I open the Omega Portal for this transmission, for this inner journey that we take together and I bring you into this space - you - the Being that I recognise that exists on Earth, housed within a human body form. Yes, this is how I address you, and I bring you - as long as you are willing - to come with me into the receiving area of the Station of Light.

We explore many things. We are shown many things. We receive flows of energy and we are taken out of time and dimension into other times and dimensions, so here we are again, and I open myself to allow the energy to come through, as usual, connecting in with the Command centre within the Station and everything that is needed for all of us today.

I sense the change in energy and so I allow the Beings to use my voice and to come through for this transmission.

“Welcome to you all again, as agreed, [Orem speaking] and it is an agreement between us and you and everyone that you communicate with and share the energy and information with. This agreement was made between us, not just as part of these sessions, but before you chose to come into the current life form. You were present. You could perceive the opportunities which would be given to help you remember the purpose that you are present on Earth today and to help you to expand consciousness and to appreciate the opportunities given to you to work in a unified effort communicating with entire systems throughout the universe connected with planet Earth currently. That may sound a very expansive and generalised purpose. When you understand it and absorb it as it is personal to you, then you will realise the agreement was made and you remember the familiarity of some of the information being brought to you recently and how your journey is dependent on your commitment and intention.

Intention creates a flow of energy around you and that flow of energy and your intention will resonate with existing patterns corresponding to other levels and always those other levels are drawing you into an expanded state of energy.

If it is your intention to use this energy to help others, that will be amplified. If it is your intention simply to assist your own life pattern, that also will be amplified and cleared and in so doing, the clearance will restore you to the understanding and recognition as yourself as an essential Being of Light on the planet.

This is having the effect of turning you again, connecting you more deeply into another wave, another flow, of energy which you can sense already is changing you. You are losing the sense of the human body form and life pattern currently and you are identifying with the familiar group of Beings in the Station and this is something that we observe and is part of the reason for bringing you into the Station.

Individually you have the potential and abilities known to you to participate in the adjustments naturally occurring and consistently occurring to keep a balance on some situations on the planet and to restore balance in other areas and the balance can also be to do with particular individuals - not even just leadership individuals, but also individuals. It is each individual present on the planet who is effecting the change, effecting balance or imbalance. Every time you merge into this state of consciousness and communicate with the Beings here, you are making a difference with your intention. The intention is not to force conditions of change upon other people. The intention is to provide the energy and inspiration which is detected by individuals and then they feel they have a new concept to bring into manifestation to help in some fashion.

The energy never comes forth to bring about patterns that will harm another place or property. When you link into your higher purpose, of course none of that exists. It does not arise. Even in your humanness if you have patterns in your thoughts - intense patterns that are not consistent with the higher level of consciousness, then this is the opportunity to allow them to be cleared away from you. You can do this with your presence here in this state of consciousness.

Do you perceive the flow of energy you are in which is surrounding the planet and people? We acknowledge that many of you wish to be participating in group gatherings to assist this process. We also acknowledge that many of you prefer to do this in your quiet spaces, alone. It is whatever choice you make brings to you the opportunities, or the clear spaces, to participate in the way that you feel is the appropriate way for you. When you do this after linking with your higher self and point of origin, it unfolds to you what is appropriate for you and draws you into that pattern. Again, this is a resonating frequency appropriate to you.

We are gathering all of you who participate in these sessions into a clear space within the Station.

We call it a clear space, and yet it is a very focused dimension and sphere in here. The vibration is intense and you may be experiencing that. The intensity also connects you with the Earth Light City and with many of the energy supporting systems based around the planet in different areas. Yes, this is part of a continuation of the information given to you over the last two sessions. You will recognise it as such and you may feel you are taken further to bring about a deeper connection with some of these energy spheres stationed in different layers of manifestation around the planet.

In working with this in this way, you are bringing into a clearer understanding the purpose of these energy indicators, receptors, and radiating manifested areas - the elements of this - objects, if you prefer to relate to a physical object, although they are not physical in appearance. They are of a metaphysical appearance, but they are sensed physically and metaphysically.

Continuing with this, you will be aware that energy is activating a great number of these around the planet and they are needed. In some areas the energy that is radiated has a cleansing and clearing effect and many of you respond to that system of energy. If you widen your perception, it may show you specific areas that you can relate to where this is working. In a sense, you are irradiating the Earth and surrounding energy field with clearness. When there is a clear pattern, more information can come through, because there is no resistance and that pattern will be showing itself to many people, in codes or in other ways which can reach into the comprehension of current minds. It is an ongoing and yet it may seem very gradual, process to you.

The further you expand your consciousness you will see the effect of this moving out from the planet in waves and this constitutes methods of communication already in place to other civilisations and it constitutes a receptive area for many of the Beings who are participating in the upliftment of you all.

You may be experiencing this through your conscious self, collected here with us. Your participation in this helps the process. Being aware of the process helps the process, because your energy field is powerful. Feel that you have expanded as you become aware of this process, enveloping it, enveloping it in the energy structure of your own form, enveloping it to be with the enhanced blueprint for you as an individual and for the overall expansion of the living beings on Earth planet as it is and following through that vision, you could be aware of the shift occurring as many more people are aware that when they are receiving the higher patterns of energy, responding to it, speaking about it, consistently aligning with it, it increases the change and the opportunities for change and to finalise many of the individual contracts that many of you have made which may have been limiting you. Feel the clearness of this aspect that you are here in this Station. Remember it.

We have been taking you deeply in this session again to work within those layers of consciousness patterns, bringing forth the wider connections to assist and thus I am bringing your awareness back around us all within the receiving area of the Station.

There is much joy being experienced by you all in this space. I withdraw now, Beloved

Orem out

This is Lani again speaking to you and again I am aware of a different Light Being with us from a group generally called Overseers, overseeing progress. Usually they do not make themselves known, but there is the change in you all and so you can be aware of these other Beings present.

They touch you each. It is almost as if they are calling you forth as they touch you deeply. They see you in your higher light aspect. It is very familiar.

I feel we have done this such a lot in other times and in this current life pattern on Earth today that you are living, this may be the first conscious recognition of it for you.

Again it is a time of joyful recognition and celebration and acknowledgement. This Being tells me there is more to come in future sessions. It is dependent on adjustment of energy necessary, and that Being withdraws.

Now it is time for me to bring you back to Earth, consciously moving back, considering your physical body as you reconnect with it. Remember what has taken place. Your energy light body has been filled with, again, enhancement and this will always be with you. You will always recognise it and it will come through you in everything you do and say.

Remember - you are helping the shift and awakening. That seems to be very important - to remember and to know that.

That was our message for today, and energy, so feel that you are fully back, grounded in your body. Be aware of the beautiful surroundings around you. Look for the energy within your surroundings. If it is not there, it is up to you to bring it in, to fill it with joy and light and to perceive the energy structure that is there.

Now again I thank you for receiving this energy, coming with me on this inner journey. Each time you listen to this message we will be together and perhaps together with many other different Beings - all that you can imagine of beauty and light and joy.

I close the Omega Portal now and will continue in a week's time. I thank Orem and the beautiful Overseer who came in at the end of the session and all of the many other Beings who were and who are with us - thank you, indeed

Lani
