Issue 904

Date: March 1, 2018

Time 3 pm

I open the Omega Portal to gather you with me as I greet you, welcoming you here with me. In particular I am thinking about the higher aspect of you, which comes forward to help you in many ways in your daily life and especially when you shut out the daily life and move within the core essence of your Being, your higher self is especially very powerful and comes forward to help you with all sorts of energy and information appropriate for you. Assistance in many ways. So, with this in mind, we are all drawn into the receiving area of the Station of Light and the journey for this session begins.

Feel, as usual, that you are bathed in the energy of this space, which is like a cleansing energy, cleansing away from you thoughts, disturbances - anything that might be impinging on your presence here in this space. This is where you return to the sense of who you truly are, as an energy light being, and it is from that state of consciousness that you can be of most service, most help, for whatever comes to your attention. So, in this space you have come for attention from the Beings of Light in this Station and as you let go and allow yourself to receive, I withdraw to allow the different states of consciousness - of conscious Beings - to come forward presenting the energy and information today.

“We observe you as we move around you in this space. This is Orem addressing you and I am able to facilitate the drawing together of some of you who have the same energy frequency, and with that we know you will respond to certain colours, to certain words, to certain spaces which are drawn into your energy pattern here.

Primarily, of course, you would have the sense that you need to shift your perception out of the ordinary humanistic way and patterning, because all of you who have come into this space are aware that you do not want to participate in the ongoing games which many people are tricked into participating in. The games such as power or greed or influence over others to be manipulated, so with your intention of being here, purely aligned to the state of consciousness which was your origination state of consciousness, this allows you to move quickly into other portals available through here and these are leading you all directly into the Earth Light City.

We continue to familiarise you in this way with the pattern and the structural integrity of this level of existence for the purpose of allowing you to be more operating consciously in this space and for the purpose of you being able to draw upon the pattern that is the overall environment in this existence. You could liken that to the environment around you on Earth where you have the constant changing of air vibration around you and whatever is contained in the flow of air circulating to you and through you.

So the environment which is structured in the Earth Light City has components such as patterns which will be regulating your holistic energy field here - the energy matrix - because the energy structured here in the environment has that overall action of embracing you in the frequency and the energy matrix of you which originated in a higher existence works in a sequence to match the vibration presented in the Earth Light City and in that process you are elevated into being stronger. The strengthening of your energy matrix in this way continues as you will be going back into the physical body at the end of this session.

As we continue to work with you, you may have the sense of the energy matrix of your light body, the different systems here, and this also is allowing the withdrawing from you of the patterns which will not exist in the Earth Light City and already they are not functioning well in your daily existence.

We are referring to this so that you will understand that this part of this session is maintaining a very clear state of vibration for your light body and for the physicality. It is an extra purification. You already have that process occurring in your physical bodies at present, although it does not function in such a powerful way as this can work through your light body here. There are more layers to be filtered through in all of which surrounds and composes your physicality. When all of this is achieved, to the point where you have been cleared of many of the linkages and penetrations into your physicality, then you are in a state where you communicate more clearly with the Extra-dimensional Beings present here with you.

They are positioning around you within the Earth Light City state and also drawing you back into chambers within the Station of Light, because that is a much more recognised area for you, because you recognise gathering places and spaces which perhaps you would consider to have rooms surrounded by fixtures. It is in that state that you are comfortable because you sense the boundaries, the supporting structures more easily, and so in this space, many of the Extra-dimensional Beings can come forward, can speak to you directly, can reassure you that you are using the energy, you are progressing, even though many of you experience frustration senses because you wish to respond more quickly to the phases of energy bringing you forward.

In this space the Beings addressing you, which we refer to as Star Elders, also come giving you great support and love. Love in the expression of support and understanding of the structure and the intention of being present in the Earth planet structure.

Each time they connect with you, we can exchange information in energy patterns and depending on the intention you are holding when you come into these meeting spaces, many of the patterns that you wish to implement around you physically will receive energy to support you in what you are intending to promote or create. This is because you access on a higher pattern of vibration to do with your purpose - accessing what is available to you through the Star Elder programming and presence. When you completely align with the purpose, the originating purpose of you, this is witnessed, because your energy field presents itself in certain constructive patterns within the matrix around you altogether and it is perceived by those of us working here and the Extra Dimensional Beings coming forward. They recognise the state of your consciousness and whether you are fully aligned with the purpose from your origination point. Then, when they witness this as being correctly resonating and responding, that is when they come forward surrounding you in great numbers.

You will understand from this that it is indeed your intention which is responsible for this - the way you connect fully or partly to your point of origin purpose. Most of that point of origin purpose is in a similar sphere of consciousness to these Star Elder Beings. When they present themselves to you, they encourage you to be as they are. This helps you to remember, to restore, that energy pattern in you. You will be seeing this. You may not always recognise the pattern to describe it, or put it into words, but you will recognise the sense of what it is and the higher aspects of your consciousness utilise that pattern. It is very much a way of uplifting you and you become transformed as you are uplifted and reconnected to that.

We do not tell you where to go or how to act. We encourage you to be in the pattern of light - in the presence of light and understanding - and allow yourself to be surrounded in that, which in turn is upliftment.

You naturally know what to do from that point onward.

The Star Elders now are continuing to present themselves to you as they do that, each one touches you and your light body would respond to that touch. This will mean different things to each of you and we observe that many of you have been waiting for some indication - confirmation perhaps - that you are working in the correct field and that you would perhaps be wanting clarification of the next step to take. The touch from the Star Elders is conveying to you much of what you are particularly seeking at this time.

Bring this back in your light body as we now come back into the receiving area of the Station. Even though it is a different aspect and a different place, the Star Elders still observe you from a higher aspect which has no boundaries, no limit to where they are.

Again, the sense is that you have been infused with a great deal within this structured energy pattern for your energy matrix and to continue this, be aware of the pattern within your mind, within your vision - your inner vision and knowingness. We observe this in your light body form here and having seen that active, this concludes this part of the transmission for you this day.

We will continue assisting you as you need it.

Orem out

Lani again speaking to you. Thank Orem and the Star Elders.

We were taken very deeply in this session again, so consciously now bring yourself back into this receiving area of the Station and be aware of the extra energy working I would say in the upper part of your head, in your third eye area - the pineal gland. That is where I observe the energy very active, sparkling, blueish light, golden light, in a pattern. Very powerful, and this is what you drew to you in this session.

Now bring this back into your physical body, bringing it all back in your light body, reconnecting to all places of your physicality and your locality and the present time.

We know that it would be easy to continue to drift and be in this state, but you have received a great deal of information. Each time you do revisit this session, make sure you bring yourself back into the present, firmly grounded. It is when you are firmly grounded that you can bring the most of that energy into you and into what is around you. That is what we are doing, by changing ourselves, we are changing what is around us, so let that radiate out in every direction from you.

This ends this transmission through the Omega Portal and I thank you again.
