur. That indicates that there has been some disturbance around you and therefore the disturbance is recognised and the Beings here in the Station of Light will come through and help you restore the balance and order.

We just begin by being consciously assembled here in the receiving aspect of the Station and then the energy you will feel moving around you and through you personally for your alignment - adjustment - information, as you would need it to be. You will draw that in just as you need it. You will resonate with the appropriate energy for you.

“We acknowledge your presence here Beloved and have assisted you to be in this state. Orem addressing you. We envelop you in the energy of this space, especially and immediately surrounding you individually in a sphere of light Energy. It is not enclosed as you would image a sphere to be. It does allow higher energy to flow into you because the energy sphere recognises the needs of you in your multi dimensional state here and that in turn attracts the higher energy into the space.

In this space in this gathering station and in the entire Station of Light you are accessing a higher state of consciousness which indeed is pure frequency, so whatever you bring into here, whatever you attract, is enabling you to expand your consciousness and involve yourself deeper into activating areas of joy and areas of experience that would bring you into a joyous state.

Facilitating this, there are a number of Beings coming to you, helping to describe to you what is being referred in this state as attracting to you joyous energy frequency. Interpret it as you would describe something in your life. Consider everything in your life as to whether it brings joy into you. You may also recognise that you seek and search around you for the exact elements for what you would wish to bring into you in that state.

This is all assisting you with what we are enveloping you in here. There is information which does steer you and helps impel you into the lines of communication that you recognise which lifts you up or fulfils you or helps you to be relaxed and open to allow that particular line of communication to be received in all levels of your beingness.

This is brought to you at this time again because there are many portals open to you at this time surrounding the planet and what is being drawn to the planet is a mixture of lines of communication. Therefore, when you link with these communication levels and lines from your state of consciousness that you are in now, you will get very clear messages and impressions coming to you.

Also, this is allowing you to move deeper into other areas within the Station and these are giving you spaces where you can meet up with other Beings you are familiar with. Already we observe many of you are meeting up with those ones from your origination station and the continuation of strengthening everything that you had in that state that you are able to strengthen in your light body here to bring back to your physicality and this is an ongoing process until you have reached a sufficiency of absorption and realisation of all of what that is and how it can be integrated into the current circumstances around you, and when you do bring that in as your purpose and all that you represent and channel into the Earth station, then there is a perceptive shift in the consciousness field around the planet and then you are ready to reconnect for the next unfoldment of what you are capable of bringing into the Earth station and that will also bring to you other people in various ways.

Every aspect of you that recognises there is a certain realisation achieved and you fully understand that, enables the next phase, and it continues.

In this space here, you are assembling layers of information being presented to you from different Beings coming into a large communication chamber. This is overseen by the Council Light present here and the information relates to different concepts that are being outworked in the reality of different civilisations, different dimensions to what you are existing in on Earth today, different planetary stations indeed, different Beings. As you are present here, you are able to see the intention of all of these Beings. They are not loading you up with a lot of information. They are giving you the appropriate amount for what you can absorb and put into process around you.

There is continuation of aspects of your life which are being adjusted and this is part of how you are being steered in the right direction. Be aware of what is going on around you and whether you are comfortable and enjoy what is happening around you.

When you reach out further beyond that to draw in the energy, you can be sure that you will receive visions or information to assist you.

We refer now to the layers of light frequency which are evolving you to enable you to exist more within the crystalline line city structure. The depth of this energy is not just upon the planet, it penetrates within the surface layers, of the planet into many of the configured areas of existence within it. Many of you are sensing the enlivening of more areas around the planet and those of you who travel and live in places of not so dense population will be aware of the vibration you are receiving from the land. This is part of the absorption of the crystalline energy frequency. This is also penetrating deeper within your own energy field structure and manifested structure of your body unit. All pressures you may have been experiencing are being adjusted, being cleared.

We continue in this aspect now so that you will sense the frequency within this civilisation and the colours which pertain to it and the various groups who are focused in different ways with the intention of uplifting the entire network, the entire manifested grid of this constructed civilisation and of course of its consciousness. Consciousness also can be sensed as an energy flow and containing layers within it and those layers may be presented as patterns. The energy is flowing freely through all of this in this aspect we are presenting to you in this session.

Being focused in this state, you will be aware of a sense of responsibility you have, in the sense that you are being given much information at this time and as this continues to increase within you and you recognise more of what it is, then you feel the manifesting process working through you, firstly through consciousness, before any action occurs. Consciousness creates the action and manifests into something that may be needed. This is not new. This is a way that creation worked on this planet and is being renewed within you.

You have evolved to this point to recognise that, and perhaps remember you were present on Earth and you were participating in the greater manifestation of this space.

We now will withdraw you from this space back to be aware of the communication chamber in the Station of Light. We observe the excitement that you have in regard to what you have experienced already.

Were you aware that at these times when you gather for these transmissions and you assemble into these chambers in the Station, that you draw within the space Beings from other areas of life. They are drawn to your frequency. These Beings are of consciousness, they do not need to travel in constructed vessels, many do who come to the Station for other purposes, but for your purpose, the ones drawn around you are part of the greater Source Energy consciousness. In this state much can be achieved. You do not spend time travelling from one area to another. It is achieved within your knowingness and the energy spaces that you are drawn into immediately.

All of this has taken place over many phases of your life, as it has necessitated adjustment in the energy receptors of you. The receptors have sometimes experienced the energy as pressure or pain, or perhaps you have gone through a shield, a film, a layer of something and that has been a way of allowing the actual energy cells, the manifested areas of you in consciousness to match the frequency of the energy message. This will explain to some of you why it has been an ongoing process.

Now you will be filled with the light energy of this and we bring you back to the receiving area of the Station. All that you have received in this session is working in an on-going way for you and you will continue to be with us, especially as you relax and let go of the daily activities and move into your state of rest and deeper levels of consciousness as your body goes to sleep.

So, in this receiving area, I leave you. Thank you indeed for receiving this

Orem out “

Thank you Orem, this is Lani again.

This whole area where we are assembled - and I recognise some of you here! - this whole area is surrounded, imbued with a colour and I am seeing it generally as pale blue, but there are shades of other light colours, lilac into white and pink and gold - those very subtle colours we see in a rainbow. Of course, they are not in a rainbow shape. The spectrum of energy here is all around you and this is what I am perceiving now. This energy also I am sensing we could call the higher spectrum and the crystalline flowing energy. Enjoy it! Bring it fully into consciousness with your light body and now bring it back to your physical body and allow it to be everywhere in your body matrix energy. The energy matrix of the etheric blueprint and the physical body blueprint, resonating together in harmony.

Settle back now deeply in your body. Be aware of where you are receiving this light energy information and the time and day. Be fully grounded and aligned in every way, as I close the portal for this transmission.

Thank you

Lani
