Date: July 6, 2017

Time: 5.00 pm

Hello again. This is Lani and I open the Omega Communications Portal to link with you, calling you forth to stand alongside me. The You that I refer to, as well as the person that you are, I in particular link with you in your higher consciousness and in that aspect of your light body that we work in as we move in these inner journeys together. Come with me and feel yourself being present in the receiving area of the Station of Light.

This is always an interesting and amazing level and place to be in. You probably feel that you have already risen above the planet, you have moved aside from the physical body, you have let it be at rest and you have made sure that you will not be disturbed as you continue this part of the journey with me and with the Beings in the Station. So, settle yourself here. Perhaps you feel this is a very personal journey for you - and that is how it appears to me. It is wonderful to leave aside the physical happenings on the Earth - at present there is thunder rolling around the heavens as I record this, and it is a pleasure to be above all that in the Station of Light. Here, of course, you are already waiting and prepared for the information and energy coming through today. Information and energy which you can work with in an ongoing way and even if you come back to this transmission in the weeks or months ahead, you will still identify something that is necessary for you to receive. It is all interesting. It all exists now.

“Beloved, I enter into this space with you, into the gathering who have come into this space, to communicate with you and to uphold you in this frequency, this energy system, within this dimension. This is Orem addressing you and you are in my care in this space.

There is an expansion and you may be aware of many other Beings here with you who are moving around you, greeting different Beings coming forth here from Earth and it is a time to be clearly focused and identified into your higher self energy systems and into the higher energy systems that you are raised up into here. Following of course from this, there are more portals open to you as you shift your perception and you shift what you identify with.

Therefore, everything that you have experienced to date here, becomes part of your energy system. We refer to the adjustments carried out and to experiences you have received as you have opened to communicate with the Star Beings and with the cities of light and also with areas within that which has been defined to you as Oceania. The definitions relate to your interpretation as you interpret things because of your existence in the present civilisation as it is today. If we were addressing you from another dimension and planetary system, the words would be different. The energy systems would be different and yet it is all part of your evolvment and your involvement in the consciousness field of you and what you are engaged into in the Earth construct.

So, herein we are giving you a greater outline of your purpose and presenting you into the present moment of your purpose also identifies areas that you might perceive as limitations or weaknesses, areas which we observe need adjusting or strengthening. This is an ongoing pattern for you. It does not mean, and the intention is not meant, that you are lacking and that you are inferior. Our intention is to enhance everything that you have become and everything that you are desirous of becoming. Therefore, this is very important for you to recognise in yourself and to acknowledge in yourself that you have evolved to this point of being open to whatever is presented to you in the present moment here.

We are able to assist you in the progress and it is today in this session that you are being drawn into a space that you can identify as an evolutionary wheel and this indicates to you a revolving state and an expanding state, because while we refer to it as a wheel, it is an expansion like a spiral, where you come round and you evolve, but you are calibrated into a higher level each time you receive and integrate the energy in the transmissions.

Portals open to you, where you can identify yourself moving into different aspects of creation. Sometimes you are reunited with groups of Beings whom you were activate with and cooperating with in different styles and ways of enfolding and expanding creation and thus, you see, you are reminded that you are totally supported. The interaction and connection with those areas identified as your Point of Origin remain in your consciousness field and you are experiencing this as we deliver this information to you.

Again you will feel, many of you, that you are moving out away from the concept of civilisation in the Earth station into a very much wider, perhaps vibrant, perhaps an expansion of colours that you are unable to identify in your words - your Earthly words. There is always much to explore and to remember, and being reunited into those areas enlivens areas within your consciousness and your patterns within your energy body system - that light energy body system - that previously had not been activated. This is a way of assisting your expansion. Being out of Earth construct you are able to access different depths. You are able to move through those areas that we defined as different spheres in the previous transmission and being able to move through those you have passed through the spherical balance or resistance or the layers that you identified that you needed to perhaps understand so that you could put them aside as being of no consequence to you, by merely indicating that you acknowledge that there are spheres there and that you are able to move through them and enter into the higher patterns of existence. What is happening in some of these, and for all of you who are receiving this transmission is that the emotional aspects that get retained in the consciousness layers of your experiences are identified and you are taking part in this identification process to discern everything that is irrelevant to you now. Everything that you have experienced that is still visible as being able to be identified in your energy pattern is also able to be deconstructed or released or cleared from you to enable you to integrate this higher space that we have taken you into.

You are experiencing all of this now and you will experience it even back in your physical body, where you may feel the framework - the energy matrix around you - is shifting, is shimmering in some cases as areas are dissolved, and other areas come into existence to support you. The new areas will be resonating with the next layer of creation that you are moving into. In identifying this other layer, you are purposefully moving through the opening of dimensions into that higher state of consciousness.

This is very powerful for you in this moment. It enables you to present yourself in the location around you in a different way in a stronger way. Many of you still exist and live your lives in a way of responding to external circumstances of an emotional response such as doubt, or judgement, or anger, or fear and when you see through all those responses and you identify the existence as pure source energy being experienced in different ways, you are able to pass all of those away from you and then you are living in the present, knowing that everything is in its right order and placement. We see the shift in the energy in you at this time and we are able to also affirm to you that even in this short space you have changed, you have been able to exist and see that you are now freer in many states than what you had been aware of yourself as, before you entered into this transmission.

We would now have you observe the many different smaller stations that are connected into this Earth Station of Light and these are different command centres that perhaps you already identify with. They are all connected into this Station of Light. There is the greater Councils present here and who meet here and they in turn bring in reports and representatives from the smaller stations. In this centre, you are able to be aware of the different vessels and Beings who come here for refreshment, for renewal of aspects of their systems of light that they in turn distribute to other pockets of civilisations. We are a multi-dimensional Station. Some of the pockets of civilisations we refer to are different timelines to that which you are functioning in. Some of them may be aspects that you have functioned in and there is a collective momentum of upliftment as part of the shift in consciousness.

Everything comes back to being in the present moment. In the present moment here you are ready to expand more. Perhaps you have the sense of being elevated from how I am addressing you now and you may observe a fully dimensional sphere in which you would observe Earth present in its different civilisations and it is all being merged and integrated into one. There are many fragments of every time of creation. There are fragments of you existing in different levels of creation and we want you to be aware of the wholeness of your Self and the focus you have in the present moment with your intention. You could put your intention into your daily life pattern, so everything you are doing must be done with some intention, therefore reconsider the intention you have in everything you do.

This ensures that everything you do is imbued with the power of the present, the energy of the realisations of the present and the consciousness of all, present in the moment. We have through this process, brought many aspects of you that had been segmented elsewhere into this present moment and your body of light here is able to record the significance of this repatterning. Some of the fragments had been collecting information and source codes from the different life patterns. It is all being brought back into your present light body. Again, you may feel the sensation of a shift within you."

"For a moment, I am Ulea here and I come forward to give you confirmation of this, while Orem withdraws and is working with a different segment of Beings brought into this space, for a different purpose from that which you have assembled here today and as I have been called forth to continue this transmission, then I want you to be aware of my presence. I can come to you if you identify myself as Ulea as able to assist you in any way. In particular, I can give you support in moments when you feel you need emotional stabilisation and this seems to be prevalent at this moment because of the many disturbances occurring around the planet. We do not wish you to be involved in those. We want you to step back into your alignment of this that you have received - the alignment with your core essence of creation and point of origin and all you have brought forward into your current life pattern to help the process of stabilising and then uplifting the Earth energy system.

Most of you would just be concerned with the same purpose and process for yourself and individuals known to you and that is entirely what is required of you if that is your intention and your focus. We bring this back into you and I now bring you back from this receiving area of the Station where you have experienced this expansion, bringing it into your awareness of your light body which is closely connected to your physicality. I am helping the process of you readjusting the energy of this higher light system into your present physicality and as you do that adjustment, I withdraw

Ulea out "

This is Lani and I thank you Ulea and I must say that I saw Ulea put her beautiful hand of light upon everyone receiving this transmission - a loving, understanding, empathetic touch, but as well as that it helps you integrate everything you absorbed in this transmission. It was like an imprinting, the handprint, imprinting the energy and information into you. Now you must bring your intention, your attention and full focus back into your physical body, the surroundings, the day and time, being fully aligned again, filled with joy at everything you have experienced in this. Thank you for being with me on this journey. You will have experienced more than what was spoken to you. Take them into you for your progress and all around you. Lani
